Auxiliary Notes

There will be a meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary this evening (Thursday) at eight o'clock. Plans will be made to organize several sewing groups in our unit to make articles so badly needed in the Veterans Hospital and in our own welfare work here. If there are women who would rather sing than sew, come down anyway and maybe we can have a music group too. Or if you have any better ideas come and let's hear them.

Material, needles and thread will be furnished (but bring your favorite thimble) to start sewing right after the meeting on some articles for our supply shelf. Lunch will be served at the close of the meeting.

CALLING 4 WITNESSES! or "THE STORY OF BEER"

The DOCTOR

"Taken in moderation, beer not only is harmless but healthful," says Dr. William Gerry Morgan, Past President of the American Medical Association, and many other prominent physicians throughout the country. They regard beer as a food, wholesome and nutritious, as well as a healthful, stimulating beverage designed to promote true temperance through moderation."

The WORKER

"I and 35,000 other workers are employed in the Beer Industry here in Minnesota. Our pay envelopes help support nearly 100,000, including dependents, and make the cash register ring for the butcher, the baker, and home town merchants everywhere."

The FARMER

"We farmers sell $3,500,000 worth of our produce each year to Minnesota Brewers. It has helped to solve our farm surplus problem, by providing a steady market for our grain, and fair prices."

The TAXPAYER

"My individual taxes would be higher if the Minnesota Brewers did not pay a share of the cost of State government. Approximately $2,000,000 in taxes on beer alone goes to the State of Minnesota each year, plus county and municipal license fees, real estate property and income taxes."

Score 29 Goals in Wild Hockey Game

Thieves Take Pirates By 16 to 13 Count in Battle Here Tuesday

Fighting furiously through an up-hill battle that required an overtime period to break an 11 to 11 tie, Thief River Falls came out on the long end of a long score at the Arena Tuesday evening, winning from Crookston (according to our adding machine) by a final score of 16 to 13. The Thieves got off to a bad start, trailing the Pirates at the end of the first period 6 to 2. The scoring was reversed in the second stanza, Thief River Falls driving in 6 to Crookston's 3, making the count 8 to 9, and in the third period they evened the count by scoring 3 to Crookston's 2. A total 7 points were registered in the 10 minute overtime period, 5 of them to the credit of the Thieves.

It was a red-hot game from start to finish. In spite of the lop-sided score in the first period, the game was not one sided at any time. Both teams were short handed, the Thieves because of Hovie's illness and the Pirates because Taylor forgot to bring his skates.

Trailing by 3 points and with only two minutes to go in the overtime period, Crookston took out their goalie and, with 6 forwards, put on desperate drive. In that last two minutes 4 goals were scored but the Thieves counted two of them, one by Beverly from behind the second blue line into the unprotected net. The third period ended with Thief River Falls putting on the pressure, Kornek scoring with a back handed flip in the closing seconds.

Lose at Crookston

Tuesday night's win offset the defeat suffered by the Thieves at Crookston Friday when the Pirates trampled them under by a score of 7 to 2, Thief River Falls being whitewashed thruout the first two periods. On Sunday Thief River Falls won a close game from the Fargo-Moorhead Comets which ended 4 to 2, the Comets leading at the end of the first period 2 to 1.

Fargo-Moorhead plays here again tonight and on Friday the locals will entertain the Grafton Millionaires, following a Saturday night game at Grafton.

WILLIAMS SEXTET DEFEATS HORNETS 8-3 ON SATURDAY

BETTER PASTURES FOR LIVESTOCK IS COUNTY AIM IN '41

County Agent Lester Lerud Announces Program for Pennington

Abundant pasture to take care of the livestock during the coming grazing season will be one of the chief aims of Pennington county farmers this year, according to County Agent Lester Lerud. Better grass crops have been set up as an important county extension program goal, in keeping with a national "back to grass" movement for better soil conservation and more economical livestock feeding.

County Agent Lerud says crop studies at University Farm and the Northwest School of Agriculture indicate that even the best land in this county can be employed profitably to raise pasture crops. Pastured alfalfa and grass mixtures and alfalfa alone will deliver more digestible feed per acre at lower cost than any other common Minnesota crop. Even good blue grass pasture gives a good account of itself in feed production at low cost. The studies show that skimping on pasture is poor economy for the farmer who has livestock on his place.

The local program of pasture improvement will stress a number of practices, Lerud says. Renovation of old permanent pastures by alternate resting and grazing, and applying manure, will be discussed. Methods of reseeding these old pastures to new mixtures will be investigated.

Since the most productive pastures are the legume and grass mixtures, seeding and management of such mixtures under local conditions will be studied. Preparation of soil, use of nurse crops, and methods of getting good stands are important in such a pasture program.

Stress will also be laid on providing special crops for all-season grazing. These may include rye for early spring, Sudan and second growth legumes for summer and fall, to supplement blue grass.

Confiscated Gun Sale Nets Total of $4,261

Department of conservation officials today announced record receipts of $4,261 from the sale of confiscated firearms at the January 25 auction described as the most successful in history. Robert Martin, seizure clerk in the bureau of law enforcement, said the sale total compares with $3,879 realized in the same event last spring. Until last week, the spring sale held the record.

Fewer Circuses

In 1909 there were 53 circuses. At present only three which were operating at that time are in existence.

DR. J.A.ROY, MAYOR OF RED LAKE FALLS, PASSES THURSDAY

Was 52 Years Old; Had Served as Mayor of City for Nine Years

Dr. Joseph A. Roy, 52 years old, mayor of Red Lake Falls the past nine years, died of a heart attack Thursday afternoon while making a professional call at the George Deasutel farm, nine miles south of the city.

Dr. Roy, who has been prominent in city civic affairs since coming to Red Lake Falls in 1922, was first elected mayor November 5, 1931. He has also been active in the Catholic Order of Foresters and has served as state vice chief ranger for the order.

Born Dec. 10, 1888 at Roumouski, Quebec, Dr. Roy practiced medicine in Argyle before coming to Red Lake Falls 19 years ago. Previously, he had practiced in Kensington.

Survivors are his wife; four daughters, Mrs. Arthur Berg of Mason City, Ia., and Madeline, Jacqueline and Germaine at home; and three sons, Robert and Raymond at home and Maurice, in Honolulu with the U. S. army.

A delegation of Thief River Falls citizens attended funeral rites for Dr. Roy, which were conducted Saturday morning in St. Joseph's Catholic church at Red Lake Falls. Interment was made in that city.

REMOVES ELBOW GREASE FROM SNOW SHOVELING

Plainview.—Ralph Edwards of Plainview, tired of shoveling snow from his walks in the ordinary old-fashioned method, recently perfected a small rotary snow plow modeled somewhat after a lawn mower. The business end of the plow is powered by a two cylinder motorcycle motor and has a reel similar to the cutting reel of a lawn mowed except that it has solid blades and is shaped in an arc from the center rather than from the end of the reel as a lawn mower. The snow is picked up and guided into a chute covered by a hood with sufficient force to throw it two or three feet to either side of the plow. Unlike many other such labor saving devices which are perfect in theory, this one really works and does a fine job of clearing the walks in the vicinity of the Edwards machine shop.

DRINKING DRIVERS

Nation-wide safety figures prove that one out of every five fatal traffic accidents involves a drinking driver or pedestrian. If you drink, don't drive or walk on roads or highways.

Crime Costs $120 Each

WASHER AND DOOR TOO MUCH FOR MRS. AXTELL

Williams.—Mrs. Roy Axtell of Williams had two very unpleasant experiences, one resulting from the other, while doing her weekly wash recently. First, she was partly overcome by the exhaust fumes of the gasoline motor-powered washer but managed to struggle to the head of the basement stairs where she collapsed. Her mother coming in from outside, opened the door which struck the exhausted woman on the head. Combined, the two incidents kept her unconscious for over an hour but she is now fully recovered.

LEGISLATURE ON FRIDAY REELECTS 4 U. OF M. REGENTS

House and Senate in Joint Session Give Unanimous Approval

A joint session of the senate and house Friday reelected four University of Minnesota regents for six year terms.

The four, renamed on recommendation of the senate university committee and house education committee are: A. J. Lobb, Rochester; Fred B. Snyder, Minneapolis; Albert Pfaender, New Ulm, and Sheldon V. Wood, Minneapolis.

The nominations were presented by Rep. R. T. Hart, Moose Lake, chairman of the house education committee, and seconded by Senator Burton L. Kingsley, Minneapolis, chairman of the senate university committee.

Kingsley in his seconding talk praised the four regents, citing the virtues of each.

The four were re-elected unanimously, each receiving 175 votes of senators and representatives.

TRI-STATE WATERS COMMISSION ASKS FOR CONTINUATION

Group Makes Plea in Annual Report to Minnesota Legislature

The tri-state waters commission, created in 1937 to sponsor a comprehensive plan to develop the drainage basin of the Red river valley, Saturday mailed its biennial reports to Minnesota legislators detailing reasons why funds should be provided so the commission can carry on its work.

Construction of many of the flood control projects outlined in the report are vital to the nations defense program, according to Deen Holm, executive secretary, who emphasized the economic advantages especially when thousands of men are released from military service.

"The Red river valley has often been referred to as the bread basket of the United States and during the last World war we were called upon to feed the rest of the world," said Holm in the report. "It was then that the upland prairies, the grasslands, were plowed under with such disastrous results.

"So, should not the construction of these projects, which will provide for the impounding of flood waters to be released during the dry season, when the land is in need of this surplus water, be considered as a part of our preparedness program."

FLYERS ARE STRANDED BY CURIOUS DOG

Ely.—Two Aurora men, airplane pilots, were stranded on Knife Lake on a recent Sunday when a dog sniffed too close to the whirling propeller of their plane and snapped eight inches off one of the blades. The men were Dr. I. T. Dahlin, flying physician, and Tony Mishmach. Aside from a bruised jaw, the dog was injured; two days of waiting and a good many miles on skies were involved, however, before the men were able to obtain another propeller from Ely, 35 miles distant.

CHAUFFEUR DOESN'T NEED A MEMORY FOR NUMBERS

Sanborn.—Arthur Steinberg of Sanborn wont have to "fiddle around" looking for slips of paper or records when asked his car license, chauffeur's license, his creamery or home telephone numbers—and not because his memory is unusually good either. It so happens that his two telephone numbers, 73 for residence, and 56-2 for his creamery phone combined make up in the right order his chauffeur and car licenses which are 73562.

STOP, LOOK, LISTEN

The Minnesota highway department advises pedestrians to stop, look and think before crossing the street. The majority of pedestrains injured in traffic are hit before reaching the middle of the street. The person who starts out carefully is more likely to reach the other side.

IN THE STATE SENATE

By Senator E. L. Tungseth

My letter this week will be very brief and confined mostly to temperance legislation, such as it appears to be developing at this time. So far two bills pertaining to liquor control have been passed by the senate, one which also has been passed by the house. The bill which has passed both the house and the senate pertains chiefly to the city of St. Paul, and to some extent to the city of Duluth. The city of St. Paul finds that in the issuance of hard liquor licenses, following a certain procedure of census anticipation which the city also uses for other purposes, that the anticipated population has been overestimated and that these figures have been reduced by the 1940 federal census. This bill legalized the issuance of such number of licenses as have now been issued over and above the one per 1500 population. Since the dry elements in the cities concerned offered no objection, there was little opposition in the final vote on the bill.

The other liquor legislation which passed the house today, Friday, January 31, was senate file No. 175, a bill which requires a village to have been incorporated for a period of not less than two years before it can issue any liquor licenses or have a municipal store. This bill is essentially a dry measure and supports the effort of those people who are interested in temperance.

We anticipate a battle on measures which will attempt to repeal the county option law. Such bills will insure a good old-fashioned wet and dry fight, as perhaps has not been seen in the Minnesota legislature for some time. County option represents the last stand for the dry forces to hold their own in any given county by popular vote. If county option privileges are repealed it will seriously handicap the opposition to the sale of liquor anywhere in the state of Minnesota. Some 28 counties in our state have been kept dry for years under the operation of the county option law, which leaves it to all of the voters of the county to decide by ballot whether liquor shall be sold in any town in the county.

Motorists who keep their windshield clean help avoid accidents. A dirty windshield prevents seeing pedestrians who may be crossing the roadway. A clean windshield helps to make a clean driving record.

Valentine party preparations are being made by a committee consisting of Marian and Grace Wiener and Jean Nelson.

Sunnyside School

This is Dist. 11 in Kratka of which Miss Margaret Schwab is the instructor. Perfect attendance and scholarship awards were presented to the same three youngsters who are Milton and Mila Burstad, and Kenneth Zymanski. These three are in the second grade.

Sunny Nook School

Perfect attendance for the six weeks was earned by Elaine and Jerald Nelson, Joyce, Sylvia and Lorraine Iverson, and Dorothy Peterson. This school receives surplus commodities which is a pretty swell idea, when the pupils receive fruit, cereals, beans and such every every month. Every school board should see about getting it gratis.

Christian Pederson returned to his home Saturday morning after an extended stay in Albert Lea where he attended to the burial of his sister.

Visitors at the B. B. Hammer home Monday were Ole Austad, Arthur Larson and Alfred Olson. Thursday visitors at the Hammer home were Mrs. Ole Pederson and daughter Mrs. Millard Brurud of Neilsville and Mrs. J. Theige.

The Hammer young folks and Clara Swanson called at the Walter Lendobeja home Wednesday evening.

Hammer School Notes

Perfect attendance awards for the six weeks went to Delores Belswenger, Robert and Franklin Haynes. Best honor records went to Franklin and Robert Haynes and Delores Belswenger. Highest scholastic averages went to Robert and Franklin Haynes, Kenneth and Lloyd Brekke. The school paper "Bugle Call" was released last week by the editorial staff consisting of Editor, Kenneth Brekke; Assistant Editor Merlyn Offerdahl; Features, Lloyd Brekke; Art Editors, Lloyd Brekke, Walter and Franklin Haynes; Reporters Robert and Walter Haynes, Frances Offerdahl and Delores Belswenger. Miss Swanson is the advisor. This issue is exceptionally good with humor, sketches, editorials or what have you? The Christmas seal drive was a huge success with Kenneth Brekke's side winning. Each pupil got three boxes of paper hankies and a pin, and the school got a book on the flag. The quiz column in the "Bugle Call" was fine, as well as the "silly scenes" sketches done by the pupils.

STATE JOB AGENCY REPORTS ON WORK IN THIS DISTRICT

8,372 Seeking Employment in Area, Bemidji Office Reports

Private employment jobs in Northwestern Minnesota increased approximately 100 per cent in 1940, as compared with 1939, according to a year-end summary of the activities of the Bemidji district office of the division of employment and security.

During the year just closed, the Bemidji district assisted 2,673 persons in finding work in private industry. These placements are 103 per cent more than the 1315 placements in 1939, says a report by District Director S. V. Russell. The division is the Minnesota agency that administers the state employment service and the unemployment compensation program.

The Bemidji district office is responsible for the division's activities in the following counties: Becker, Beltrami, Cass, Clay, Clearwater, Hubbard, Kittson, Mahnomen, Marshall, Norman, Pennington, Polk, Red Lake, and Roseau.

"The increase in private placements", says Mr. Russell's report, "reflects our 1940 activities among employers. This effort has been aimed to present to the business men of this area, the need for increased use on their part of the employment service to promote the orderly handling of the section's employment problem."

During 1940, 5817 new applications for employment were filed at the four full time and twelve itinerant offices of the division in the district. This is slightly less than the 5,896 new applications filed in 1939.

The district's list of persons seeking employment is officially known as the "active file". At the close of the year there were 8,372 applications in this file. This number is slightly under the 8,458 applicants at the end of 1939.

During the year, the district received 10,601 initial claims for unemployment compensation benefits. This is an increase of approximately 120 per cent since the number of such claims handled in 1939 was 4,801.

'OFF AGAIN, ON AGAIN' A FOUR-WORD STORY

Farmington.—"Off again, on again"— so might the section man of the Milwaukee road freight train have reported an unusual incident which occurred near Farmington recently. Suddenly noticing that a box car had jumped the track and was bumping along the ties behind the locomotive while the train was in the act of switching, he started running and waving his arms frantically at the engineer to stop. Before the engineer noticed him, however, the car nimbly hopped up on the rails again after dragging for a quarter of a mile.

County Agent Gives Tips to Farmers on State and Federal Seed Statutes

Every Pennington county farmer should be familiar with the state and federal seed laws so that he may get the full benefit of their protection, says County Agent Lester A. Lerud.

Requirements of the state law are specific and can be easily checked.

The county agent suggests pasting these five points on the granary door, or putting them where they can be referred to easily:

1. Look for a label on the container. Don't buy unlabeled seed.
2. The label should give per cent of germination (be sure this is high).
3. It should give the per cent of weed seeds in relation to the grain.
4. It should list by name primary noxious weeds present such as field bindweed (jenny), leafy spurge, thistles, etc.
6. It should give name and address of seller.

Labels ought to be kept for at least a year. Marking on them the date the seed is bought and where it is used, will help in tracing the source of unclean seed.

Farmers who want to check up on questionable seed, or who wish to make tests of their own seed, may avail themselves of the service offered by the state seed laboratory at University Farm, St. Paul.

Mail a pint (large seed) or cupful (small seed) to the seed laboratory for analysis. The county agent's office will be glad to give assistance in providing envelopes and forwarding these samples.

DEATH TAKES 2 IN AUTO CRASH ON HIGHWAY 59

Roy A. Sumpter and Edward A. Lien Lose Lives Near City Saturday

CRASH INTO TRUCK DRIVEN BY M. MOGEN

Sumpter Car Is Reported to Have Been Traveling on Wrong Side

The first death-dealing automobile crash of 1941 in Pennington county brought death to two Thief River Falls men late Saturday afternoon. Killed were Roy A. Sumpter, 48, World War veteran, and Edward A. Lien, 51, when the car driven by Sumpter proceeding east collided seven miles east of the city on Highway 59 with a west-bound truck loaded with cordwood and driven by Morris Mogen, who escaped injury.

Mogen, driver of the truck which was the property of C. Gustafson & Son, was absolved of blame in the tragic accident at a coroner's inquest conducted by Dr. C. M. Adkins Monday evening. The coroner's jury held the collision was due to improper driving on the part of the driver of the Sumpter car.

Testimony to the effect that the Sumpter car was traveling on the wrong side of the road at the time was submitted at the inquest by occupants of a following automobile, the number including Thore Skomedal, H. T. Hanson and son Walter and daughter Luella, all of Trail.

Also testifying were Mogen and his companion, Gust Haugen; and Police Chief Stenberg and Deputy Sheriff Leon Morehouse.

Death came instantly to the two men, and their car was nearly demolished. Mogen escaped injury owing to the fact that his truck was struck toward the rear.

While taking measurements at the scene of the accident Sunday morning in company with Mogen, Police Chief A. B. Stenberg and Patrolman Ralph Black, C. D. Gustafson was knocked down by a slow-moving car driven by Gust Bjelken of Mahnomen, sustaining a bruised back. Mogen also was hit, but was unhurt.

Both Lien and Sumpter had been employed on WPA work, the former being survived by his wife, five sons and a daughter; and the latter by his wife, two daughters and a son. Funeral rites were held for Sumpter Tuesday, and will be conducted for Lien this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Erickson & Lund funeral home.

2,500 See Winnipeg Skaters Perform Here

Br-r-r But It Was Cold 5 Years Ago This Week

While looking over some old records at the postoffice this week, Fred Protz ran across a 1936 calender on which were noted the official temperatures during the record-breaking cold wave in January and February of that winter, in which subzero readings were recorded on successive days from January 16 to February 22. With an average minimum temperature in the neighborhood of —20 for the period, the coldest day was February 5, when the mercury dropped to 45 below zero.

The cordial relations existing between this country and Canada were further cemented Saturday when a company of more than thirty skilled skaters from the Winnipeg Winter club entertained 2,500 persons from throughout this section of the state in two performances in the Thief River Falls arena. Testifying to the popularity of the Winnipeg group with local citizens, the attendance was larger than at any of their three previous appearances.

The program included a variety of ensemble numbers as well as duos and solos. Particularly appealing was the Flame Number in which a group of young women skated while manipulating flame-colored chiffon streamers. The Duncan-Willis pair and the Chown sisters also came in for much applause, as did the several comedy numbers.

The performance of the Thief River Falls skaters participating in the show met with the wholehearted approval of the audience. Included were a comedy number by Bud Syverson and Pete Stensgaard, a duo by Elaine Hammergren and Bubbles Wangenstein and a solo by Selmer Dicken.

Lester Ihle, general chairman of the ice show, which was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, opened the program by introducing R. A. Purvis of the Winnipeg club, who, after an exchange of mutual good wishes, officiated ably as master of ceremonies.

Following the evening performance the visiting skaters were guests of the Junior Chamber at an enjoyable party in the Pine Cave of the Palm Garden cafe.

EDUCATION BOARD HEARS DISCUSSION OF SCHOOL AID LAW

Votes to Seek New Setup in Defense Training Program

The February session of the board of education Monday evening was devoted largely to a presentation by Supt. Morris Bye of a detailed explanation of the recommendations of the legislative interim committee on education, together with the effects of the proposals on the local school district if enacted into law.

Following a request from the county board that the school district and other county subdivisions drop their suit to recover sums deducted from the November, 1939 tax settlement because of losses sustained in closed banks, the board of education voted to take up the matter with the city council before reaching a decision.

After having experienced difficulty in obtaining federal approval of the proposed local defense training plan for the local schools, the board acted favorably on the recommendation of the national defense training advisory committee and seek approval for the NYA program of training, which would include courses in general metalwork, radio, elementary electricity, mechanical drawing and woodwork, and typing and bookkeeping.

TIMES DESIGNATED AS OFFICIAL PAPER

Hearing Is Set on Petition for Sanitary Sewer on Crocker av. S.

The city council transacted a wide variety of business at its February session Tuesday evening, including the opening of bids for the official city paper and official depositories; granting a $15,000 building permit; and receiving a petition for a new sanitary sewer installation.

The building permit covered a 20,000-bushel grain and seed elevator to be constructed by Robert Peterson on the east side of the Soo Line right-of-way near Eighth st. The structure will be 70 feet high.

So. from Bridge st. to James st., the council set Tuesday evening, March 4, as the date for a hearing on the proposal. It was also voted to advertise for bids on 1,240 feet of twelve-inch sewer tile.

Council members discussed the difficulty of creating enough projects to provide WPA employment for workers from outside Thief River Falls. It was reported that workers were being brought into the city this week from St. Hilaire and Goodridge.

L. W. It was indicated that the county board is prepared to appeal from the recent court decision in favor of Kratka township. The council decided Tuesday night to defer a decision in the matter until the wishes of the Kratka township officers are made known.

TOO ANXIOUS FOR HEAT; BOY GETS HOT SEAT

Farmington.— Venturing too close to a lighted gas burner, little Buddy Paige, 5, was quite seriously burned and thoroughly frightened when the back of his "nighty" burst into flame shortly after he climbed out of bed on Sunday morning. Screaming, he ran into the next room where his mother tried to beat out the flames and unbutton his pajamas at the same time. Buddys father then appeared and ripped off the flaming garments, extinguishing the flame.

Young Musicians Urged to Try for Orchestra to be Led by L. Stokowski

Youth throughout the State of Minnesota are taking advantage of the opportunity to try out for Leopold Stokowski's All American Youth Orchestra, it was announced today by C. B. Lund, state administrator of the National Youth Administration for Minnesota.

Of particular importance to the Minnesota youth this year is the fact that each youth who is auditioned by the state committee will be presented a critical analysis of his work in the way of a typewritten report at the conclusion of the state auditions. Because of the excellence of the state committee, these evaluations will be of inestimable value to each youthful participant.

Because of the excellent opportunity afforded each youth who is auditioned by the state committee, the NYA is particularly interested that as many youth as possible in the state avail themselves of the auditions.

PLAN ENROLLMENT OF WAR VETERANS FOR U. S. DEFENSE

Legion Posts Thruout Nation to Secure Answers to Questionnaires

The American Legion working through its 11,715 posts is going to register all of its 1,078,119 members, if possible, for national defense service. Unaffiliated World War veterans also will be asked to register. The registration will be entirely voluntary. Its purpose is to provide the local, state and national leadership of The American Legion with a complete inventory of the assets of the organization in manpower, experience and special training that could be made available to the government if needed in the defense of the nation.

National Commander Milo J. Warner has proclaimed Saturday, February 22, the 209th anniversary of the birth of George Washington, as national defense registration day for all Legionnaires and unaffiliated World War veterans who care to do so.

On that day every American Legion post in the country will ask its membership and local World War veterans generally to fill out a questionnaire. This form will be in triplicate. It will chronicle every Legionnaire's capabilities and talents which could be used in national defense. From these copies will be compiled post, department and national indices of American Legion national defense assets. These indices will enable The American Legion quickly to locate any member or veteran for whose special services governmental agencies might have a need.

Elmer J. Eckland Post No. 117 of The American Legion in this city will undertake to register all Legionnaires and unaffiliated World War veterans in this community and surrounding area.

"This is a summons for possible important service to God and Country whom we served as young men in 1917-18', Commander Alex Cloutier of the local post said. "I feel certain that every Legionnaire and World War veterans generally will welcome this opportunity of perhaps doing another bit for their country. We do not expect to be called for active military service. Most of us are beyond that age. But there are many home defense duties to be performed."

A total of 1,031 youth under 21 years of age suffered revocation or suspension of their rights to drive, as penalty for hazardous traffic law violations.

ILLNESS UNITES BROTHERS AFTER FORTY-SEVEN YEARS

Duluth—"It's an ill wind that blows no good" can be attested to by John Dedo of Duluth who is recuperating at Duluth hospital after an illness of several weeks. Completely out of touch with each other for 46 years, the brothers finally located each other a year ago and have communicated regularly since. It took John's illness however, to reunite the two.

Says 1941 Prospects For Livestock Prices Now Seem Favorable

The outlook for Minnesota livestock growers in 1941 is relatively good, declares D. C. Dvoracek, extension economist, University Farm, St. Paul, in new Extension Pamphlet 76, "Minnesota Livestock Outlook for 1941." Prices for hogs, cattle, and sheep will probably average higher in 1941 owing to increased consumer demand stimulated by defense activities.

Increased supplies of fed grains suggest more favorable feeding ratios in 1941 although the loan rate on corn may support corn prices somewhat, Dvoracek says. The supply of feed grain per animal unit on October 1, 1940 was the largest in 20 years.

Total slaughter supplies of cattle and the number of cattle fed are expected to be higher in 1941 than last year. Cattle prices probably will be higher during the first half of 1941 than in 1940. Even though cattle marketings increase during late 1941, prices probably will be maintained by increased consumption. The prices for finished cattle are expected to rise more than for thin cattle.

FOILS SNOW DRIFTS WITH AIRPLANE TIRES

Mountain Lake—Dr. P. J. Pankratz of Mountain Lake has figured out and put into practice a method of making his business calls despite badly snowed in roads. Using an old Ford coupe, Model A, the doctor has replaced the regular front tires with huge airplane tires, 15 inches in diameter and mounted on a 16-in. rim, regularly used on transport ships. To pull the tremendous load the tires create, a truck differential with four forward speeds was also installed in the coupe. The "Snow Bug," or so it has been called, has been put to use and tested and so far has been able to stay on top of most drifts.

Fish Eater

It takes a lot of fish to make a mature wall-eyed pike. The smallest reasonable estimate of the food necessary to bring a wall-eyed pike to maturity of three years is between 1,800 and 3,000 fishes.

It used to be that mothers were embarrassed when their son's shirttails would sneak outside the pants.

COUNTY HAS 16 SERIOUS TRAFFIC MISHAPS IN 1940

Safety Division of State Highway Department Makes Report

Traffic mistakes caused two deaths, 11 personal injury accidents and five reported cases of serious property damage in Pennington county during 1940, according to reports received by the safety division of the state highway department. The number of persons injured and number of motor vehicles damaged far exceed these figures because, more often than not, several persons are hurt and more than one car damaged in a single serious accident.

Throughout the state, 570 persons were killed; 10,071 were hurt in 7,736 personal injury accidents; and 31,855 suffered damaged motor vehicles in 19,039 traffic accidents reported to the highway department during the year.

Inasmuch as the law requires mandatory reporting of only those accidents which result in death, injury or property damage in excess of $50, the department estimates that the actual number of traffic mishaps, reported and unreported, will total well above 65,000. The total number in each county likewise would be increased proportionally over the number reported.

The economic loss from traffic accidents in this county can be computed by counting each death at $10,000, each personal injury accident at $800 (including doctor bills and loss of time and wages), and each property damage accident at the average reported loss of $170.

Marshall County was the only one of the state's 87 counties to escape without a single traffic fatality during the year. Ten counties had only one fatality during the year, while nine counties suffered 10 or more traffic deaths.

Choice Breeding Stock Bought by Local Farmers

A few head of choice breeding animals were purchased by local farmers at the livestock consignment sale held in connection with the Red River Valley Winter Shows in Crookston Thursday and Friday. Knutson Brothers from Silverton township consigned two Angus heifers on the sale, and also purchased a choice yearling Holstein bull consigned by Concordia College, Moorhead. N. P. Schalz, of Bray township purchased a choice red yearling Shorthorn bull from Ingvold Hanson, at Twin Valley. Lars Quen of Thief River Falls purchased a very desirable Hereford bull that was consigned on the sale by the Patterson Land Company, Bismarck, North Dakota.

Many Men Are Rejected for Selective Service Because of Bad Teeth

The general health of Minnesota men examined for military duty through Selective Service is excellent, but the unusually large number of rejections for defective teeth is becoming alarming. This was the opinion voiced today by Lt. Colonel Richard H. Hullsiek, medical supervisor at Minnesota state selective service headquarters, as figures were compiled covering the physical examinations of 9,573 men within the state.

"Comparing present results with those of 1917-18", said Colonel Hullsiek, "it is disturbing to discover that 24.2% of all causes for rejection today come from poor teeth, and that in 1917-18 only 4.8% of Minnesota men were rejected for that reason. If this comparison is to be considered a fair test, it would be well for parents to give more serious attention to the condition of their children's teeth during their early stages of development."

COUNTY 4-H YOUTHS ARE GIVEN HONORS AT WINTER SHOWS

Local Boys Win with Demonstrations at Event in Crookston

High honors were won by local 4-H club members and farmers at the Red River Valley Winter Shows, in addition to those mentioned in last weeks newspapers. Morris Engelstad, a member of the Rocksbury 4-H club won first place in the 4-H dairy demonstration contest. The Pennington County 4-H general livestock judging team placed first. In addition, a number of honors were won by local farmers on grain and potato exhibits.

Morris Engelstad presented a demonstration on clean milk production in competition with several other demonstrators. He was presented with a special certificate from the Red River Valley Dairymen's association. Morris' participation in this contest brings to a close his activities as a 4-H club member, as he becomes a graduate 4-H club member quite soon. Morris has made an enviable record as a 4-H club member in all the various activities in which he has participated during his eleven years of club work.

The winning 4-H livestock team from the county was made up of Bert Vigen, and Harlan Knutson of Thief River Falls, and Robert Parnow of Goodridge. The boys in winning the contest, took possession of a silver trophy which will have to be successfully defended two more times by the county before it becomes a permanent award. The boys each placed eight classes of livestock, and according to the county agent who coached the team, the boys were quite consistent in their placings.

Two other livestock judging teams representing the county took part in the contests at the show. A farmers' team, consisting of Otto Saugen, James Hillyer, and Ray Oen placed fourth in the farmers' contest which was won by a team from Kittson county. The Pennington County 4-H dairy judging team composed of Erwin Muzzy, Oscar Vigen, and Erwin Boese, also made a good showing in their contest.

POTATO TRAIN TO VISIT T. R. FALLS MONDAY, MAR. 10

Great Northern Railway and Other Groups Sponsoring Visit

Arrangements have been completed to permit having the potato institute or potato train at Thief River Falls, on Monday, March 10. Through the cooperation of the agricultural extension division, the seed potato certification division of the state department of agriculture, the county agents and the Great Northern Railway, arrangements are being made to have the exhibits and meetings at Thief River Falls, as well as at Warren, East Grand Forks, Stephen, Kennedy, Fosston, and a dozen other towns in the potato producing areas of the state.

The two cars of exhibits on the Great Northern railroad will be open to the visitors from 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon. There will be an opportunity for potato men to see some interesting exhibits on better methods of producing and handling the potato crop. Two special baggage cars will have the exhibits on display. Several potato improvement practices will also be on display.

A meeting will be held at one o'clock at the Civic and Commerce rooms at the city auditorium. How to meet some local potato growing problems so as to avoid some of the great loss of the past will be discussed by A. G. Tolaas of the seed certification department, and R. C. Rose, extension plant pathologist. Paul Warner of the Great Northern railroad, the county agent, and others will participate in the program. Moving pictures of production methods will also be shown.

Rev. S. S. Olafson Is Guest Speaker Before Lions Club Wednesday

Rev. S. S. Olafson was the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Lions club, Wednesday noon in the Palm Garden cafe. He took for his theme the spirit of Lincoln, whose birthday was observed yesterday. Citing the former president as a champion of the common people and an exponent of practical Christianity, Reverend Olafson declared that the spirit of the Great Emancipator is needed in the world today. At the meeting further arrangements were discussed in connection with the party to be given Tuesday evening, February 25, in honor of the group of volunteers leaving to enter the nation's armed forces.

22,100 PENNIES PAY FOR CALIFORNIA TRIP

Chaska—Placed side by side, 22,100 pennies would not cover any considerable distance but they are going to be stretched to cover the distance between Chaska and California and back again for Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gutzman, Chaska newlyweds, who left on their wedding trip West in February. Instead of spending pennies acquired in charge in his barber shop during the past eight years, Mr. Gutzman has put them away day by day in sacks, jars, pots and pails until now he is able to finance a most satisfactory wedding trip for himself and his newly acquired bride.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sustad of Viking, Marshall county, are oldtimers in their community. He has been a resident of Marshall county for 50 years. Mr. Sustad has been a school board member, a township clerk and treasurer, assessor, and assistant to the county auditor. He and his wife have been active in the Farm Bureau and church activities. Mr. Sustad was active in getting the area TB test for his county and is also a believer in the Bang's test. Holstein cattle are the chief product of the farm. They have experimented in new varieties of crops and have raised both seed and feed crops with success.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Palmquist of Hazel, Pennington county, are proud of their newly improved farmstead which has a new driveway and several new buildings. During the twenty years they have lived in the community they have been active in township affairs and in the farm bureau and AAA. They raise Shorthorn cattle and Leghorn chickens. Mr. Palmquist has also been active as a grower of pure-seeds of adopted varieties.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Purath of Red Lake county, are especially interested this year in the Winter Shows because their son Russell won the showmanship championship and also the sweepstakes in the 4-H beef animal class. The purebred Aberdeen Angus herd which has been improved ever since 1913 is the pride and joy on the Purath farm. The Puraths have farmed in Red Lake county for 37 years. During that time Mr. Purath has been town clerk continuously since 1920 and chairman of the school board since 1925. He has also been a director of the state school boards association. Local farm organizations have also leaned on him heavily for leadership. He was named Honor Livestock Breeder in 1935. Mrs. Purath has been active in beautifying her home and furnishing leadership in community activities.

73 DAYS NEW ARMISTICE STORM SURVIVOR RECORD

Fairmont—And still the contest rages! Forest Meeker, Northrop farmer, is the astonished owner of a very much alive and apparently healthy sheep which made its disappearance (along with several hundred other head of livestock) during the memorable November blizzard and its reappearance 73 days later—January 23—thin, its fleece encrusted with dirt, but aside from being very wild, shying at the slightest noise, none the worse for its experience.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

The recreation program is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with WPA recreation leaders.

Toboggan Slide

Hundreds of men, women and children are having the time of their lives at the Tindolph slide. Others are encouraged to take part in this exciting winter sport. The slide is supervised at all times to insure the safety of participants. Toboggans are available for rent for those not having toboggans of their own. Several groups have reserved toboggans for private outings. Anyone wishing to do this is asked to get in touch with recreation leaders at the slide.

School Rinks

The present plan of supervision at the school rinks was worked out by school and recreation officials. According to reports from these officials, everything is going along nicely at the rinks. So far mostly children have made use of the rinks. Adults are invited to use them also.

Businessmen's Recreation

Each Tuesday night when the businessmen men are let loose in the new high school gymnasium for a recreation period, new faces appear. It is encouraging to see the large number taking an interest in this part of the program. These Tuesday nights were designated especially to give business men a different type of recreation. Basketball, volleyball, and badminton are a few of the games available for those in attendance. Others are welcome any time.

Basketball League

Few people realise that the independent basketball league organized this winter is a part of the local recreation program. It is very definitely a part of it, and one that is appreciated by between seventy and eighty fellows who face each other Mondays and Wednesdays of every week in games played in the city auditorium. This group, whose interest in other parts of the program is lacking, find a great amount of enjoyment in meeting each other in games twice a week.

Miscellaneous

In the arena is the center of the recreation program. From here it spreads throughout the city to the toboggan slide, school rinks, high school gymnasium, and the city auditorium. In the arena there is skating, puppetry, craft and handicraft work, along with a gymnasium and game-filled game room. All this is free to the public; something given to the people by the city council. All are encouraged to back the program through participation, or through periodic visits. Everyone is welcome; no one is forgotten or overlooked in planning the program.

THE NATION IS UNITED

Now that hearings have been held by both houses of Congress on the Lease-Lend Bill and prominent people have expressed their views pro and con on the subject, the law makers, after the usual arguing among themselves, will proceed to vote on the measure. And the individual members will vote about the same as they would have voted if there had been neither hearings nor arguments. Principal purpose of the hearings and arguments probably is to justify the members in what they have already decided to do. Both sides bring in what they believe will be the most effective witnesses to prove the right of their particular side of the argument and to discredit those of conflicting views.

Which side of the present argument will be proven right in the test of time Probably the side that opposes what is proposed. The measure will carry. That is generally admitted. So whatever goes wrong from now on will be blamed to this particular measure. The opposers have quite an advantage in the "I told you so" argument that will come later on. They can point to the difficulties that followed. The other side can counter by telling how much worse things would have been if so and such had not been done, but no one will listen to such idle talk.

That is why we like the position now taken by Wendel Willkie, star witness for those who favor the enactment of the bill. From a purely personal point of view, Willkie could have laid a stronger foundation for his own political career by being an opposer. Willkie knows that, regardless of what happens in the rest of the world, we are going to have plenty of trouble right here at home before we get our own affairs unscrambled. As a leader of the "loyal opposition" he could have hedged, neither helping nor hindering the administration, but by hemming and hawing, placed himself in a position where he too could join the "I told you so" chorus that will sing so loudly later on.

Willkie didn't hedge however. Whether he is right or wrong, he has demonstrated that he has the courage and the fundamental honesty to do and say what he believes to be right, regardless of political consequences.

In a few days the argument over the Lease-Lend bill will come to an end. Congress will pass the measure and our country will be at war. We will have served notice on the world, formally and officially, that we are allied with those nations that are resisting the aggressors. From then on the extent of our participation will be determined by the need for our assistance.

Under the circumstances it is extremely fortunate that what division of opinion there is in the country as to what should be done is not based on partisan considerations. President Roosevelt, popular with the masses of the people, has the wholehearted support, in this emergency, of so many of the leaders of the so-called opposition party that it is fair to say the nation is united behind him.

With ten teams entered in the high school championship hockey tournament to be played here Friday and Saturday, the game apparently is rapidly establishing itself as a part of school athletic programs in this region. Only a few schools have officially adopted the sport, several of the teams, as is the case in Thief River Falls, being sponsored by outside groups. Regular high school eligibility rules apply to all of the teams however, and with so much interest in evidence it probably is only a matter of time before the game will be recognized officially by all of the schools. Hockey is now being played at most of the larger colleges and universities in the northern states. General interest in the game is steadily increasing. There are several outstanding teams entered in the tournament to be played here and the event certainly is deserving of support.

Hats off and a round of cheers to the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce for doing a bang up good job in their skating show promotion. From every standpoint it was a successful promotion, two packed houses, estimated at 2,600 total attendance, and all customers apparently well satisfied with the performance.

Five years ago the general subject of conversation on the street was the weather. And it is this year too. Only difference is that the winter five years ago was extremely cold and this one is extremely warm. For six straight weeks in January and February, five years ago, the minimum temperature averaged twenty below.

TIME THE NATION WENT TO WORK

(Long Prairie Leader)

William S. Knudsen, in charge of national defense production, stated in a speech recently that production is bogging down and that airplane deliveries are more than 30 per cent behind schedule. He intimated that all war defense production is lagging.

This is one of the most serious situations confronting the nation and the reason is not hard to find. Except in a few industries, the men are working only five days a week. With the demand for equipment and supplies reaching the critical stage, the mills, plants and factories are shutting down all of Saturdays and the men loaf.

While Germany was rushing to war on a 50 and 60 hour week schedule in its mills and plants, France was afraid "it would lose its social gains" and was operating on a 30 and 40 hour week. France safe-guarded its social advances, but lost its liberty and its freedom. A natural query is, "what did it gain?"

It will hurt no man at this time to work six days a week and at least eight hours a day. It is no time to loaf when there is reason to believe that our nation faces danger, and that protection depends upon production.

There won't be much satisfaction if the nation lands in the concentration camps of the oppressors to recall that notwithstanding our sorry plight we went down fighting for the right to loaf all day Saturday.

There is a big right about face in Washington these days to cut red tape, ease business restrictions and promote industrial good will in order to get things done for national defense. A natural query is—if such changes are needed to aid the government in war emergency, why are they not helpful in peace time to promote prosperity?—Long Prairie Leader.

Looking Backward

1931—TEN YEARS AGO

Morris Bye was elected by the local board of education to serve his sixth term as superintendent of schools.—Elna Sabelin of Bray township won the county rural school spelling contest.—City officials served 3,000 cups of coffee Saturday at the formal opening of the enlarged municipal power plant.—The county board appointed J. HESPER MAN IS LAW UNTO HIMSELF

Mabel—Taking matters into his own hands, Alfred Sanders of Hesper created a great deal of commotion and no small amount of confusion in the Hesper vicinity recently when, with a hack saw and presumably a considerable knowledge of "hot" wires, he cut the main R.E.A. cable carrying 7,500 volts which went over part of his property. Having asked that cable be moved and receiving no satisfaction, Sanders seemingly felt justified in resorting to drastic measures to rectify the situation. Resulting damages, which blew out the Hesper transformer and all radios, motors, etc., operating on that line, as well as all telephones (the cable having fallen across the telephone lines when cut) will amount to approximately $1,000, according to officials. Action to be taken against Sanders has not yet been decided.

The solar plexus is an important center of the sympathetic nervous system, situated in the abdomen, behind the stomach and in front of the aorta. It contains several ganglia which distribute nerve fibers to the stomach, liver, kidneys and intestines. If this nerve center is severely shocked temporary suspension of the vital functions, or even death, may result.

January Traffic Death Toll Lowest in History of Highway Department

Minnesota motorists and pedestrians started off the year 1941 with the lowest January traffic fatality toll in the history of the state highway department accident records, which begin with 1934.

As the first month of the year—and the fifth month of the Minnesota editors' "Save 100 Lives" campaign—came to a close, unofficial and incomplete reports indicated only 18 lives had been claimed by traffic accidents. Allowing for the likelihood that one or more persons will die as a result of accidents suffered during the month, the highway department's safety division estimates that the January toll will not exceed 20.

This would be 9 below the January deaths in 1940 and 11 below the average traffic fatalities for that month over the past 7 years. Should the final official January figures not exceed the estimate of 20, motor vehicle and pedestrian fatalities for the first five months of the "Save 100 Lives" campaign, as of February 1, will be 20 less than the number allowable under the safety campaign's monthly budget which must be achieved in order to save 100 lives between September 1, 1940 and October 1, 1941.

DOG LOST TWO YEARS AGO IS RECOVERED

Wadena—Unexpectedly jubilant is Art Rick of Wadena upon the recovery of his pet spaniel which he lost two years ago on a hunting trip with J. C. Bartholomew, Crosby policeman. In Brainerd recently, Bartholomew noticed the dog in front of a filling station and thought he recognized him. He called the dog by name, "Rex," and overjoyed, the dog came bounding to him and was subsequently delivered to his master who had long since given up hope of ever seeing his spaniel again.

PUBLIC OPINION

Dear Editor:

Why is there no playground in the city of Thief River Falls? It is a thriving and flourishing city and yet no playground is provided for the youngsters to play in. In the summer they are on the street with their wagons, trykes and other toys and in the winter it is the same story. People say "Watch out for the children", signs say "School Drive Carefully". That's all very well and good but isn't there some responsibility placed on the children?

The other day some children were playing on one of the main highways when a car drove up. The driver slowed down to make his turn and honked the horn but the children looked at the approaching car and stayed where they were. The driver had to come to a complete stop before the children moved off. Where does the fault lie there? The driver? No—I say the parents. I think a slipper should have been put into immediate use and who knows maybe the driver thought the same. Another instance some boys were playing in the street with sleds when a truck came along. The children instead of scurrying off the road stood there and laughed. The truck driver applied his brakes and all but came to a complete stop when they moved slowly off the street. My heart was in my throat and while we weren't going fast—yes, I was in the truck—the street was icy and who knows what might have happened!

No person would willfully hurt or drive over a child but there are unforseen things which one cannot prevent—brakes may stick, pavements and roads are icy and then too the driver may be careless.

Cooperation between everyone should be established and I'm sure the children would be safer and driving in the city would be less hazardous.

BEMIDJI SCORES 43 TO 25 VICTORY OVER LOCAL QUINT

Prowler Quintet to Invade Warren for Contest Friday Night

Playing at Bemidji Saturday evening, the Lincoln high school basketball team again went down to defeat at the hands of a strong Bemidji quint by a score of 43 to 25. The locals had the tally nearly tied near the end of the second period, but in the final period Bemidji took control of the situation and piled up a decisive margin of victory.

The Prowlers will journey to Warren Friday night for what is expected to be a red-hot battle, Warren having administered a severe beating to the Crookston high school team last week. The local quint will be accompanied by the high school tumbling team, which will perform between the halves under the direction of Chester Nelson.

Only one game was played Monday night in the WPA-City Recreation basketball league. In that game Oen's overwhelmed the newly out-fitted Soo Cafe team by a 53-32 score. Bowling and out-of-town engagements forced postponement of the NYA school-Harts game, which will be played tomorrow night at 7 o'clock in the city auditorium. The important DeMolay-Bjorkman game, postponed because of illness, will be played at 7 o'clock tonight, Thursday, in the auditorium.

Thieves Score Four Victories Past Week

Wins at Fargo

Cal Colvin, local bowler, received a $45 cash prize for placing second in the singles event in the recent Fargo open tournament. Three errorless games gave him a total of 638 pins, the game totals being 204, 221 and 213. He held first place in the event until the last day when he was nosed out by a Duluth bowler.

Thief River took four games during the past week to clinch its first place position in the States-Dominion hockey league, winning two from Grafton and the other two from Fargo-Moorhead. Closest squeeze of the four games was the contest at Fargo Tuesday night when the Comets tied the score twice in the third period and the winning goal, by Kornek from Beverly, came with only a minute and a half to go. Hodge Johnson, recently acquired by the Comets from the American association, was shifted to the forward line and scored three of the team's five goals.

Comets Here Tonight

The Comets play a return match here tonight (Thursday) and those who saw the game at Fargo Tuesday predict a hard-fought battle. Another interesting game is scheduled for the arena Sunday when Crookston will make its last appearance here in the regular schedule.

Two games played with Grafton over the week-end proved to be rather one-sided, the Thieves winning at Grafton Saturday night by a 6 to 3 score, and here on Sunday afternoon by a count of 7 to 1. Kornek sweetened his scoring record considerably in the game played here with the Comets Thursday night, getting six of the nine scores registered by the Thieves. Tripp thrilled the crowd with a solo counter in the first period, followed a few seconds later by a nice assist to Kornek.

Grafton took two games from Crookston during the week, winning Thursday night 4 to 2 and Tuesday night 7 to 2. The Pirates defeated Fargo-Moorhead Sunday 5 to 2. Including tonight's game, the Thieves have six more games to play in the regular schedule, Crookston here Feb. 16, Crookston there Feb. 18, Grafton here Feb. 20 and 22, and the final game at Grafton Sunday, Feb. 23.

ROSEAU BOWS TO PROWLERS 34-19 TUESDAY EVENING

Visitors Hold Locals to Tie Score of 11 to 11 at Half-Time

After being played on even terms in the first periods, the Lincoln high school Prowlers Tuesday evening developed stronger scoring power in the second half and defeated Roseau by the tidy margin of 34 to 19. The count at the end of the first period was 7-6 in favor of the locals, and at half-time it was 11-11. The Prowlers then started their scoring splurge, leading 24-15 at the end of the third quarter.

Two of Roseau's points were inadvertently supplied by Ed Flasch, stellar Prowler forward, when he tossed a one-handed shot into the wrong basket. He then redeemed himself by scoring three points in quick succession for the home team. Games, Prowler center, played a good brand of basketball, accounting for 13 points.

Benefits to Pennington Co. from Gasoline Taxes Cited at State Meeting

Pennington County has received $200,603 more in road construction, road maintenance, road bonds taken over by the state and state gas tax allotments than it paid in state motor vehicle taxes and state gas taxes during the period from 1920 (the first year counties shared in the state gas tax) to 1939, inclusive.

During those 11 years Pennington county paid in state road improvement taxes $1,132,480 and received $1,333,083 back in cash, construction and maintenance on roads within the county.

These figures from the Minnesota state highway department were used this week by S. S. Daniels, Crookston, president of the Northwest Good Roads Association, to explain how the individual counties benefit directly through an adequate gas tax rate.

His statistics were among those quoted in meetings in Minneapolis this week commemorating the twentieth anniversary of the Minnesota state trunk highway system, in which 26 good roads and civic organizations, plus highway boosters from all over Minnesota, participated.

RURAL ELECTRIC LINES READY FOR ENERGIZING SOON

Construction of Transmission Lines Is Nearing Completion

The final inventory of the distribution lines of the Red Lake Electric Co-op. Inc., has been taken according to an announcement made by E. E. Hill, president and E. F. Kiland, manager this week. The inventory was taken by August Bourque, maintenance man; Frank Bagsall, supervisor of line construction Coo., and Vern Anderson, engineer, of Ellerbe & Co.

Obtaining a complete inventory was no small undertaking for the workers, since scheming had to be restored to in order to reach all points. Skiis were a necessity in completing the task, since some 60 miles had to be covered by this method of travel due to blocked sideroads in many instances.

The construction of the transmission lines is nearing completion according to Mr. Kiland, and practically all of the wire stringing has been done. Tying-in crews are now working from Grand Forks toward Red Lake Falls and their work will be completed according to schedule.

Construction of the sub-station at Grand Forks, is expected to be completed and ready for energization by March 1, when it is expected that sufficient wiring of farm homes will be completed to turn on the "juice". Wiring of farm buildings is being completed at a pace that meets requirements, according to Mr. Kiland.

On February 1, 1790, the Supreme court met in the Royal Exchange, a building located at the foot of Broad street, New York city.

Annual Meeting of Development Group Held Thursday in Crookston

T. M. McCall, superintendent of the Northwest School, was re-elected president of the Red River Valley Development association at the annual meeting held Thursday in connection with the Winter Shows.

They approved sponsorship of the 4-H tree planting project, and also the valley spelling contest. In the evening, the development association put on a banquet in honor of the 1941 farmers and homemakers who received plaques from the association, with T. M. McCall making the presentation. W. F. A. V. Rohweder Again Heads Safety Council

The annual meeting of the Minnesota Safety Council, held recently in St. Paul, resulted in the re-election of A. V. Rohweder, superintendent of safety and welfare of the D M & I R Railway, Duluth, as president; A. A. D. Rahn, vice president, Shevlin Carpenter Company, Minneapolis, as first vice president; E. Ray Cory, president, Minnesota State Automobile Association, Austin, as second vice president; Julius A. Schmahl, state treasurer, as council treasurer.

A feature of the meeting was the annual report of President Rohweder which disclosed a number of interesting and important points about Minnesota's accident situation. A significant fact brought out was that accidents are the leading cause of deaths to persons between the ages of two and forty years and are the fourth largest cause of death to Minnesotans of all ages.

Accidental deaths in 1940 were shown to have been reduced six per cent below the average for the past eleven years. As in 1939, home accidents outnumbered all other types with traffic accidents running a close second.

Pointing to the increase in the sports as an "added drain" upon wild life resources, the Department said resident fishing license sales will exceed 640,000 and small game licenses 270,000. The previous highs for hunting and fishing license sales were in 1939.

WASH BOILER IN USE THIRTY YEARS

Staples—Whether it is a record or not is unknown, but Mrs. F. H. Eberhardt of Staples believes she has a boiler which can hold its own in competition against any existing wash boiler in point of number of years of service. Mrs. Eberhardt purchased her copper-bottomed tin boiler from a Bertha hardware store in 1911, and although she has discontinued using it as a wash boiler, is still using it in processing canned goods.

Larson Funeral Home
THIEF RIVER FALLS — ST. HILAIRE, MIDDLE RIVER — HOLT,
MINNESOTA

Dear Friends:

Forgive us, please, if we seem to over-work that word "service". It is used so much these days that it has lost much of its meaning.

With us, however, the word covers nearly everything we do. Preparation for burial, direction of the funeral, and countless other details—all must be included under "service". There is no other word for it.

The average funeral requires more than fifty different items of service.

Respectfully,

Geo. B. Larson

INTERIM GROUP ON EDUCATION MAKES FINDINGS PUBLIC

Committee Sees No Hope of Increased State Aid to Schools

Members of the interim committee on education appointed two years ago reported to the legislature this past week that the state is not in a position at this time to increase its assistance to local schools, but submitted a series of recommendations for changes in the school aid laws which they believe will improve the distribution of aid and benefit the state's school system.

The committee, headed by Senator A. L. Almen, himself a school man, has been studying the problem of school financial support for two years, and the report, just submitted, is one of the most comprehensive and yet concise studies yet made of this big question. Other members of the committee are Senator Oscar A. Swenson, Nicollet; Senator Milton Lightner, St. Paul; Representative Herman Dammann, Plato; Representative R. T. Hart, Moose Lake; Representative Frederick P. Memmer, St. Paul, and Dr. Donald J. Cowling of Carleton College, Northfield.

"Your committee is convinced that there is much opportunity in the educational system of Minnesota for increased efficiency of operation," the report said. "Much of the inefficiency is caused by the wasteful system of organization. This has been encouraged by the haphazard, indiscriminate system of state school aids. These have been distributed without reference to a consistent, well-planned aid program."

Distribution of school aids has grown in Minnesota, the report showed, until the total distribution of aids of all kinds for 1939 amounted to $17,601,246, or nearly a third of all costs of elementary and secondary schools.

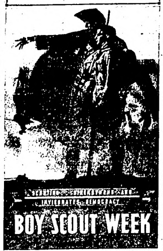
The committee submitted a list of proposed changes which members of the committee believe will improve the distribution of aid. Most of them, it is expected, will become the basis of bills to be submitted this session. Among the recommendations were:

1. The amount of school aid for each year the next two years should be limited to amount authorized for the last year of the present biennium.
2. After June 30, 1942, payments of all school aids should be limited to schools maintaining a term of not less than nine months.
3. All aids for special high school departments of agriculture, commercial training, general industrial training and home economics should be discontinued.
4. Aid for the special education of handicapped pupils should be established.
5. All aids, except the apportionment from the endowment fund, should be prorated equally if they cannot be paid in full.
6. The teachers' college board should be eliminated, and its work transferred to the state board of education.

College Populations

New York university had 36,800 students in 1940, counting part time students. This gives it the largest college population in the United States. However, it is only sixth when only full-time students are counted. The first five are: University of California, 26,004, University of Minnesota, 15,301; Columbia university, 14,211; University of Illinois, 13,510; Ohio State, 13,231.

Essence of Democracy



SCOUTING STRENGTHENS AND INVIGORATES DEMOCRACY
BOY SCOUT WEEK

Boy Scouts throughout the country celebrate the 31st anniversary of the movement in America during the week of Feb. 7-13. While the slogan on the poster above emphasizes the fact that "Scouting strengthens and invigorates democracy" all America agrees that Scout membership is in itself the essence of democracy.

To Aid Men in Getting Jobs After Discharge from Military Service

Men now entering into military service through selective service will be accorded all reasonable assistance for gaining employment when they have been honorably discharged from their period of active service, according to Lt. Colonel J. E. Nelson, state director of selective service for Minnesota.

Especially planned for assisting men who are unemployed at the time they are called for military service, the program will be the cooperative effort of national and state headquarters for selective service, local boards, and the state division of unemployment and security.

Each unemployed registrant will receive a notice inviting him to an employment interview, which notice will be sent at the time of his notice of induction into the service. In most instances, the interview will take place in the local state employment office. Registrants are required to pay their own travel expenses, if any, in connection with the interview.

It is believed that the information obtained in advance will facilitate the employment of a man after he has been honorably discharged from military service. Any occupational training the man received while in the Army will be added to his record at the time of his discharge.

New Serums Help Reduce Pneumonia Death Rate, Minnesota Doctors Say

Until less than five years ago, the pneumonia patient had to fight his big battle alone, with only such aid as good nursing care and other supportive measures could give him to ease his struggle. Furthermore, the odds against him were high and the battle was lost in more than 2,000 cases every year in Minnesota.

These facts are reviewed in today's bulletin from the Minnesota State Medical association's committee on public health education to emphasize the great importance of the new modern serums and drugs, recently brought to the aid of the pneumonia patient, which have cut pneumonia deaths in half in Minnesota.

These serums, plus the drugs of the sulfa series of which the most frequently used is sulfapyridine, are powerful weapons against the pneumonia invader if they are used in time, the doctors say. They are capable of cutting the pneumonia death toll still further, according to the physicians, if they are used promptly and in all cases.

New Acid-Tank Lining

Chemically one of the most inert substances born in research laboratories in recent years is a synthetic material which scientists call Koroseal. So resistant to corrosion is the new substance, that it is now being used by one of the world's largest steel mills to line a tank holding 3,000 gallons of hydrofluoric and nitric acids, a violent corrosive combination used in the "pickling" process to clean stainless steel.

We've put one over on the yardsticks

Here are FOUR NEW ADDITIONS to the BUICK SPECIAL Line that Compact Motorcar Bigness Into Handy Size

Buick SPECIAL 4-door Sedan, model 47, $1021.*

TIME was when you measured a car's ability and standing by the yardstick distance from bumper to bumper.

But not any more — not since Buick made ready the four new additions to its 1941 SPECIAL series that are built for big-car travel tastes — and small-car garages!

They are cars to take the measure of almost anything on the road in the lift and life of their 115-hp. Buick FIREBALL engines.*

They are cars with room for all the family, with all the little Buick luxury touches, with the unrivaled comfort of Buick's all-coil springing and steady-going roadability.

But bumper to bumper they are shorter — so they fit your garage.

Their wheelbase is 118 inches, so they park like a bicycle and flit through traffic with ridiculous ease.

They go farther on every gallon — farther, even, than other Buicks.

So you can't take their measure with a yardstick.

You've got to measure them by what they do for you—in the easier handling, the bigger thrill, the extra convenience they add — and by prices made lower by their new compactness.

How about seeing them — now?

BUICK PRICES BEGIN AT $915 for the Business Coupe

*delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories — extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

TAXPAYERS GROUP OPPOSES MORE PAY FOR COUNTY BOARD

Bill Now Being Prepared for Introduction in State Legislature

At a meeting Wednesday evening of the directors and advisory committee of the Pennington County Taxpayers association, the organization went on record against a bill being prepared for introduction in the legislature which provides salary increases for Pennington county commissioners.

The proposed bill, which would apply only to Pennington county, calls for an increase in commissioners' salaries from the present figure of $420 to $600. No action was taken at the meeting either for or against a companion measure which would raise the salary of the county auditor from $2,000 to $2,400, as well as providing an increase in clerk hire.

Figures were cited on commissioners' salaries in other Northwest counties, tending to show that the present salary scale is not out of line. Also discussed was the high cost of brush cutting along the county highway system in recent years.

Despite subzero weather prevailing Monday afternoon, stockholders and patrons of the Thief River Falls cooperative creamery filled the Sons of Norway hall on the occasion of the association's annual meeting. The business session included the election of two directors, both Christ Nelson and Carl Beiswenger being named to succeed themselves on the board, which will hold its organization meeting next Monday, February 24. Approved by a nearly unanimous vote of the stockholders was a proposal to reduce the amount of capital stock of the corporation from $50,000 to $20,000.

The annual report, revealing successful operation of all departments of the local enterprise, was read by F. H. Kaiser of the Cooperative Auditing Service. It showed total gross income of the various departments aggregated $317,608.62 in 1940.

Total butter output in 1940 amounted to 1,080,400 pounds, setting an all-time high record. Total returns from butter manufactured was $293,794.40, which together with income from cream and butter-milk sales, made total income from dairy products of $304,241.04.

The average net price paid for all butterfat during the year 30.94 cents, not including a patronage rebate of .02 cents a pound. The total manufacturing and general expense per pound of butter attained a new low figure of [illegible] cents a pound.

Net income from all sources was reported at $6,747.79, including $3,184.19 from the creamery department, $2,357.14 from buttermilk products, $831.32 from the cold storage locker department, $240.39 from building rentals, and smaller amounts from sales of cheese, salt and minerals.

LOWER HOUSE PASSES BANK LEVY MEASURE

Drastic Revision of Moneys and Credits Tax Is Proposed

Elden Rowe, state highway patrol chief, Tuesday denied in the state legislature in St. Paul that patrolmen are rated according to the number of arrests they make, and the senate highways committee promptly voted an investigation of the patrol.

After Rowe had made his denial of the charges, and had demanded that they be inspected, Senator C. I. Oliver, Graceville, committee chairman, named a subcommittee to draft a resolution seeking full senate sanction of an inquiry.

Meanwhile, Senator Oliver got a letter from M. J. Hoffmann, highway commissioner and Rowe's chief, attacking a statement by Senator Leo Wells, Albany, last week that the patrol was being ruled with "an iron hand" and that an index system upon which the patrol was rated stressed the number of arrests each patrolman should make to avoid penalty.

In the house, final passage was given to the bank tax bill and to the measure which would add 25 cents to the state hunting licenses for establishment of the "farmers' and sportsmen's indemnity fund."

Without debate, the bill to tax state and national banks at eight per cent of their gross income passed the house by a vote of 94 to 16. Of the 131 members in the house, 31 were absent or failed to vote.

By an even smaller vote of the total house, the measure providing the 25 cent stamp on hunting licenses passed, 82 to nine.

Sponsored chiefly by Rep. Hannah Kempfer, Erhard, the bill proposes a $75,000 fund to be set up from proceeds of the 25-cent stamps. The fund would be used to pay farmers' claims of damages to crops by wild animals.

Both the Kempfer bill and the bank tax measure now need senate approval and signature by the governor. The chief executive vetoed a bill to tax banks at six per cent of their income last session.

Drastic revision of the moneys and credits tax law, which would bring in an estimated $8,000,000 a year in revenue is provided in a bill introduced by Rep. R. G. Johnson, Forest Lake, chairman of the house tax committee.

The present money and credits tax yields only about $2,000,000 a year, Johnson said. He estimated the income would be four times that much under his bill.

The present three-mill rate would not be increased, but the bill would make it a misdemeanor to fail to file a return and add penalties for non-payment. It would put collection under the state tax department, although the state would keep only one-sixth of the proceeds, the rest going to localities.

Make Good Progress on Smiley Bridge

Walter Landobeja brought in this picture of the new Smiley bridge, the construction of which has proceeded rapidly. Because it will be necessary to wait for warmer weather to pour the concrete floor slab, the bridge will not be completed for some time. Two steel spans, one a hundred feet and the other fifty feet, replace the old wooden bridge that went out with the ice last spring.

BURGLARIZING OF 2 BOX CARS IS CLEARED UP

Two Men Taken into Custody While Attempting Third Burglary Sunday

ONE OF PAIR RESIDES IN GATZKE VICINITY

Arrests Clear up Theft of About $1,000 Worth of Cigarets

As the result of efficiently coordinated efforts on the part of local authorities and other law enforcement agencies, two men are confined in jail in this city after having confessed to two local box car burglaries netting loot valued at approximately $1,000, most of it in the form of cigarets.

The pair, Ray Mulholland, 21, of Gatzke, and Clarence W. Chelew, 29, of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, waived preliminary hearing in municipal court Wednesday morning, and were bound over to district court under $1,500 bonds.

The two men are reported by police to have confessed that they burglarized box cars stationed near the Great Northern depot December 16 and again on January 17. Since the latter date a Great Northern officer had been stationed at the depot each night on the lookout for a third appearance of the burglars.

His vigil was rewarded Sunday evening when he detected two men in the act of breaking into another freight car. With the assistance of local police Chelew was taken into custody, but Mulholland escaped, only to be taken into custody at Gatzke the following day.

Both men are reported to have served time in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, Mulholland for embezzlement of postal funds and Chelew for a mail pouch theft and for a theft from a United States armory. Authorities state that in the course of a lengthy interrogation Tuesday the pair admitted similar box car burglaries at Bemidji February 5, East Grand Forks, February 11, and Greenbush February 7.

Part of the loot, it is expected, will be recovered. Officers are still checking on the manner in which the stolen merchandise was disposed of.

Cooperating in the solution of the local and other burglaries cleared up with the arrest of the two men were Police Chief A. B. Stenberg and his staff, Sheriff Arthur Rambeck, special agents of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Soo Line railways, the state department of criminal apprehension and the federal bureau of investigation.

FARMER CARVES OWN TOMBSTONE AT 83

Fertile.—An interesting incident in the life of Erick G. Hougland, pioneer Fertile farmer, was disclosed shortly after his death on January 28 when it was revealed that he had prepared his own grave marker at the age of 83 years. A stonecutter during his early years in Sweden, Mr. Hoglund located a huge rock on his farm five years ago, blasted it from the ground and from the pieces deftly fashioned a square marker supported by four upright pillars and carved the name "Hoglund" on top. He had already hauled the tombstone to his cemetery lot to await the time of his demise.

COMMITTEE WILL REGISTER LEGION MEN FOR DEFENSE

Arthur Berg, P. G. Pederson and A. F. Berge are Appointed

Appointment of a special committee to handle the voluntary registration of all local Legionnaires and World War veterans generally for possible future national defense service as part of the nationwide American Legion preparedness for an emergency, was announced here today by Commander Alex Cloutier of the Elmer J. Eklund Post No. 117.

Commander Cloutier has named Arthur Berg, as chairman of the special national defense registration committee. Other members of the committee are P. G. Pederson and A. F. Berge. All the officers of the local post will serve as ex-officio members of this special committee. Advance registration has already been started under the direction of Mr. Berg in the Memorial rooms at the Auditorium.

National Commander Milo J. Warner has fixed Saturday, February 22, the 209th anniversary of the birth of George Washington, Father of our Country, as national defense registration day for all members of The American Legion and such unaffiliated World War veterans as may desire to participate. There is nothing compulsory about the registration. Filling out of The American Legion national defense questionnaire and rendering any service that may be called for later, both will be entirely voluntary on the part of the individual. Registration does not involve any military liability.

The nationwide registration of Legionnaires and unaffiliated World War veterans was authorized by the 22nd national convention of The American Legion in Boston, Mass., last September, and by the National Executive Committee at its meeting in Indianapolis, Ind., November 21 and 22, 1940. It is merely for the purpose of cataloging the qualifications and special talents of all Legionnaires and World War veterans for national defense. From the questionnaires to be filled out by all members and veterans, local posts, department and national headquarters will prepare indexes which will list the experience, education, training, and other qualifications of the registrants. The information contained in these indexes will be made available to the Federal, State and local authorities whenever the need arises.

They constitute the staff members serving 120,000 different borrowers in 4 states, who have long-term farm mortgage loans totaling $406,690,000. Included in the group is E. G. Burkee of Moorhead, formerly of St. Hilaire, who during the past six years has driven 133,459 miles without an accident.

It is expected that a settlement of the difficulties between our country and Mexico will be announced soon and the terms of the final agreement are being looked forward to with much interest. The results are important not only to the American capitalists who owned the property expropriated by the Mexican government. They have an immediate interest of course, that is important to them, but more important is the reaction of American investors who are considering future expansion in other Latin-American countries. It is a difficult diplomatic problem involving considerations far more important than the few hundred million dollars American investors are demanding. We need friends "south of the border." Friends can be retained only on the basis of mutual respect. Some of our present difficulties no doubt are due to some of our own past blunders, for which we may now have to eat a little humble pie. If the settlement makes possible better future relations, politically and economically, then our present loss may prove to be a good investment.

Henry Ford is reported to have expressed the opinion that we should extend aid to both Germany and Britain so that they could fight until they are both exhausted. That sounds like one of Ford's silly ideas and is another example of a great American talking through his hat. We have a great deal of respect for Mr. Ford as a manufacturer of automobiles but when he gets out of that limited field in which he is recognized as an authority he betrays a lack of understanding that would discredit an average sixth grader. His dislike for Germany and England probably has its roots in the failure of his Peace Ship idea in the last war when he became the laughing stock of all Europeans. There is much merit to the old addage that a shoemaker should stick to his last.

The Greeks are under heavy pressure now and with the threat of a German invasion from the north it would not be surprising if they decided to quit fighting. So far there is no indication that that is their intention however. The Greeks know that to give a little now means to give all and they may decide to fight it out to the end. If that is the case then more power to them, and more supplies.

There is only one more at-home hockey game on the regular schedule—then the play-offs, and when the hockey play-offs are finished we will have the basketball tournaments to make conversation. When they are out and over we are going to become weary of winter and will start looking forward to the arrival of the robins.

Better that we have our winter now than later on.

A LAND OF SHEEP
(Duluth Weekly Herald)

If meekness of spirit and overflowing good nature make a happy land, this is the Utopian States of America.

Americans don't get mad at wasteful politicians any more. The politicians know this and grow bolder and bolder.

Seven hundred federal employes visited Florida at public expense between Nov. 15, 1939 and March 1, 1940. A few congressmen muttered a few complaints, but there was no noticeable outburst of indignation. There was nothing to make this 700 doubt the wisdom of finding another such trip necessary, or to make yet another 700 avail themselves of Uncle Sam's generosity.

The same government which was rich enough to indulge these 700 travel-loving payrollers was so poor by midsummer that it decided it would have to tax the incomes of individuals who were reveling in the luxury of $18-a-week wages.

And hardly anybody got mad.

All over the country lists of comfortable salaries paid to the WPA aristocracy are printed. They suggest that the majority's ill wind has been a soft and delicately scented zephyr for these peers of the new social order.

Yet no one seems to complain. We are reaching that state of mind common in the Europe of a century or two ago when men boasted, not of their own possessions and travels, but of the wealth and distinction of their respective lords.

If the spirit of Concord and Lexington and the Boston tea party still lived, American politics would be a far different business. But it has died. We should trade in our eagle, perhaps for a melancholy goat, representing the self-supporting, taxpaying citizen, perhaps for a sad-eyed sheep, half-shorn on a cold day and licking the hand of the politician who is getting ready to complete the shearing job.

"IN THE ARMY NOW"
(Christian Science Monitor)

The boys are marching. From hamlet and village, from city and town, the cream of American youth is going to camp. The United States has drafted 800,000 men. November 18 marks the beginning of army life for the first lot of draftees. They are "in the army now." Better housed, better treated than soldiers ever were, they are after all soldiers for a year.

Their ordinary way of life must be given up. Many will have smaller incomes. Many will sacrifice comforts and pleasures. They are coming under an iron discipline. They are being shaped and fashioned as an instrument to serve a great national purpose—the defense of American freedom.

This is the first time America has ever demanded such a sacrifice in peacetime. The country is agreed that it is a necessary sacrifice. And we know that the boys who are going to camp go almost happily for the most part and that a year of training and discipline will be a boon for many. Yet that should not prevent us who stay from asking ourselves some questions:

How ready are we to do our part? What commensurate sacrifices are we volunteering for? And if we aren't volunteering, do we understand to what extent we are drafted? Do we realize that America as a whole has been drafted by the world situation to play a part which no one really foresaw? Do we see that everyone must to some extent give up comforts and pleasures if the national purpose is to be served? Do we understand that by disciplining ourselves to the task of speeding up production to arm America and aid Britain we may save the boys who go now to camp from having to make a greater sacrifice?

CHILLY SHEEP
(St. Cloud Times)

One of the most entertaining stories to come across the editor's desk in recent year was a dispatch from New Orleans recently. As an experiment to find a new use for surplus cotton, it is proposed that cotton coats be made for western sheep, so that the poor critters, after being shorn, need not shiver and endure discomfort.

Five hundred coats will be shipped to Wyoming sheep ranches as an experiment, and we can picture the grizzled herders there gently fitting the little garments upon their charges.

Perhaps the sheep will have something to say about it. Whether a self-respecting ram or ewe will permit cotton upholstering is something the coat tailors may have ignored.

A government official said that if the sheep like the new formals, and if the Wyoming herders are adept at modeling and persuasive in salesmanship, the new plan may dispose of as many as 50,000 bales of cotton a year.

Many a wife has wondered after listening to her husband expound on banking and economics how anyone could know so much about money—and not have any.—Lund Topics.

Look . . . there's a special on shoes

Settle back comfortably, the wife's near at hand—it's time for some shopping and some figuring. Let's see . . . need shoes and a shirt and a lawnmower, too—Spring's not far off and there's the lawn to get started. Turn the pages and look at the ads—there's a bargain—and there—and there's a special on shoes!

It's simple, convenient and easy to shop the ads in the Times—each week, department stores, shoe stores, hardware stores and many others make a graphic showing of their wares. Thief River Falls budgeteers make a habit of planning their shopping at home with the Times—it's the best way to find where to get what you need. And Times advertisers are dependable.

The awful tragedy of today's world should teach us to cherish most dearly our traditions of freedom and democracy. The greatest of these, freedom of religious worship, should be one of our dearest possessions. Let us use it wisely and completely by going to church every Sunday.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor the Times:

I am mailing to you some information pertaining to the tax problems of Pennington County that may be of some interest to the taxpayers of Pennington County. If it is not asking too much of you will you please publish this in your public opinion column of your newspaper?

Below is a comparative statement of property tax levies extended into dollars for county purposes compiled by the Minnesota Taxpayers Association Research Department. The increases and decreases made by the various forms of government within Pennington County from the year 1920 to 1940 inclusive are as follows:

Year	State	County	City or Village	Township	School District
1920	33,526	141,882	76,279	41,234	151,872
1933	44,185	138,038	57,287	11,897	105,128
1936	44,050	115,847	45,821	17,882	79,760
1937	31,876	139,787	41,760	19,329	80,002
1940	27,385	185,626	24,274	20,904	94,621

I particularly want to call to the attention of the Taxpayers of Pennington County that all forms of government, State, City, Village, Township, and School Districts have curtailed their expenditures resulting in a substantial reduction of their levies and a saving to the taxpayers of Pennington County.

You will note for the same period, that the County property tax levy made has been toward a very substantial increase, the low figure of the year of 1936 being $115,847, the high figure of 1940 being $185,626, an increase of $70,579. Within the County borders, County government is the only taxing unit calling for more money from the taxpayers. If the county levies continue in the same direction as they have in these twenty years it is rather difficult to estimate just what the levies will be twenty years hence. If we are to expect any decrease in our taxes and retirement of the $613,000 bond indebtedness of the county great economy must be practiced by the County Board.

Yours respectfully,
PENNINGTON COUNTY TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION
A. J. Rau, President.

SO. ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK
(By U. S. Department of Agricultural Economics and Minnesota Department of Agriculture)

South St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 18, 1941: Certified cattle receipts on Tuesday as a result of the severe cold wave stimulated buying and a portion of Monday's losses was regained. Compared with the close of last week, slaughter steers and heifers are weak to 15c lower, with extremes 25c off, but cows and bulls are steady to strong, instances 10-15c higher, according to the Federal-State Market News Service. Vealers are strong to 50c higher. Supplies of stockers and feeders were light, but demand was also narrow and prices showed little change. Medium to good slaughter steers bulked at $9.00-10.50. There were several loads good grade at $11.00-11.50, while choice 1157 lb steers brought $12.00 on Monday. A few choice heifers sold at $10.75. On Tuesday common and medium cows brought $6.00-6.75, with good cows generally $7.00-7.50, although strictly good 1300 lb. Holstein cows made $8.00. Canners and cutters bulked at $4.25-5.75. The extreme top on stockers was $11.00.

Hog prices sagged 10-15c on the week's initial session, but all of this loss was erased on the following day by gains of 15-20c on barrows and gilts. Compared with last week's close barrows and gilts were fully steady to 5c higher on Tuesday, while sows were steady to strong. Tuesday's top was $7.70 paid freely on good and choice 180-240 lb. barrows and gilts, while bulk similar grades 240-270 lb. averages moved at $7.45-7.70. Bulk 270-300 lb. weights cleared at $7.35-7.50, with 300-360 lb. weights at $7.15-7.40. Most 160-180 lb. light lights brought $7.00-7.55, with 100-140 lb. kinds at $7.20-7.70. Good sows sold mainly at $6.75, with a few heavies at $6.65.

Producers benefited by 25-50c higher money for fed lambs following two consecutive upturns of the present week. There was some abridgement in receipts, with western fed lambs comprising the bulk. Feeding and shearing lambs were firm. The trend at eastern dressed lamb centers remained about the same as late last week. Tuesday's rise produced a new high mark for the year at $10.65, with good to choice lots turning from $10.50-10.65 and medium grade lambs as high as $10.25. Most of the feeding and shearing lambs of good to choice quality cleared from $9.50-10.00, with a load of 87 lb. shearers at $10.15.

Cow Testing Pays Big Returns, Says County Agent Lester Lerud

Minnesota farmers belonging to cow testing associations found the $63,000 spent for herd testing last year paid big returns. Cow testing herds paid their owners $53 above feed cost per animal while the average Minnesota cow returned only $28, says Lester A. Lerud, county agent. Cows in the 52 highest producing C.T.A. herds returned an average of $77 above feed cost or three times that of the average dairy animal in the state. C.T.A. herd owners give several reasons for their greater profits. Each cow is studied individually. Monthly and yearly production and feed cost records are kept under the supervision of the Minnesota Agricultural Extension Service at University Farm. The herds are fed according to their production, low producers are culled, disease is controlled and only heifers from the best cows are kept. Because of the importance of good breeding, C.T.A. members use purebred sires that transmit good production abilities. A bull is judged by the dam and daughter records, and the brood cow by records of her daughters.

2,600 MINNESOTA MEN WILL GO INTO SERVICE IN MARCH

Quotas for Various Counties of State Are Not Yet Available

The first part of the March quota of Minnesota men to be provided to the army under the selective training and service act has been set at 876 men. Of this number, Hennepin County will supply 532, Ramsey County, 272, and other counties in the state, 72 men.

No reports have been received at state headquarters as to the number of volunteers now available in each local board. It is believed, however, that the number is very small, since all volunteers reporting up to the fifteenth of February were inducted during the February call. Consequently, nearly all of these men will be inducted by number.

Lt. Col. J. E. Nelson, state director, announced that the quota for the balance of the month has not yet been transmitted to state headquarters, but it is believed that an additional 1700 selected men will be inducted and allotments will be made to the local boards in the state during the period of from March 11 to March 31.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

Puppetry

This week's show will be held as usual on Thursday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock in the arena puppet theatre. The show is free to everyone, and all are invited to attend. Shows in the past have been very successful from an audience standpoint. Parents in particular are invited to see the shows, which are the work of their children. Making puppets, designing costumes, and finally, staging the show are all handled by the young puppeteers. These children are under the careful guidance of Camille Dostal, local puppet supervisor.

Arena Craft Shop

Loran Lord, craft leader, has left the program and will not be available for craft work. Tools may be removed from the shop. If this is done, the shop will close until other tools are procured. Bernard "Pied" Langevin and Ben Heyn, other craft leaders on the program will be in charge when craft activities are resumed as a part of the program.

Minnesota Department of Health Urges Going to Dentist Regularly

The chief rule, both for keeping our teeth and for keeping them healthy, is early and frequent dental attention, the Minnesota department of health announced this week. This is essential if we hope to protect our teeth from the two conditions that are mainly responsible for their loss—dental decay and pyorrhea.

Early dental attention means going to the dentist early in life. A child two years of age is not too young to be taken to the dentist, and parents should be sure to take boys and girls for a dental checkup as soon as the children have all of their baby teeth. Unfortunately, the teeth of practically all children are subject to decay, a condition which we do not yet know how to prevent. But teeth need not be lost from this cause if they receive dental attention before decay has damaged them to any great extent.

Frequent dental attention means going to the dentist as often as he thinks advisable. Some people are more susceptible than others to dental decay or to pyorrhea, just as some people have more colds than others. Some may need to go to a dentist three or four times a year, whereas one or two visits a year may be enough for others. That is something that only your dentist can tell you.

FELLS TWO RABBITS WITH SINGLE SHOT

Pipestone—On a par with killing two birds with one stone is Charles Lingwall of Trosky who was credited with the ultimate in marksmanship recently when he bagged two rabbits with one blast from his shotgun. A distance of thirty feet separated the hares. The shot is all the more remarkable when it is known that Lingwall has but one hand, the other having been shot off years ago in a hunting accident.

CROP, FEED LOANS AGAIN BEING MADE IN PENNINGTON CO.

Applications to be Taken at Office of the County Agent Here

O. T. Johnson, the local county field supervisor for the emergency crop and feed loan office of the Farm Credit Administration, announces crop and feed loans are now available to all farmers in the State of Minnesota. Mr. Johnson has just returned to his territory after having spent a few days at his regional office in St. Paul, where he attended a joint meeting of all field supervisors.

Mr. Johnson stated that crop and feed loans for 1941 are now available to all eligible farmers in Pennington county and that applications for these loans can now be made at the county agents office in Thief River Falls. As in former years, funds appropriated for the emergency crop and feed loan office are available for crop production purposes, including the purchase of seed, gas and oil, feed for workstock, and minor repairs to machinery, to all farmers who cannot obtain a loan from other sources and who meet the requirements by giving a first lien on the 1941 crops financed. Loans are also available for the purchase or production of feed for livestock. As security for this type of loan, a first lien on the livestock to be fed is required.

In order to speed up the taking of applications, Mr. Johnson requests that farmers go to the county agent's office prepared to give the following information: (1) Description of land farmed; (2) proposed 1941 planting program.

Nearly 1,500 Present at Road Meeting Thursday

Minnesota has been recommended to receive $2,709,402 in federal funds for improvements to "strategic network" highways as part of the national defense program, Jennings Randolph, congressman from West Virginia, told 1,487 good roads advocates, county commissioners and highway officials and engineers in Minneapolis last Thursday at a banquet commemorating the twentieth anniversary of the creation of the Minnesota trunk highway system.

"This good roads dinner was the biggest event of its kind in Minnesota road history and was an unmistakable demonstration by the people of the state for adequate gas taxes to finance our state, county and township roads", said E. W. Moeller, secretary of the Northwest Good Roads assn., which sponsored the dinner. The organization went on record for return to the four cent state gas tax rate and the retention of the Dunn one-mill levy for state aid roads.

Dairymen Favor Limit on Amount of Silage Fed

While good silage continues to be recognized as an economical and useful staple in the dairy ration, dairymen are finding it desirable to put a limit on the amount of silage consumed, according to E. A. Hanson, extension specialist at University Farm.

The chief reason, he says, is to force the cow to eat more hay, resulting in a large intake of total digestible feed material. This is especially valuable when the hay is a high protein legume such as alfalfa, which supplies the milk-making needs of the cow better than any other roughage and eliminates to a large extent the necessity of adding protein concentrates.

Experience has shown that 20 or 30 pounds of succulent silage fed daily will sharpen the cow's appetite and leave room for a substantial intake of good hay. Giving the cow all the silage she will eat is likely to result in her loading up on this succulent feed to the exclusion of the hays which can contribute more to milk production.

Confiscated Furs Net Good Prices in St. Paul

The department of conservation realized $8,294 from its regular sale of confiscated furs last week in St. Paul. Prices paid at the auction were the highest in years, officials reported. On sale were muskrat, beaver, otter, raccoon, skunk, civet cat, badger, fox and mink. Thirty-eight beaver, which included eight kits or small skins, sold for $958. One lot of 604 muskrat hides sold for $1.40 each, while another lot brought $1.44 each.

Tracing the Appendix

The appendix was recognized by Berengarius Carpus, an Italian anatomist, in 1532. Two hundred years later a British surgeon, Claudius Amyand, performed the first appendectomy. In 1886 Dr. Reginald Fitz of Boston proved that the disease is produced by an affected appendix and coined the word appendicitis.

Drivers to Blame for 90 Pct. of Car Mishaps, Crash Reports Reveal

In 90 per cent of the more than 17,500 traffic accidents resulting in personal injuries or serious damage to one or more motor vehicle in Minnesota last year, the driver was, by his own admission, the principal cause of the accident.

Prevalence of this human factor as a major cause contributing to motor vehicle mishaps is shown by a check made this week of accident reports received by the department of highways during the year.

These reports are made out by the drivers themselves, under the confidential status provided by law for relationships between the reporting driver and the department of highways.

In about 8 per cent of the accident reports, drivers listed a faulty or defective condition of the highway as a contributing cause of the accident. About 5 per cent more list in their reports a mechanical or other failure of a motor vehicle.

But in the other 90 per cent, the motorists involved in accidents attributed their misfortunes primarily to an error in behavior on the part of themselves, the driver of some other vehicle involved, or some passenger in one or the other vehicle.

Back Aches Have Many Causes, According to State Medical Group

Back aches are literally pains in the neck to some people and they are seriously crippling disabilities to others, according to a bulletin issued by Minnesota State Medical Association officials.

"Back aches have many causes", the doctors point out, "ranging from injuries, infections, tumorous growths and congenital defects to simple bad posture. They affect the neck as well as the lower back regions in many cases and sometimes they are accompanied by paralysis and inability to carry on normal occupations.

"For some rest, heat and a proper support are all that is necessary for relief. For others modern surgery offers a relief that seems miraculous especially in cases of slipped intervertebral disks, that is, in cases where the pads of cartilage which separate the vertebrae have slipped and are causing serious pain and disability. Surgery is able to correct the condition; but it is only discovered by means of modern x-ray procedures."

PUBLIC NOTICES

In Memoriam

It may be, Mother mine, when you departed,
White and silent, that you did not wholly go.
Never left your children broken-
hearted,
Help them more, are nearer than they know.
And your remembered tones are more than music,
More than day the memory of your smile;
Clear from all the cadences of sorrow,
May we hear them, and behold them in a little while!

FARGO IS WINNER OF JUNIOR HOCKEY TOURNEY IN CITY

Defeats Warroad 3 to 0 in Championship Contest Saturday

Following the victories over Thief River Falls, Roseau and Hallock, the Fargo high school team won the Northwest junior hockey championship here Saturday night by defeating Warroad 3 to 0 in a game that went scoreless through more than two periods. More than seven minutes of the third period had passed before Fargo counted and up to that time the two teams had played on fairly even terms. In spite of the fact that Warroad had played two hard games earlier in the day, there was no let-down of speed in the final encounter which was a thrill-packed exhibition of fast hockey.

Thief River Falls was Fargo's first victim, the visitors winning this opening game of the tournament Friday afternoon by a 6 to 5 score. An overtime period was required to settle the battle, the third period ending with the score tied at 5 to 5. The second period ended with Fargo out in front by a 4 to 1 count, the local lads scoring 3 in the third stanza to 1 for Fargo.

Roseau was the winner in the next bracket, defeating Crookston Central 9 to 4 and in turn was defeated Friday evening by Fargo by a 5 to 3 score. In another preliminary game Friday evening Crookston Cathedral won handily from Bemidji 6 to 3.

The tournament was resumed Saturday morning when Hallock won from East Grand Forks 8 to 1 and Warroad took Grand Forks by 9 to 1. On Saturday afternoon Warroad won the semi finals, defeating Crookston Cathedral 6 to 3, and Fargo earned the right to meet Warroad in the finals, eliminating Hallock 7 to 2.

At the close of the tournament the Munn championship trophy was awarded to the Fargo team, it being necessary to win it three times to gain permanent possession. The Fargo sextet also was awarded permanent possession of the trophy offered by the Crookston voiture, while Warroad won the runnerup trophy presented by the Thief River Falls voiture.

The sportsmanship and Tom Rowan trophies remain to be awarded following a meeting of directors of the Northwest Junior Hockey association.

Thieves Take 2 from Crookston This Week

Highlights of the week in hockey circles was the come-back made by the Fargo-Moorhead Comets. With victories over Thief River Falls and Grafton to their credit and showing steadily increasing strength, the Comets are definitely a factor to be reckoned with in the league play-offs which start here next week.

The Comets took Thief River Falls here Thursday night by a 4 to 3 score, scoring three goals in the second period to tie the count and blanking the Thieves in the third period while Nehring scored on an assist from Johnson. It was clean, hard fought game with only one penalty and that one on Beverly. On Friday night the Comets repeated by winning from Grafton 3 to 2.

The Thieves came out on the long end of a 7 to 5 score against Crookston here Sunday in a game that was decided in the final minutes of play. The teams went into the third period with the score tied at 3 to 3. The Pirates went ahead at the end of four minutes when LeDeaux scored on an assist from Taylor. Five minutes later Gustafson tied the score again and it remained that way until the closing minutes, when Crookston was penalized. In that two minutes Gray and Gustafson each singled and Thief River in turn was penalized.

The Pirates put on the pressure and Snooks Julien scored on a double assist from DePaul and LeDeaux. Playing wide open in a desperate attempt to get another, Crookston let Kornek get away on an open field race. Kornek missed but was given an assist when Gray lifted the puck in on the rebound a few seconds before the whistle.

In the game played at Crookston Tuesday the Pirates started out with a terrific drive and drove in 4 counters to 1 for the Thieves in the first period. In the second period the teams played on more even terms, both scoring two, but in the third the Thieves came back strong, scoring 6 goals to win the game 9 to 8. Gustafson sunk 4 of the six in that period, Popiel getting the other two. That the last five minutes were hot is indicated by the scoring. Gustafson tied the score at 15:54, Popiel put the Thieves ahead at 16:59, LeDeaux tied for the Pirates at 18:44 and Popiel made the last counter that won the game at 19:46.

Thief River Falls plays the last home game of the regular schedule here Saturday night with Grafton, playing a return game at Grafton Sunday. The play-off series will start here Tuesday when the Thieves meet Fargo-Moorhead.

STATE HIGH COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF CONTRACTOR HERE

Overrules Industrial Commission in Clifford Hedeen Case

The state supreme court Friday reversed an industrial commission decision that awarded workmen's compensation to William Curtis of Tracy as an employe of Clifford Hedeen, local highway contractor.

The high court held that Curtis was an employe of his wife, who was operating a cook shack on one of Hedeens jobs in Marshall county, and her husband, a truck driver for Hedeen, was detailed to assist her with the heavy work around the shack.

It was in the course of this latter work, the supreme court held, that he suffered an injury, and not in connection with his truck job.

The industrial commission had awarded Curtis $180 plus $112 hospital charges.

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

OLD-AGE PENSION ISSUE COMING UP IN LEGISLATURE

Proposed to Give Welfare Boards More Authority in Applying Liens

Early test of legislative sentiment on the preventive old age lien issue was in prospect this week as the house public welfare committee got a sub-committee report against altering proposed drastic amendment to the law.

Rep. A. F. Oberg, Lindstrom, chairman of the subcommittee, reporting on the prolonged study of the measure said concensus favored having welfare boards decide when the lien provision was being applied unfairly and unreasonably.

Oberg also recommended that the welfare committee try to get the house on record this week as to whether it favors outright repeal or amendment of the lien law.

The lien issue has been smouldering ever since the very first days of the session when there was a mad dash to introduce bills repealing and amending the act. Governor Stassen, sponsor of the original law, in his inaugural message recommended easing the law to permit district courts to decide whether children were doing their best to help their impoverished parents and whether the pensioners would have to give the state lien on their homestead in return for pension aid.

Bills are in both senate and house to have probate courts decide this question. The house sub-committee now recommends this be left to welfare boards.

Senator Joseph Ball Endorses Principle of the Lend-Lease Bill

Returning to Minnesota to give the people a report on the fight now going on in congress over aid to Britain and other nations menaced by aggression, United States Senator Joseph H. Ball made two speeches during the past week which are attracting wide attention throughout the state.

Speaking in Rochester and later in a state-wide radio broadcast, Senator Ball declared that he is squarely opposed to an isolationist policy for the United States and endorsed in general the purposes and principles of the lease-lend bill but favored a number of protective amendments to safeguard interests of the people and the rights of congress.

Senator Ball says that the United States cannot safely follow a policy of isolation if it wishes "All my emotional inclination is toward that policy," he said, "but my reason tells me that it is untenable in the light of the harsh realities of our world today."

U. S. RED CROSS GIVES REPORT ON WAR RELIEF WORK

Agency Sends Nearly Twenty Millions in Supplies to February 1

The American Red Cross, in announcing relief supplies for war victims sent by the Red Cross reached a total value of $19,496,805 up to February 1, stated that the month of January marked the heaviest relief shipments by the organization since the beginning of the war.

The total relief valued at $19,496,805 includes expenditures and commitments of the American Red Cross, estimated value of chapter produced supplies and purchases from the U. S. government appropriation of $50,000,000.

Relief shipments of clothing, medical supplies, and all types of civilian supplies, shipped in British boats for Great Britain, were very heavy; a full shipload of medical supplies, clothing and foodstuffs was shipped to Greece; a shipload of milk, vitamins, medicines, cloth and wheat flour was shipped to France and Spain; heavy shipments of shoes and clothing were made to Finland; and thousands of tons of wheat, rice, cloth and medicines were shipped to China.

Red Cross relief to the war victims in Great Britain totals to date $10,277,080; to France $2,201,191; to Finland, $1,834,513; to China, $1,328,940; to Greece, $1,432,304; to Poland, $993,922; to Spain, $403,756.

FIRE STARTED IN MAY, 1940, STILL BURNING

Belle Plaine—A "believe it or not" item contributed by R. M. Hix of Blakeley which is really worthy of space in Ripley's column is the item concerning the Blakeley elevator which burned down May 13, 1940, and which was still burning on February 1 of the current year. It seems impossible but it is a fact and may be seen any day. The ground was filled in and leveled off thirty days after the fire, but to this day, it is still smouldering.

SURVEY INDICATES 54.3 PCT. OF STATE ROADS INADEQUATE

M. J. Hoffman Addresses County Commissioners in Minneapolis

Speaking before the state convention of the Minnesota Association of County Commissioners and the 1,200 guests at the Northwest Good Roads conclave in Minneapolis, Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann last week made some rather shocking disclosures concerning the state trunk highway system.

He revealed for the first time some of the findings, now being incorporated into a report for the legislature, as a result of a three-year study of Minnesota road conditions by the statewide highway planning survey, a joint project cooperated in by the state highway department, the U. S. Public Roads Administration and the Works Project Administration.

Declaring that the road users of Minnesota might just as well face the facts, Commissioner Hoffman asserted that the report, although uncompleted, has already disclosed that 5,429 miles, or 54.3%, of the rural mileages of the state trunk highways, have surfaces inadequate to carry the traffic they are called on to bear. This leaves only 4,560 miles of rural routes on the entire trunk highway system which can be considered to have adequate surfaces—that is, adequate as to both surface type and width.

As an example of the rapid rate at which increased traffic demands have rendered even the older trunk highways inadequate, Commissioner Hoffmann pointed out that, just eight years ago, the highway department reported to the legislature that the existing 6,735 miles of the old constitutional trunk system was 75% completed. That report listed 2,411 miles of pavement, 2,112 miles of bituminous, and 569 miles or gravel, or a total of 5,092 miles of the constitutional trunk syste mas being adequately improved. Only 1,642 miles, or 25% were listed as unsatisfactory.

Today, on these same routes, despite the fact that millions of dollars have been expended for their further improvement, all of the old 18 foot pavement and 56% of the 20 foot pavement are now inadequate for traffic needs. Likewise 60.5% of the bituminous and gravel roads on that system now are definitely inadequate.

State Dentists to Meet in Minneapolis Feb. 25

Importance of dental health for national defense will be discussed by Dr. Gerald D. Timmons of Chicago, secretary of the dental preparedness committee of the American Dental association, at the fifty-eighth annual meeting of the Minnesota State Dental association in Minneapolis, February 25 26 and 27. More than 3,000 dentists, dental hygienists and assistants from nine states and Canada will attend the conclave—the largest state dental meeting in the United States. Newest advancements in dental technic will be demonstrated in 170 clinic sessions at the Minneapolis municipal Auditorium. There will be 20 health and scientific exhibits and 100 technical exhibits of modern dental equipment.

HARBINGER OF SPRING SEEN AT ST. PETER

St. Peter—Not nearly as pleasant a sign of early spring as the first robin, or blade of grass or a lilac in bloom, but, it is to be hoped, just as sure a sign was the little black and green mottled garter snake which crawled along the steps beside a St. Peter grocery Saturday and nestled there in the snow. Maybe he hadn't heard about the groundhog or else he just didn't care.

IN THE STATE SENATE

By Senator E. L. Tungseth

A recent editorial in the Gonvick Banner indicates that there is considerable interest throughout the State with reference to the bill which proposes to redistrict the State for the purpose of reducing the number of Legislative Districts and the number of State senators and representatives. The question is asked in this editorial:

"Where would Clearwater, Red Lake, Pennington, and similar size counties rank in the picture?"

In answer to this question, the proposed bill, which reduces the State legislative districts to 44, places Kittson, Roseau, Marshall, Pennington and Red Lake counties in District 44. Clearwater County is placed in District 42 with Lake of the Woods, Beltrami and Hubbard counties. Norman, Mahnomen and Polk counties would constitute District 43.

While it may appear as if such a reduction in the number of districts and in the number of legislative members would economize the cost of legislation, I rather doubt that this would actually be the case. Larger districts will involve more time, require more service for each member of the reduced legislative staff. Large districts in which to campaign will also require more campaign funds and about the first thing which will happen will be an increase in salary for all legislators. It will also tend to eliminate any person who has no funds of his own to run for such a position, since the cost of campaigning will make it prohibitive for anyone of the poorer class. This will necessarily bring the State Legislature farther away from the average citizen of our state.

Another problem involved, and which is of vital importance to rural Minnesota, is that we retain some majority membership in the Legislature regardless of the importance of our larger cities with their centralized wealth and industry all of which could not exist without rural Minnesota.

I have, therefore, taken an attitude of opposition to the re-districting of our State at this time.

373 Motorists Start out in 1941 by Losing Their Drivers' Permits

Two hundred and sixty-four driver's licenses were suspended for traffic law violations by the state department of highways during the month of January, the largest number of January suspensions recorded since the establishment of the driver's license law in 1934.

Another 108 drivers lost their licenses for one year by outright revocation.

On the driver's licenses revoked 60 were forfeited for driving while intoxicated, five for flagrant speeding violations, two for reckless driving, and 12 for operating a motor vehicle without the owner's permission.

The driver's license suspensions ranged from 30 days up to 365 days. The largest number to pay this severe penalty for any one specific law violation were 80 who were deprived of the right to drive as punishment for repeated offenses of speeding. Forty-two forfeited their driving permits for reckless driving, 67 for first-offense intoxication, 6 for running through stop signs and signals and 12 for refusing to take a driving test or supply a doctor's statement of adequate vision.

"How long should a man's legs be?"

WHEN LINCOLN said that a man's legs "should be long enough to reach the ground," he voiced a principle that applies to telephone rates... they must be sufficient to provide an adequate telephone service for the community.

This means that rates must provide enough money to pay wages and taxes, take care of depreciation of telephone property and pay for the use of the money which hundreds of thousands of men and women have invested in the business.

WHEN CAULIFLOWER IS A GOOD BUY

Cauliflower is a good buy right now in a good many parts of the country. In fact, one middle-western newspaper is even offering prizes for the best cauliflower recipes submitted by its readers.

This started me thinking about my favorite cauliflower recipe . . . not that I meant to submit it . . . I simply found myself hungry for the taste of these tender delicately flavored flowerets enriched with browned butter sauce and crispy brown buttery crumbs. Doesn't that sound like a distinctive and different vegetable dish well-deserving of its swanky-sounding name . . . "Cauliflower Au Beurre"?

Hints On Cooking Strong-Flavored Vegetables

But before I give you the recipe, let's discuss the general principles of cooking this vegetable which has been referred to as "Cabbage with a College Education". For cauliflower does belong to the family of strong-flavored vegetables which includes cabbage, turnips, brussels sprouts and broccoli. All of them are ruined . . . both in color and flavor . . . by too long cooking. So to prevent the development of a strong unpleasant taste in all these vegetables, COOK UNCOVERED in a LARGE AMOUNT of BOILING WATER FOR THE SHORTEST POSSIBLE TIME! Cook JUST UNTIL TENDER!

Drain at once when done . . . and save the water to use in soups and sauces. Many minerals and vitamins are in that water. That's why it is too valuable to throw away.

Add Salt While Cooking

One to 1½ teaspoons of salt may be added to each quart of the water during the boiling period.

WHEN IT COMES TO CAULIFLOWER

In buying cauliflower, choose white heads with fresh green leaves. Turn your back on yellowish-looking heads with withered leaves.

Remove the leaves, cut off the stalk and soak 30 minutes (head down) in cold salted water. Separate into flowerets and cook 8 to 10 minutes. Or if you wish to cook your cauliflower whole . . . it will require 20 minutes.

Serve Cauliflower With—

Drain and serve with: Melted Butter . . . White Sauce . . . or Hollandaise Sauce. A whole cauliflower is delicious sprinkled with grated cheese and paprika and served on a hot platter.

CAULIFLOWER AU BEURRE

Place cooked cauliflower on a hot serving platter . . . with the flowerets side up. Pour browned buttered crumbs over it. To make the crumbs . . . allow butter to brown delicately over low heat. Add fine dry bread crumbs, and stir until nicely browned.

What Goes With Cauliflower Au Beurre

The next question is . . . what sort of a menu shall we plan to include our Cauliflower Au Beurre? What goes well with cauliflower? Here are two suggestions:

FOR SUNDAY DINNER
Roast Pork Apple Sauce Gravy Baked Sweet Potatoes
Cauliflower Au Beurre
Tray of Relishes
Rolls Butter Jelly
Prune Cream Pie
Coffee

QUICK TOP-OF-THE-STOVE SUPPER
Corned Beef Hash with Poached Eggs
Cauliflower Au Beurre
Dill Pickles Celery Carrot Sticks
Bread and Butter
Apricot Sauce Cookies (whatever kind you have on hand)
Coffee or Tea

NOW THEY'RE CALLING HIM "LACY-PANTS"

Forest Lake—Ted Houle, president of the Forest Lake fire department, arrived late at a recent fire in his town. Reason? He had to take the curlers out of his hair! It seems his little girl wanted to see if she could put a curl in daddy's hair so she decked him out prettily with curlers for the night. When the siren blew, Ted, in true volunteer fashion, was up and dressed in two minutes. He hit a snag however, when he came to put on his hat and it was only that fact that saved him from fighting a fire with curlers in his hair.

NYA HI-LITES

By Tom Benson

The air around the NYA Resident Center is charged with expectancy over the new educational program being launched in affiliation with the national defense training program and Minnesota department of education. Many obstacles have arisen and director and instructors alike deserve just credit for the time they are devoting to the organizing of a class program satisfactory to the student, while still permitting time to keep project work progressing satisfactorily. Students are elated over the possibilities of the new program and impatiently wait for the first class class bell to ring so they can get a taste of their new good fortune.

The power equipment for the industrial arts woodshop is almost complete, so for boys whose interests lean that way the possibilities are very bright. The boys who have worked in the auto shop have had many an interesting experience trying to get things back together that they took apart, but under the efficient guidance of John Grimley, who is the auto shop foreman, they are rapidly finding out what makes a motor tick and how to make it tick properly.

Due to a change in the present program, W. R. Kaiser, has been transferred and Paul Perrault, former resident foreman will be the woodshop foreman and George Melbye is assigned to Mr. Perraults former duties. The boys are enjoying the new-found success of the NYA basketball team. Now that the team is getting properly organized they defeated the popular Son Cafe team and handed the leagues second place J & B quint a decisive 9 point trimming. In a game with Hartz last Friday night NYA came out the victors in a wild fourth quarter scoring melee. The boys make no bones about it!

They heaved a sigh of relief when the whistle blew and they found themselves on the top side of a 47-46 score. The present dreams and hopes of the team now include an unblemished record for the remainder of the season.

FRESH CARROTS IN GARDEN IN JANUARY

Atwater—Because of dry weather, Mrs. Chas. Cunningham of Atwater decided about the middle of last August that her carrot crop would be a failure and so planted more seed mostly as a hopeful experiment with little expectation of obtaining any carrots large enough to use. The November blizzard buried the then green topper carrots under an avalanche of white and they were forgotten. Came January 11, 1941, and Mrs. Cunningham was preparing a vegetable hot dish. On a sudden inspiration she persuaded her husband to investigate the carrot situation in the garden and lo, and behold, green nice-sized carrots were revealed when the snow was removed.

Do you have to "TUCK YOUR CAR IN" at night?
Not If It's One of these Four New Additions to the BUICK SPECIAL Line that Compact Automobile Bigness into Fewer Bumper-to-Bumper Inches
HERE of late the modern automobile has been giving a pretty good imitation of a man getting up in the morning.
It has stretched and s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-d—until today you almost have to have a shoehorn to get a car of any size tucked away in the family garage.
We thought something ought to be done about that.
So today in Buick dealers' showrooms you'll see four new models, additions to the 1941 Buick SPECIAL line.
They are typical Buicks on every count—steady, tireless travelers with a big 115-hp. Buick FIREBALL straight-eight under their bonnets.
But by the simple step of compacting all this ability, goodness and value on a 118-inch wheelbase, we've trimmed inches off the over-all length—and dollars off the cost.
We're passing those dollar savings on to you, which makes three reasons for going to see these honeys now: You'll go for their ability—your wife will go for trim size and easy handling — and both will stand up and cheer for the easily-reachable price.
BUICK PRICES BEGIN AT $915 for the Business Coupe delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

STATE SOLONS PROCEED WITH WORK SLOWLY

Legislature Takes Final Action on Few Measures During Week

HOUSE GIVEN BILL TO CUT MEMBERSHIP

Rep. W. E. Day Introduces Bill Affecting Sale of Oleomargarine

Many bills were discussed in the Minnesota legislature during the past week, and a number of new measures were introduced, but few had reached the stage where final action could be taken.

Final passage was accorded several bills in the house Thursday. One would permit the purchase of fishing licenses in any county; not just the one in which the fisherman lived, while another, discussed at length Wednesday, provided leaves of absence to public employees who are inducted into the army or navy.

A constitutional amendment bill to limit the house to between 70 and 90 members and the senate 35 to 45 was introduced by Rep. Joseph Prifrel Jr., St. Paul. A similar plan has been introduced in the senate.

Oleomargarine containing more than 65 per cent animal fats would be taxed a half-cent a pound under a bill sponsored by Rep. Walter Day, Bagley. That under 65 per cent animal fat is taxed at ten cents a pound.

The house refused to concur in a senate amendment extending the old mortgage moratorium law only one year, and voted to name a conference committee to meet with a similar group from the senate. As passed by the house, the moratorium would be extended for two years.

Two bills designed to bulwark the state drivers license law were turned down Tuesday by the senate public highways committee.

One would have required drivers whose licenses have been suspended for traffic law violations to furnish proof of financial responsibility before their licenses could be restored.

The other would have repealed the present law making it mandatory on the courts to revoke the driver's license of any person convicted of drunken driving.

Opposition to any "basic or weakening amendments" to the state civil service was voiced by the Minnesota Education association to members of the legislature.

In letters sent to the solons, the education association emphasized that "we feel sufficient time has not elapsed to make possible a fair test of the specific provisions of this law".

A bill to permit shooting of bear at anytime was considered by the senate game and fish committee. No definite action was taken.

Another Group of Volunteers Leaves Pennington County

18 Young Volunteers Given Hearty Sendoff

Eighteen young volunteers for selective service left Tuesday evening on the Soo Line en route to Fort Snelling, carrying with them pleasant recollections of a rousing send-off party in their honor earlier in the evening in the Palm Garden cafe. The affair was sponsored jointly by the Lions club and Legion post.

Dr. A. R. Hulbert presided over the program, which opened with community singing led by Dr. A. E. Jacobson and accompanied on the piano by H. O. Chommie. The volunteers and their parents were then introduced, as were members of the county draft board and their office staff.

W. G. Claffy, speaking in behalf of the Lions club, pointed out some of the privileges enjoyed under a democratic government, and said they were worth fighting for. W. E. Dahlquist, representing the Legion post, discussed the serious situation in which the United States finds itself at the present time.

Others who spoke briefly were Dallas Kast of Crookston, district co-ordinator for selective service boards, and W. J. LaFree, member of the draft board who also served in that capacity during the World War in 1917-18.

H. M. Hitterdal supplied a vocal solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Hitterdal, with cornet obbligato by Vern Keifenheim. Several vocal selections also were supplied by a group of Legionnaires including Mr. Hitterdal, Dr. Jacobson, Dr. J. N. Nesse, Elmer Larson, W. M. Ferguson and Mr. Chommie.

Following the program many of the invited guests attended the hockey game in the arena as guests of the athletic association.

The volunteers who made up the county quota include Milton Torgerson, Kenneth Yatesund, Clarence M. Olson, Norman Legvold, S. C. Severson, Morris Jaranson, Raymond Bergstrom, Gilmore A. Lian, Raymond Maidment, Lloyd Geske, Ivan Bundy, Aloyus Kalinowski, Arlen K. Arveson, Leonard Olson, Thelmer Langle, Gunnar Austad, Wallace Evenson, and Gresmond F. Bruggeman and Oliver Curtis.

They Left Tuesday Night

AGED RESIDENT IS ASPHYXIATED IN FIRE FRIDAY

H. M. Hicks, Pioneer Furniture Store Proprietor, Succumbs

IS FOUND IN BED IN ROOMS ABOVE STORE

Had Been Resident of Thief River Falls for Nearly Half Century

A fire of undetermined origin that damaged the interior of the Hicks furniture store on Main av. N. last Friday evening resulted in the death from asphyxiation of H. M. Hicks, 79, who was found lying on his bed in the upstairs living quarters, where he had lived alone. He was taken to a local hospital without delay, but was dead on arrival there.

The door to his quarters was locked from the inside, making it necessary for firemen to break it open to gain access. When found on the bed under several quilts, Mr. Hicks' body and face bore burns, suggesting that he may have made an effort to extinguish the blaze before being overcome by the smoke. Firemen had to use masks when they entered the room to bring out the body. No inquest was held.

Funeral rites will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Erickson & Lund parlors, Rev. J. O. Jacobson officiating. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Harold M. Hicks was born in New York state April 14, 1861, and came to the Twin Cities in 1880. In 1892 he came to Thief River Falls to operate a furniture store, also at one time conducting an undertaking parlor.

He was married in St. Paul in 1888 to Miss Emily A. Bjurke, who preceded him in death. The surviving family include two sons, Harold W. Hicks of Thief River Falls, and George M. Hicks of Glendale, California. Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Ina Sturgis of Inglewood, California, and three grandchildren.

RESOLVED: THAT MEN ARE BETTER COOKS THAN WOMEN

Northfield—The vital issue of whether or not men are better cooks than women is to be forever settled at least in the Northfield community where some forty-five men have banded together in an effort to produce the biggest and best dinner ever offered the people of their city. The primary and sole object of the dinner is to forever kill the notion that women are the best cooks.

The chief proof that Solomon was not so wise is that he had 700 wives.

McNelly, district county agent leader, and Mrs. Belle Osborn Fish, state home demonstration agent school. The county mattress committee will train the supervisors of local work centers.

The county agent announced that a carload of cotton for Pennington County was unloaded last week. The ticking is expected to be delivered in the county in the next few days, and will be prepared at the N. Y. A. residence center at Warren.

Tentative arrangements have been made for three or four work centers at various points in the county. The construction of mattresses, however, will be delayed until late in the spring, except perhaps in Thief River Falls, where the county mattress committee is trying to locate a suitable work center. At the mattress training school at Thief River Falls last week, it was effectively demonstrated that in order to get the cotton to fluff, the room at the work center must be one that can be kept uniformly warm both day and night.

The county mattress committee goes on to point out that felted mattresses are constructed through the process that will be employed. As there is a great deal of work in constructing a mattress, in most cases it will require a days work for two or three people to complete one mattress. One of the finished mattresses is on display at the county agent's office.

75 LEGIONNAIRES REGISTER IN CITY FOR U.S. DEFENSE

Other Veterans May Register in Veterans Room Here Saturday

Seventy-five former service men in this community have enrolled to date in the national American Legion's voluntary national defense registration, it was announced today.

Other veterans may register any time Saturday with Art Berg in the veterans memorial rooms, while application blanks may also be obtained from Carl Holbrook at Grygla, Owen Olson at Goodridge and Myles Jackson at St. Hilaire.

The present survey of civilian defense functions in modern warfare being made in England by an American Legion mission is directly connected with the voluntary national defense registration of the nation's 1,078,119 Legionnaires, and thousands of unaffiliated World War veterans.

This was the statement of Commander Alex Cloutier of the local Legion post. He added: "The American Legion mission overseas is headed by National Commander Milo J. Warner. He is accompanied by Past National Commander Franklin D'Olier and Major General Frank Parker, U. S. A. retired, a member of the Legion's national executive committee.

"The findings of this mission will frame the pattern of future American Legion home defense activities. What this mission will learn overseas will serve to supplement The American Legion's present efforts with additional plans for civilian defense activities."

14TH DISTRICT BAR GROUP CONDUCTS CROOKSTON CLINIC

H. O. Chommie Reads Paper at Meeting Held in Crookston

Legislation which the Minnesota State Bar association is sponsoring in the present session of the state legislature was reviewed by members of the Fourteenth Judicial District Bar association, meeting in Crookston Saturday for their annual mid-winter clinic, and the district group adopted a resolution setting forth its views on one proposed measure, yet to be introduced.

The measure on which the district bar association took action is one Senator Alfred Solstad of Polk county has been asked to introduce, and which would require judges of the district court to alternate in presiding over the court terms in their respective counties, instead of having one judge hold court in one or more counties regularly, and the other preside over the courts in the balance of the territory.

The district bar association endorsed this procedure, but took exception to one clause in the proposed measure which would require the adjournment of the court if the judge scheduled to preside was unable to do so because of illness. The district association felt that in the interests of justice would be best served by eliminating this clause and permitting a more flexible arrangement for assignment of judges in the event either was temporarily incapacitated by illness.

H. O. Chommie, of Thief River Falls, presented a paper on "Integration of the Bar" in which he outlined the proposal to bring all of Minnesota's approximately 3,900 attorneys within the fold of the bar association, either through legislation or supreme court order. At the present time the state bar association has approximately 1,900 members. The proposal to require membership in the state bar association is made with view to having complete representation of barristers in the organization, so that its actions will be representative of the entire bar instead of only a portion of it.

He flung a small bottle containing some sort of powder, now believed to have been powder used for taking flash pictures, toward the fire and the bottle exploded in mid-air, the flying glass cutting his right thumb nearly off, severely cutting the right side of his face and destroying the sight of his right eye.

HOW BEST TO SAVE OURSELVES

Our senators, Shipstead and Ball, do not agree on the Lease-Lend bill. Shipstead opposes it because he believes it will lead us into war. Ball favors it because he believes it will keep us out of war. There is no good reason why anyone should question the sincerity of either of the gentlemen. Both of them, no doubt, are acting in what they consider to be the best interests of the people they represent.

In this argument we will go along with Senator Ball, believing, as he does, that it is to our best interests to assist the nations that are resisting the aggressors. Without our assistance that resistance will stop and we will stand alone in a world controlled by dictators. To assume that the dictators will then suddenly become men of peace, that they will respect our rights more than they have respected the rights of the Chinese, the Norwegians, the Danes, the Greeks or any of the other nations they have conquered or are seeking to conquer, is, in our opinion, to indulge a vain hope. It is extremely doubtful that we, as a nation, could survive the economic and military pressure of the combined forces of oppression. If we did survive it would be at a terrific cost, far greater than that which we now face in building our own defense and giving assistance to the Democracies that are still fighting.

In a speech delivered this week, outlining his position on the Lease-Lend bill, Senator Shipstead attempted to justify his position by reviewing the records of some of Britain's mistakes. It was an appeal to prejudice that did not add to the Senator's stature as a statesman and it betrayed a lack of understanding of American history that is not to his credit.

Over a period of centuries Britain has had both good and bad governments. British governments have made many mistakes. They probably have committed a few crimes as has our government. We won our war for liberty from an oppressive British government because at the time we fought that war the people of England were on the verge of revolt against that same government and we could not have won that war had we not had friends in England. The British government that favored the South in our Civil War was restrained from participation in the war by the sympathies of the English people who were whole heartedly with the North in the struggle. Slavery flourished in our country many years after the practice had been outlawed in the English possessions.

It is childish to bring into this discussion a review of events that have no bearing on the present situation. The problem which we face today is a condition of the present. What happened twenty years ago or a hundred years ago is not material.

The issues are clear. A group of dictators have declared that they are going to re-make the world. They have presented us with an outline of their plans. Without consideration for the rights of independent nations, they have started their program of conquest. By force and by the threat of force they have foisted their will upon a dozen nations. The wars which they are conducting now extend over three continents.

Our people are unalterably opposed to their program. We are almost unanimous in our belief that we must build strong defenses to protect ourselves from them and that eventually, if they are victorious elsewhere, we will have to fight. On that proposition there is little difference of opinion.

The difference of opinion arises out of the question as to whether or not it is to our best interests to give support now to the nations that are still resisting them. It is not a question of whether or not we should save England or Norway or Greece. It is a question of how best to save ourselves.

It is a question on which good citizens may, in the best of faith and in all sincerity, disagree. At this stage of the argument there is no occasion for questioning motives.

As we see it, our safest and least expensive course is to add as much as possible to the difficulties of the dictators at the present time by giving necessary supplies to the nations that are resisting them. There is little hope for a defeat of the dictators but there is reason to hope that continued resistance may result in a stalemate that will make possible a more just peace, a peace in which independent nations may have a voice.

7310 AIDS TO FREEDOM

(Wheaton Gazette)

The U. S. census finds that in 1939 there was a total of 7310 newspaper establishments whose dollar volume of business exceeded $5000 in operation in the U. S. These establishments give employment to 63,399 salaried workers and 97,251 wage earners.

As long as the United States has nearly 8000 free and independent newspapers which can and do enjoy the freedom of expression guaranteed in our constitution, there is little danger of our nation losing its freedom.

One of the first steps in putting Russia, Germany and Italy under the control of single agencies was the suppression of "freedom of the press." He who controls the sources of information to the people controls their thinking.

No country can be free which is not informed by agencies not under government control. The greatest bulwark to our liberties is the free and uncensored press of America.

THE DIFFERENCE IT WOULD MAKE

(Long Prairie Leader)

A correspondent writes us to ask what difference it makes to the United States whether Hitler or England wins the war. The difference is this—

If Hitler wins, the United States must immediately become a military nation, supporting a large standing army and spending huge tax supported appropriations for war equipment, ships and airplanes. Our conscription law now temporary in operation would become permanent so that each year millions of young Americans would take military training in order for the country to have a defense army. If Hitler wins, our entire national life would be changed because we would live in a new world dominated in large part by dictators who would always be a potential threat to our peace and security.

If England wins, the threat of dictatorial menace would immediately be removed. We could repeal our conscription law. We could cease our enormous expenditures for military preparedness. We would need no large standing army, big navy or huge airplane force.

In other words, if Hitler wins, we are in for long years of uncertainty as to our national security which would force constant military preparation at enormous cost. If England wins, we can continue our present mode of living and subordinate the war defense effort to the ways of peace.

W. F. Schilling, who always has an eagle eye out for the interests of the dairy farmer, is opposed to the bill introduced in the legislature to double the legal butterfat content of ice cream. Bill says that the ice cream would cost more and would be so rich that if a customer ate one helping he would not want another very soon; that the plan has been tried out in several states and found to work against the consumption of the product. In these days of "reducing" it certainly would put ice cream on the socially taboo list.—Morris Tribune.

"She testified that her husband threw an ash tray at her in November, 1940, and struck her in January."—From a news story. She'll get no sympathy from us—with all that time to dodge.—Minneapolis Tribune.

Looking Backward

1931—TEN YEARS AGO

John Scholin was elected president of the Pennington County Taxpayers Economy league.—The annual report of City Clerk P. G. Pederson revealed that the city had total liabilities of $423,437 on December 31, 1930.—H. C. Hand, former Lincoln high school principal, is now on the faculty of the teachers college of Columbia University, New York.—Mrs. A. M. Smith arrived from Minneapolis to join her husband, Dr. Smith, who is practicing here.—T. A. Way, former local real estate man, was appointed highway commissioner for the state of Iowa.

1921—TWENTY YEARS AGO

M. L. Swanson disposed of his bakery to A. Dahl & Sons of St. Paul.—Legal action was being taken to delay the city's paving program.—A twelve-piece concert orchestra was organized under the direction of Dr. P. L. Vistaunet.—The winter lyceum course came to a close with a lecture by Strickland Gillilan, poet and humorist.—The Carl Christofferson grocery was moved to a new location on Third st., across from the Evelyn hotel.—Cal Farley, champion welterweight wrestler, appeared in a match in the Lyceum theatre.

Mill City Group Opposes Red Lake Bombing Area

The Minneapolis chapter of the Izaak Walton league is opposed to use of Beltrami Pine Island, an area north of Red Lake for bombing practice by the United States army, the league notified General Ellard A. Walsh, state adjutant general. Reason for the chapter's action is that the area, comprising about 2,000,000 acres, is the only section in the United States inhabited by five big game species, elk, moose, caribou, deer and bear.

Volume of Savings and Loan Business Rises

Continued heavy demands of the public for home-financing funds gave insured savings and loan associations in Minnesota a busy January, with 498 loans granted for a total amount of $1,035,960, it was reported today by Nugent Fallon, general manager of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance corporation. These figures compared with 315 loans amounting to $860,264 in January, 1940. Savings of the public totaling $1,257,250 came into the associations for investment during the past month. The total of such thrift funds of shareholders in these institutions is now $41,493,000.

One of life's disappointments is to come face to face with a man of fame and find that he looks about like everybody else.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor Times:

The Pennington County taxpayers association discussed the high cost of brush cutting along the roads in recent years. Yes, it might be expensive for the county but it also is expensive for a large number of farmers. Some of the farmers get a job of cutting, as many as nine miles of weed cutting at 60c an hour for man and team. Nice job.

And this weed cutting comes in just at a time when threshing is in full swing. I happen to do some custom threshing and what I have learned from this is that all weed and brush cutting should not start until the third Monday in September. Then about all the threshing is finished. As it looks now most of the boys on the farms will be in camp by next fall which will make it more necessary than ever to get this work organized on a more sensible schedule.

Talk this over at your township meetings and let the honorable county commissioners know how you feel about it. I'm sure they will co-operate and also Mr. Erickson, our county engineer.

S. N. Olson,
R. R. No. 5

To the Editor Times:

The writer is a taxpayer in Pennington County and want to thank you for calling attention to the County Commissioners salary increase bill. Looks as if the county board tried to slip this over before the people could find out, but it was a good thing the Taxpayers Association found out.

The county commissioners are well paid now. They get paid extra for all committee meetings, and their salary runs up quite a bit for the year. If they would stay home, and not meet all the time their salary would be plenty without increase.

Some of them want to run round all the time and dig up relief and old age cases, just like a business. Hope all taxpayers write their Senator and Melby and Day against this salary increase for the commissioners. Our taxes are plenty high now, and the commissioners have increased the tax rate every year for the last 10 or 15 years. If you keep your eyes open and see what is going on, then you will not want salary increases for the commissioners.

Yours truly
John P. Erickson.

Ewes and Lambs Respond to Extra Care in Spring

Care of ewes and new-crop lambs during the next few weeks will have an important bearing on profit or loss in this year's sheep raising operations, says W. E. Morris, extension animal husbandman at University Farm. Losses can frequently be headed off by proper care of the flock prior to lambing time.

Ewes should be gaining in weight as lambing nears. Thrifty animals with plenty of good legume hay during the winter months will not require grain until a few weeks before lambs are born. However, the ewes will be stronger and they will milk better if fed a pound of grain per day for about a month before lambing and immediately after until they can be placed on grass. Plenty of clean water is also important.

Adequate exercise is necessary during the pregnancy period. Hay fed in racks or corn bundles fed some distance from the barn provide the necessary incentive to make sheep move around.

Succeeds Warren Man as Hardware Group Head

The Minnesota retail hardware association elected J. A. Moren of St. Paul president, succeeding F. C. Larson of Warren, at its annual convention in St. Paul late last week. L. A. Luedtke of Fairmont, chairman of the resolutions committee, was named vice-president and Philip Anderson of Staples, new board member.

TWIN BROTHER IS FIVE DAYS OLDER THAN SISTER

Pillager—An unusual birth occurred on the R. C. Cadway farm northwest of Pillager recently when a very proud 2-year old heifer gave birth to twin calves, the male twin, however, arriving five days before its sister, which was born on January 20. A five-day spread between calves is a very rare occurrence. Both are well and healthy and look very much alike.

SMALL CALF WEIGHS ONLY TEN POUNDS

Milaca—Bernard Drabant, two and one half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Drabant of Milaca, is the proud owner of a tiny black calf, believed to be the smallest born in the Milaca vicinity for some time. The little heifer is only 19 inches high and two feet long and weighed only ten pounds at birth. Bernard has named the calf "Dorothy".

A Bit of a Vacation

A couple of flu germs got hold of me, knocked me down, walked all over me, and laid me on the shelf for a couple of weeks. For amusement I had an electric pad on my feet and an ice-bag on my head. Some fun, believe me.

I am sorry that I had to miss the excitement of that 16 to 15 overtime game that the Thieves won from the Crookston Pirates. The fans are still talking about that one.

And I'm sorry too, that I missed Eddie Flanck's 'Corrigan' basket in the Roseau game, when he dropped a field goal into the wrong net. I had a conference with Eddie on that, and here's his explanation: "Well", he said, "I guess I was nervous that night. You see it was the third day before Valentine's Day, and I always get nervous around Valentine's Day." That's Eddie's explanation, but why didn't Johnny Parbst get nervous too, for from what I hear Spanky has as much cause as Eddie to be nervous around Valentine's Day!

League's Leading Scorer

Paul Kornek, scoring 54 goals and getting 22 assists, for 76 points, nosed out Crookston's Chet LeDoux to win the individual scoring honors in the States-Dominion hockey league. LeDoux registered 49 goals and 25 assists for 74 points, to trail Paul by 2 points. Other high scorers in the league were Bob Allen, Crookston, 32 goals, 38 assists, 70 points; Eddie McMillan, Thief River, 36 goals, 29 assists, 65 points; George Beverly, Thief River, 30 goals, 24 assists, 54 points; Joe Popiel, Thieves, 23 goals, 28 assists, 51 points; Freddy Gustafson, Thief River, 37 goals, 11 assists, 48 points; Clayton Taylor, Crookston, 23 goals, 19 assists, 42 points; Al Nehring, Fargo, 22 goals, 19 assists, 41 points; Ted Prock, Grafton, 16 goals, 21 assists, 37 points; Bill Sutherland, Grafton, 24 goals, 12 assists, 36 points; Eddie Beaulieu, Grafton, 27 goals, 9 assists, 36 points.

Kornek who was the league's 'bad' man last year, just missed retaining that dubious honor this year. Paul spent 62 minutes in the penalty box, while Grafton's Jerry Hebert had 66 minutes in the cooler.

The Wallies Have It

A couple of weeks ago Wallace Wally DuChamp, bowling with the Grain Belts, racked up a 671 total to set a city bowling league record. But that mark was short-lived for last Thursday night the Pharmacy's Wallace Wally Carlson scattered the pins for 680 total, having games of 210, 224, and 245. Wally C. had 21 strikes during his evening's spree, and they were pretty expensive strikes for the other four members of the Pharmacy team. You see, the Pharmacy has entered the A. B. C.—they'll bowl on March 15th and 16th—and to defray expenses and entry fees they have set up a 'painless' self-taxing system whereby each bowler puts a nickle in the pool whenever a team member rolls a 'turkey', and nickle for each strike added to the triple. Well it cost Rolf Wollan a buck that night, and Ed Carlson 95 cents, Walt Ekeren 85 cents, and Frank Koblisko 80 cents.

He Means Business

John Saul, owner of the Fargo-Moorhead hockey team, apparently meant business when he said that he would have real hockey club on the ice next year. In preparation for next season he has signed Hodge Johnson—a former National league and Association hockey player, who played here last year as a member of the St. Paul club—to the Comets, with the understanding that he is to manage and coach the club next year. And Saul has arranged an agreement with the Omaha club of the American Association, whereby the Comets will get the first choice of the players that are not fast enough for A. A. hockey.

But Saul may lose his young goalie, Earl Tripp. Shorty, who's a graduate of the local junior team the Hornets, has signed a contract with the Omaha Knights, and will report to Lyle Wright's club early next fall, for a try-out. Saul expects, though, that Shorty will be returned to the Comets for further seasoning and experience. Well, it's a nice break for Shorty.

By the way, this Hodge Johnson, who looks much older because of his baldness, is only 29 years old. Hodge, or Harold, was born in Eveleth in 1911.

Beautiful Quezal

A quezal or quetzal is one of the most beautiful of birds, inhabiting the mountains of Central America. Its body is about the size of a turtle dove and the plumes of the tail are golden-green, often measuring 2½ feet. Before the Spanish conquest these plumes were only allowed to be worn by chiefs. The rest of the plumage is green above and scarlet below and the eggs are pale bluish green. The females have short tails.

SWAP VALENTINES FOR 32ND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Duluth—Appropriately on St. Valentines Day, Mrs. George E. Daniels of Duluth and Mrs. Marie M. Schwartz of Chicago, sisters, received greeting cards from each other. The unusual part however, is that these same identical cards have shuttled back and forth in the mails yearly for the past 32 years. In 1909 the two sisters bought the cards and agreed to send them to each other wherever they lived as long as both should live, and the pact has never yet been broken. The cards have been sent by ordinary mail, registered, special delivery, airmail, and special delivery and airmail combined, and it is estimated the combined mileage of the greetings totals well over 50,000 miles.

SO. ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK

South St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 25, 1941: Last week's closing decline in slaughter cattle prices was only a forerunner of further downward turns this week. During the first two days of the current week slaughter steer prices have dropped another 25c and some sales compared with a week ago are as much as 50c lower, with the general market 25c down. Tuesday's trade, according to the Federal State Market News Service, failed to develop any activity. Both the heifer and cow classes also sharing the weakness in steers. Bulls turned easier and traders sold generally 50c lower. Stockers and feeders found outlet narrow and prices favored the weak side. Vealers were mostly 50c lower, with the extreme [illegible] on the close $12.50, after a few strictly choice vealers brought $13.00 early on Kosher account. The week's top on slaughter steers was $11.25 for some choice 1140 lb weights.

Expanded supplies at the local hog yards failed to depress values on the week's early sessions, and instead Tuesday's prices were steady to 5c higher compared with late last week. A top of $7.45 was paid sparingly on Tuesday for good and choice 180-240 lb barrows and gilts, while the bulk of these weights cashed at $7.00-7.45. Most similar grades 240-270 lb. offerings brought $7.15-7.40, while 270-300 lb. kinds made $7.00-7.25, and [illegible] lb. weights sold at $6.85-7.10. Light lights were strong with [illegible] Friday, good and choice [illegible] averages bringing $6.75-7.25, and [illegible] lb. hogs clearing at $7.15-7.45. Sows were steady at $6.25-6.75.

Present fat lamb prices are largely 25c under last Friday, with instances of 50c downturns. Buyers were successful Monday in continuing the weakness which has settled on the price structure. Slight strength was noted on slaughter sheep, especially fed ewes, and shearing lambs responded with a stronger tone. After establishing the year's high mark of $10.50 last Thursday, the peak price so far this week has rested at $10.25. Majority of the good to choice fed lambs sold within the range of $10.25-10.35. Choice 110-122 lb western slaughter ewes scored $5.50. The season's best price for shearing lambs was paid Tuesday at $10.35 for a load of 81 lb. averages.

THIEVES TAKE FIRST BLOOD IN LOOP PLAYOFF

Defeat Fargo-Moorhead in First Tilt by Score of 9 to 5

SECOND GAME SET FOR FARGO THIS EVENING

Final Round May Get Under Way in Local Arena Next Sunday

With their center-ice man, stocky Paul Kornek, the league's leading scorer, breaking loose on a five goal scoring rampage, and with George Beverly adding a couple of tallies, and single counters by Del Hovle and Eddie McMillan, the Thief River Falls Thieves, by a 9 to 5 score, defeated the Fargo-Moorhead Comets in a States-Dominion hockey league playoff game played here last Tuesday night. The two teams play the second game of the series at Fargo tonight, with the Comets needing a victory to remain in the play-offs.

In a game played at Grafton Tuesday night the Crookston Pirates upset the Grafton club, 7 to 5, to win the first game of their play-off series. If the Pirates defeat Grafton in the game being played at Crookston tonight, and if the Thieves take the measure of the Comets, the Pirates and the Thieves will meet here Sunday in the first game of the finals. If the Comets upset the Thieves tonight the third and final game of their series will be played here Sunday.

Last Tuesday night's game saw the league champion Thieves at the peak of their play. Al Nehring's score, on an assist from Ray Wallace, gave the Comets an early lead; but the Thieves, spear-headed by Paul Kornek, rammed in four goals to have a 4 to 1 lead at the end of the first period. It was fine combination play of the locals that set up three plays, with their passes carrying to the goal mouth so that the Comets' young goalie, Earl Tripp, did not have a chance to make the saves.

Each team marked up a tally in the second period, Beverly beating Tripp on a high hard drive from the blue-line, and Hodge Johnson taking a pass from Howie Lee to score for Fargo. Rapid-fire goals in the final period, by Johnson and Lee, brought the Comets to within one goal of the Thieves; but then the locals stepped away from the Dakotans, with Paul Kornek getting three goals and Del Hovle registering his first goal of the season.

The summary of Tuesday night's game:
Thief River (9) Fargo-Moorhead (5)
Bresson ......goal...... E. Tripp
Beverly ......defense...... Wallace
Gustafson ......defense...... Davis

McMillan ......wing...... Johnson

The Thieves concluded their regular hockey schedule this week, winning two games and dropping one decision, to give them a season's record of 24 wins and only 6 losses, for one of the best won-and-lost marks ever compiled in the States-Dominion hockey league.

On Thursday night, playing at Fargo, the Thieves, on three goals by Paul Kornek and two goals by Eddie McMillan, built up a 5 to 0 lead at the end of the second period, and then went on to coast in to a 7 to 4 win over the Comets. The Comets counted four goals in the final period, while Beverly and McMillan registered for the Thieves.

Playing here last Saturday night the locals dropped a 7 to 4 decision to the Grafton Millionaires. The Thieves jumped into an early lead on goals by Paul Kornek and Beverly, but the Millionaires, passing smoothly and setting up their plays smartly, pumped in four tallies before the period ended, getting two of these markers while McMillan was in the penalty box. Grafton continued their aggressive play into the remaining two periods, scoring two goals in the second period, while Beverly was scoring on a back-handed shot for the locals; and counting one tally in the final period, on a goal by Hebert, with Beverly getting his third goal for the Thieves.

Returning to Grafton on Sunday for the final game on the seasons schedule, the Thieves outskated and outmaneuvered the Millionaires to win an easy 8 to 4 victory. Playing cleverly and taking advantage of Grafton misplays the locals controlled the play during much of the game. Freddy Gustafson, on a 'breakaway' scored the game's first goal, outskating the Grafton defense to beat goalie McNally. Early in the second period Paul Kornek intercepted a Grafton pass in front of the Millionaire nets and punched home a goal, and a minute later Joe Popiel, the Thieves right wing, scored the first of his four goals, flipping in Beverly's rebound. The Thieves scored three goals in less than a minute in the final period, to put the game on ice. Popiel rammed in two goals, one on a pass interception and the other on Kornek's rebound, and Gustafson tallied on an unassisted goal.

CROOKSTON QUINT MEETS PROWLERS HERE TOMORROW

Locals to Seek Revenge for Defeat Suffered Earlier This Season

With the Crookston Pirates playing here Friday in an important district game, the Prowlers are primed to avenge themselves for the 23 to 22 defeat they received at Crookston some weeks ago.

The Prowlers defeated a fast-breaking Cass Lake team, by a 30 to 23 score, in an inter-district basketball game played here last Friday night. Both teams played fine floor games, but were spotty in their basket shooting, missing numerous chances at the hoop on close-up shots.

The locals racked up the first point when Orrin Pederson counted a free throw, and Johnny Parbet followed with a field goal, on a dribble in shot. Lee Richmond, Cass Lake's fast-stepping guard, scored the Indians first point, on a free throw. Eddie Flasch looped in a one-handed shot from side court; and then broke up a Cass Lake play in mid-court, recovered the ball and dribbled in for a field goal. Richmond marked up the final points of the period when he dropped in field goal, with the score reading: Prowlers 7, Cass Lake 3.

Doug Fairbanks opened the second period with a Cass Lake field goal; and when Richmond converted on a two shot foul, the score was knotted at 7-all. Russ Garnes, on a pivot shot, sent the Prowlers into a two point lead; and added a point when he flipped in a free throw. Sam Long, Cass Lakes center, drove in for a push-up shot. Jimmy Conner, who played a splendid game for the Prowlers, dumped in a field goal, and then chalked up a free toss, to give the locals a four point lead. Babe Peterson lifted a long shot into the net. Doug Fairbanks tossed in a Cass Lake free throw. Johnny Parbet popped in two field baskets, scoring on a scramble under the basket and then driving in for the other goal, to give the Prowlers a 19 to 10 lead at half-time.

Two difficult side-angle shots, by John Reuter and Doug Fairbanks, and a close-in shot by Long, cut the Prowler lead to three points as the second half opened. Jimmy Conner scored Thief River's first points of the second half, on a field goal. Garnes, picking off a rebound, tossed in a field basket. Eddie Flasch intercepted a Cass Lake pass and dribbled in for a push-up shot; and followed a moment later with another dribble-in shot, and the Prowler lead was 11 points. Roy Hanson scored two Cass Lake points, on free throws, as the period ended with the locals holding a 27 to 18 lead.

Garnes opened the final period's scoring, counting a free throw on Jack Fairbanks technical foul. Hanson marked up a Cass Lake free throw. Lenny Lorentson, on a side shot, tossed in a Prowler field goal; Richmond lifted in a field goal, from the side-lines; and Doug Fairbanks, on a long shot, scored the game's final points, with the score being Thief River Falls, 30, Cass Lake 23.

In a preliminary game the Prowler reserves, led by Lincoln Carlson and 'Gus' Paulson who scored six and nine points, respectively, trounced Merle Carlson's F. F. A. team, 33 to 13.

RURAL YOUTH UNIT MAKES PROGRESS IN PAST MONTHS

Outgrowth of 4-H Movement Conducts Interesting Programs

The Pennington County rural youth organization, formed last fall, has been making progress this winter and has conducted an interesting program. The organization consists of a group of older 4-H members, and young people just past 4-H club age.

The organization has followed the plan of carrying out a special project at each meeting. Two of the girls and two of the boys have each month attended a district training meeting at Red Lake Falls, along with Mrs. V. C. Noper, advisor to the girls, and the county agent, and have led the discussions at the local meeting.

The ladies and the men have followed the plan of discussing different topics and holding separate discussions. The ladies have been learning the technique of making leather gloves and mittens, along with discussions on wardrobe problems. Each lady has been working on a pair of suede gloves. The boys have had a series of meetings on farm machinery. Two of the meetings were held at Gustafson's machine shop, where demonstrations were given showing adjustments on mowers, binders, and plows. Discussions were conducted on new developments and more effective use of farm machinery, efficient use of power on the farm, and the cost of power and machinery.

East Grand Forks Liquor Shipments are Traced to Company in Minneapolis

Polk county is dry and East Grand Forks is in it and for the second time that combination had the Skelly Sales, Inc., on the carpet of State Liquor Commissioner J. Norman Peterson.

Confiscation of a truckload of liquor at East Grand Forks recently led to an order to the company, doing business as the Cedar Avenue Liquor Store, Minneapolis, to show cause why its license should not be revoked or suspended. Peterson said a similar charge involved the firm in December, 1939, but a 60-day suspension was cut to 15 days after a promise to cease shipments to the dry territory had been given.

Peterson has ordered a hearing for March 3.

TECHNOCRACY TO BE TOPIC OF MEETING HERE MARCH 5

Technocracy is the subject slated for discussion at a meeting in the Odd Fellows hall in this city next Wednesday evening, March 5, at 8 o'clock. A similar meeting will be held in the Grygla hall Thursday, March 6.

Bud Brandon Writes of California Army Camp

First word of the experiences of the group of volunteers who recently left Thief River Falls for a year's service in the U. S. Army is contained in the following interesting letter received this week by the Times from Private O. W. Brandon, now stationed at Fort Ord in California. His letter follows.

January 22nd was an eventful day in the lives of seven Pennington county young men. On that date these seven young men were sworn into the United States Army. Although we left Thief River with eight men, we lost one at Fort Snelling because of physical disabilities.

The night of January 27th saw us, along with 350 others board a troop train at Fort Snelling. We were off for the climes of sunny (?) California where we were to become members of the 1st Medical Regiment of the 4th Army.

With the dawn of February 1st, many of us saw California for the first time. At eight o'clock that morning we were taken off of the train and transported by trucks to what is to be our home for at least the next year.

We are at Fort Ord, located midway between flourishing Salinas and historic Monterey. Also stationed at this garrison are the 13th Engineers, the 17th Infantry, the 76th Field Artillery, and the 75th Coast Artillery making a sum total of about 32,000 men at this post.

Our day begins at 6:30 A. M. at which time reveille is blown and we are forced to get out of bed. Breakfast is served at 7:00 after which we spend time in cleaning our barracks and seeing that everything is in order for the rest of the day. At 7:45 we fall out for 15 minutes of calisthenics designed to give us big muscles and strong backs. At 8:00 we go out for three solid hours of drill. Squads left, squads right, right front into line. We go to bed saying these and many more commands in our sleep. At 11:00 we come in and get ready for dinner. After dinner we get more drill. This time we drill from 1:00 to 4:00. At 5:00 we stand retreat and then go to supper. The rest of the time until 6:30 the next morning we have to ourselves. Most of this time is spent in sleep.

You fellows in Thief River Falls that are coming into the Army are in for quite a surprise. The $21 a month that you get for the first four months is not clear profit as you expect. First of all, $2.40 is deducted for laundry. Next you must pay for your cleaning and pressing. Your uniforms must always be cleaned and pressed. Already my cleaning bill is $4.75. Next your uniforms do not fit you when you get them and you must pay for the altering out of your pay check. When you finally get paid you will wind up with about $5.00. That is if you are lucky.

You can say what you wish about the sunny California weather but about every day that we have been here it has done nothing but rain. And it is not just a light drizzle. It is like a July shower coupled with a cold wind.

One of the greatest pleasures is to receive the home town paper and the Times is no exception. Every item is read and reread. I am willing to bet that I could even quote some of the want ads and the advertisements. Getting the paper is like getting a letter from home and every one looks forward to the day when they get their paper.

Life in the barracks is one of cooperation and good fellowship. Every one does his bit towards keeping it clean and there is no welshing or shirking on the part of any of the men living in the barracks. If we learn nothing but this cooperation in the army we can safely say that our time was not wasted.

Most of the personnel in the First Medical Regiment came from the East. With the exception of the 350 odd men that came from Fort Snelling, the rest are from Penn. and New York. I wouldn't be a bit surprised if we all came out of here with a slow eastern drawl.

I think that I had better save some of this energy for drilling tomorrow. I hope that this throws a little light on Army life and will try to send more news later on.

Bud Brandon.

IN THE STATE SENATE

By Senator E. L. Tungseth

So far the State Senate has been proceeding in a very quiet fashion and while considerable work has been done, there has been little noise in connection with it. The first splurge of oratory and debate came a couple of weeks ago on the motion to print the report of the Interim Investigation Committee. This committee has been active during and since our last session. The commission claims to have saved for the state approximately a quarter of a million dollars when all payments have been collected.

There was no legitimate reason why this report should not be printed. In fact, not only the legislature but the public as well is entitled to have access to the work accomplished by this Interim Commission. But this motion afforded about the only opportunity for the opposition to express themselves relative to the work done by this commission. The criticism was not directed mainly at what work this Interim Investigating Commission had done, but rather at what it had not done. Statements were made relative to several instances which some claimed should have been investigated, but which had been for some reason or other ignored.

To what extent these accusations are correct, it is impossible to determine without bringing these cases to trial. Senator Lommen criticized "emergency" purchases of uniform material for the home defense forces last November. He also criticized the purchases made by the Highway Department, claiming that the department had paid $85.00 an acre for right-of-way land in the Northern part of the state, for which an International Falls attorney had paid $1.50 per acre. He also claimed that a certain Richard Farrell had sold a parcel of land consisting of one third of an acre for $900.00 to the Highway Department.

Senator Carley, a member of the Investigating commission, also offered several criticisms, but after a few hours of oratory and debate the motion to print the report was almost unanimously adopted. I trust that this commission has at least accomplished this purpose that men in public positions of trust may realize that they cannot continue to get by with fraud and questionable practices. There is no doubt in my mind that an investigation was in order. It does not necessarily prove that men of one party are better or worse than men of another party. It all comes down to the final factor that no party can survive without conscientious and capable men in positions of leadership.

The investigation with its regular court trials have been instrumental in bringing some of the guilty to the Bar of Justice. I cannot, however, entertain any political party glee. The results do not whitewash one party and smear another. Political racketeers have from time to time found their way into any party which has had control of government. The Farmer-Labor party has held the reigns of political power in our state for eight years. The people then decided that a change would be healthy. Eight years before the same electorate determined that it would be healthy to unseat the Republican party. So may this investigation and the facts which are in the background impress its solemn lesson that the people of our state want conscientious as well as capable men to serve them in government, and, that when any political party thinks more of its purse-strings than of the people, the people will soon find it out and effect a change.

It costs you money every time you don't read these want ads.

The modern woman's fondest wish is to be weighed and found wanting.

Gibraltar, though a bit wobbly, still seems to be regarded as a good insurance ad.

It's too bad that, while some folks are praying, others are preying.

The fellow who brags is one that thinks that the whistle is all there is to an engine.

The annual stockholders meeting of the Grygla Co-operative creamery met at the R. N. W. hall on Monday afternoon. The meeting was opened by the president, Severt Askeland, after which the minutes of the last annual meeting were read by Mrs. Adolph Erickson. The statement of operation was read and explained by Fred Wengeler, office manager of the Land O'Lakes plant at Thief River Falls. One of the most interesting facts brought out in this report was that the Grygla creamery is out of debt, having on the last day of the old year paid a mortgage held by a Twin City Banking Firm. This mortgage amounted to several thousand dollars and had been given at the time of the construction of the new creamery. An impressive ceremony was witnessed when the president assisted by Mrs. Ericksen burned this mortgage. According to the statement of operation, 107,078 lbs of sweet cream were received by the creamery in 1940, showing an increase of 28,047.0 lbs. over 1939. This statement show an unusual improvement in the cream brought in by patrons over previous years. Likewise 42,836 more pounds of sweet cream butter were shipped in 1940 than in 1939. The creamery showed a very high percent of overrun, 21.54%, the increase over 1939 being .23%, this overrun is unusually close to the 24% which is the highest percentage which can be achieved by a Land O'Lakes creamery. Mr. Wengeler also called attention to the low operating cost of the creamery during the past year, stating that among 30 reports which he had seen this creamery had one of the lowest figures on operating cost.

John Lager, the Land O'Lakes fieldman of this district followed the report with an interesting talk in which he complimented the stockholders and directors on their good record, commenting on the creamery being out of debt. He also commended the patrons of the creamery as well as the operator and assistant for increasing the production of sweet cream butter so much in the last year. Mr. Lager closed his talk by urging everyone to attend the district meeting at Thief River Falls in the near future. Martin Sandemark was chosen delegate to attend the district meeting at Thief River Falls and Alfred Rasmusson will represent Grygla at the meeting of the Land O'Lakes at Minneapolis.

A long discussion followed on the possibility of constructing meat lockers in the local creamery. It was decided that the board of directors will appoint a committee of five stockholders to investigate the situation and if they find that there is enough favorable opinion on the matter they will make a report at the annual meeting of the Grygla Co-operative store some time next month.

There were ten nominees for three vacancies on the board of directors and the stockholders voted by ballot. Severt Askeland, Arthur Norby and Sam Anderson were re-elected to serve on the board which will at a later date choose its officers. The Valle Ladies aid served free coffee and lunch to everyone present at the meeting.

Bowling Alley to Open Soon

Oscar Cerny of Thief River Falls, who is the proprietor of the Mint in that city, has completed arrangements to open a bowling alley here in the near future. L. A. Dalos will be the manager of the local bowling-alley which will be located in the Dalos building. Carpenters began work Monday to renovate the interior of the building and Mr. Dalos states that he expects that the new place of recreation will be open for business in about two weeks.

Prospective Girl Scouts Prepare

Eleven young girls who desire to become members of the local Girl Scout Troop, which is being organized, met at the C. M. Lunde home last Friday evening with Mrs. Lunde, Mrs. Henry Holte and Mrs. Elmer Hylland for the purpose of preparing for the Tenderfoot test. The girls were instructed in the laws, and they learned "The Promise" and the motto of the organization. A leader and two lieutenants will be selected soon and a full-fledged Girl Scout Troop will soon became a reality. Their studies completed the girls spent the remainder of the evening playing games after which Mrs. Lunde served a delicious lunch. Those present were Marjorie and Marion Bush, Jean Holbrook, Inger Nygaard, Violet Magnuson, Leona Moore, Arlone Peterson, Jeannette Blaine, Phyllis Teigland, Jean Buchola and Joyce Johnson.

P. T. A. Party

The male members of the P. T. A. have been very busy planning a party to be given at the school auditorium on Friday evening, February 28. The whole affair is very mystifying as the gentlemen are very reluctant to give any information. However, the reporter did manage to interview one of the leading promoters of the party and he emphasized the fact that the purpose is to replenish the P. T. A. treasury, so that an admission of 5c will be charged and after you are admitted—well, you can buy a great many thrills for 25c. A lunch planned and served by the stronger sex, exclusive, is another attraction. But come and see for yourself, everyone is invited to attend.

Howard received several gifts.

Mrs. F. A. Brown Entertains

The members of the Friendly Neighbor circle were entertained at the F. A. Brown home last Thursday evening. The entertainment, which had been planned by Clara Lillevold and Ruth Hayes Bakke, began with two written contests which were won by Mary Maney and Mrs. Robert Thorson. The main event of the evening came when with much pomp and ceremony four new members were admitted to the circle. The new members, Mary Maney, Ruth Hayes Bakke, Mrs. John Johnson and Mrs. L. A. Knight, then submitted to several amusing initiation stunts. The remainder of the evening was devoted to the playing of Pinochle and whist after which the hostess served a very lovely lunch.

So that farmers and other shippers can continue to take dependable railroad service "for granted," the Great Northern has invested nearly twelve million dollars in 4,000 new box cars during the last two years. The picture shows a train of the new cars leaving the Twin Cities for the West.

Anything, Anywhere, Any Time

Railroads haul anything and everything. They are not "choosey" about their traffic.

Railroads haul anything anywhere—over long distances and short, over mountains and across plains.

Railroads haul anything anywhere any time—in winter as in summer, in storm and in flood, using their own resources to keep the steel roadways open.

Railroads haul anything, anywhere, any time for anybody—on terms alike and known to all.

Railroads do the essential, universal, low-cost job of mass transportation which no other form of transportation can even attempt to do.

No other form of transportation—nor all of them together—can even begin to meet the needs of American agriculture and industry, commerce and defense.

The ability of the railroads to furnish these essential services with ever-increasing efficiency and at the lowest possible charge to you, depends on volume of traffic and on the cost to the railroads of "manufacturing" railroad transportation.

Sound public policy obviously requires that no unnecessary costs, wasteful practices, nor inefficiency should be imposed upon the railroads through laws or regulations, and that traffic should not be diverted from the railroads to other forms of transportation through purely artificial devices, such as subsidies, unequal regulation and unequal taxation.

STATE HIGH COURT RULES ROAD FUNDS CAN'T BE DIVERTED

Decision Will Require Legislature to Raise More Money

The state supreme court Friday blasted a big chip off the 1939 state reorganization act by holding unconstitutional a provision levying a five per cent assessment on state highway funds to pay for administrative highway work in other departments.

The five-to-two decision reversed a ruling by Ramsey county District Judge Carlton McNally and tossed into the legislature's lap the problem of finding about $640,000 a year to make up the outlawed assessments.

The Minnesota constitution, said the high courts majority ruling, "in establishing a 'highway fund', requires that it be used 'solely' for highway purposes. Hence (the reorganization act provision) imposing upon that fund a charge to be used to defray the general costs of government, is by that much unconstitutional."

The contested section of the law imposed the five per cent levy on highway funds to help pay for the services rendered to the highway department by the governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, department of administration, public examiner, courts and legislature.

New Book Prepared on Minnesota Fish Life

"Fishes of Minnesota" by Thaddeus Surber and Samuel Eddy, a complete catalog of Minnesota fishes together with photographs of all species native to the state is written and awaits publication by the department of conservation. Dr. Eddy is associate professor of zoology, University of Minnesota, and Dr. Surber is consultant with the department of conservation.

State Taxpayers Group Urges Legislature to Curtail Expenditures

A bird's-eye view of Minnesota taxes, with a demand that state and local governments face the facts of increased defense costs by economizing at home wherever they can, was presented to the state legislature in St. Paul this week by the Minnesota Taxpayers association.

The association distributed a booklet to legislators which shows how taxes and debt have grown and urges that all units of government in the state be put on a cash basis plan as speedily as possible.

There are 28 chapters in the book dealing with such problems as state costs; relief and welfare; real estate taxes; public debts; school data; deductions from the census; highway costs; rural land zoning; grants in aid; rural credits; and other important state problems.

The Minnesota Taxpayers association points out in the legislative booklet that: "Federal taxation, because of the national emergency, must of necessity take precedence over any purely state programs that can be postponed. This lays down a challenge to Minnesota as well as to every other state. Minnesota must meet this challenge to common sense by reducing taxes in every way that can be devised. Once the practice of economy was desirable; but in these uncertain days it becomes an absolute necessity, and there is no alternative."

DEAN W. C. COFFEY TO BE ACTING HEAD OF MINNESOTA 'U'

Appointed by Regents after New York Man Declines Position

Dr. Walter C. Coffey, dean of the department of agriculture at the University of Minnesota last Thursday was elected acting president of the school, effective July 1.

Dr. Coffey will succeed Dr. Guy Stanton Ford, who will retire June 30 after reaching the age limit of 68.

The University board of regents selected Dr. Coffey at a special meeting after word had been received from Dr. William H. Cowley, president of Hamilton college, Clinton, N. Y., that he had declined an offer to head the Gopher school.

Dr. Cowley, who conferred with the regents here recently, said at Clinton that he had "come to the conclusion that I must remain at Hamilton and carry through to completion the involved projects which I have begun here."

Minnesota officials obviously were disappointed when Dr. Cowley's message arrived, but the only formal comment was a statement issued by the regents saying:

"The regents of the University of Minnesota are happy to announce that they have asked Dr. Walter C. Coffey, dean of the department of agriculture for the past 20 years, to become acting president of the University of Minnesota and that he has accepted".

Laid End to End They Add up to a Swell Idea

We mean these Four New Additions to the Buick SPECIAL Series that Give you Big-Car Thrill in less Curbside Space

THE way cars have been stretching out lately, it usually takes only a couple of cars to occupy the curb space of an extension-ladder fire truck.

Not so with the newest additions to the 1941 Buick line.

Here we've reversed the trend—just to prove that an honest-to-golly BIG car can be built without going overboard on bumper-to-bumper distance.

The four new models now adorning the Buick SPECIAL Series fit neatly into modest garages without putting a permanent crimp in the doors.

They slip into parking places smoothly as a rowboat nestles up to a dock—and the way they flit through traffic is a delight to wheel-weary drivers.

When it comes to action—well, they've got a 115-hp. FIREBALL eight under their bonnets that skims you down the road like a mallard heading home. You can add Compound Carburetion at small extra cost and have 125 horsepower that does things we hardly dare hint about in print.

But they're a handy six inches shorter, bumper to bumper, than other Buicks—a quartet of top-quality cars in a new and easily-handled size.

The price? It's lower too. So better take a look at the first really BIG car in this bumper-to-bumper size.

BUICK PRICES BEGIN AT $915 for the Business Coupe *delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories — extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

FLAX PROJECT IS BEING ORGANIZED IN PENNINGTON CO.

Seek to Eliminate Weed Infestation in County Fields

A flax program, which will include a number of seed cleaning demonstrations and a study of cultural practices directed toward reducing the dockage problem in flax and eliminating as far as possible some of the hazards of growing the crop, is being organized in Pennington County.

A seed cleaning unit will be in the county on March 10 and 11th to clean flaxseed for the cooperators. The mill will be set up at Goodridge and St. Hilaire. Each farmer, who will be a cooperator, will bring his flax to the unit. The mill that will be used has been especially designed for cleaning flax and is sponsored by the extension division and the Central Fiber Corporation.

Each cooperator is expected to seed a drill width of flax along side the field, using grain as he ordinarily prepares it for seed. Before harvesting, the weed content in the field sown with clean seed and the strip sown to flax not cleaned through the special flax equipment will be checked. In addition, the Extension Service is cooperating with all farmers in conducting a survey, through special survey cards, to determine some measures of practices now in use and the yields obtained.

In many instances it's difficult to say whether it's a matter of great minds running in the same channel or little minds in the same rut.

Kitty's Kitchen Klatter

The country kitchen is a mighty nice place to be around at twilight time. Dad likes to read the papers after chores. Savory odors fill the room while Mom completes the preparation for the evening meal. Hungry youngsters come trooping in; Mom watches with pride when Charles hangs his clothes so neatly, and wonders ever so fondly, what to do with Cedric who hurls his clothing in a corner with a whoop, "What you got for supper, Ma?"

NYA HI-LITES

By Tom Benson

Onward roll the wheels of destiny, and what have we at the NYA Resident Center? We have fifty-four boys swinging into the National Defense Training classes in dead earnest. This is really a very small portion of the 130 million people populating the U. S., but they are typical Americans that I can tell you something about.

They are young and versatile, the world looks good to them, they know they are a part of the generation that will step in to take over the controls of an age of government and production greater and superior to all former attempts. Therefore, it is only natural that among their dreams and airrastles they view themselves as a vital part of the pulsating life blood of a nation. You who have already made a place for yourselves in the world will smile and say, "More power to 'em."

The passkey to success these days is a trained mind and body; so we of the NYA Center take this National Defense Training as a stepping stone to greater fields of endeavor. You no doubt are following one of the other countless ways of attaining success, but let us all remember, "Success is born in the soul of you," and grows slowly to maturity through the hours, months and years that you zealously apply yourselves to your work, always learning, always seeking—greater fields of conquest.

Slipping from the whimsical directly to the point, we find that classes started Monday evening, Feb. 24, and are as yet quite elementary, but give promise of hours of anxious study and millions of new wrinkles in each and every fertile young brain.

Mr. Govednik, Resident Director is in no small quandary. He is still wracking his brain trying to organize an educational and project program that will be satisfactorily. That is the toughest problem that I've ever had a peek at.

N. W. Bell Telephone Company Employed Total of 12,037 Persons in '40

Much attention has been given to the views of telephone users in efforts to make telephone service more pleasing, according to the annual report for 1940 of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company and its subsidiaries, the Tri-State Telephone and Telegraph company and the Dakota Central Telephone company. The three companies operate in the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, South Dakota.

Pointing out that the telephone business is made up of many transactions between each user of the service and the company, the report states that it is the constant aim of the companies "to personalize these transactions and to make each of them definitely pleasing to the customer," and that surveys to ascertain the views of customers about the service and the manner in which it is provided were made during the year.

Taxes took about one-seventh of total revenues in 1940 and amounted to more than dividends paid. For the three companies, taxes assignable to operations amounted to $6,038,000 which was equivalent to $6.91 per telephone.

Regarding the three companies as an operating unit, composite net telephone earnings to average investment in telephone plant for the year were 4.45 per cent. The Northwestern Company paid dividends of $5 per share on its stock in 1940. The Tri-State and Dakota Central companies paid no dividends.

The number of employes at the end of the year was 12,037 of whom 7,370 or more than 61 per cent. were women. The average length of service was about 18 years for men and 10 years for women employes.

Worms Attack Jack Pine in Beltrami Island Area

The Department of Conservation announces that jack pine, which partially covers a large area of the Beltrami Island state forest, has been severely attacked by the budworm. Timber stand improvement work is now underway to protect these stands from insect infestations of epidemic proportions. Clarence Prout, in charge of forest management, said this work consists of thinnings and the cutting out of the "orchard" type of jack pine. Plantings of Norway and white pine will be made in the spring.

MOTORISTS MUST TAKE DRIVING PERMITS ALONG!

The law requires motorists to keep their driver's license with them at all times. Last year 209 Minnesota motorists suffered suspensions or revocations of their driving permits because they failed to have their licenses available when asked for them by police. The driver's license is every motorist's evidence that he is permitted to drive a car. He must have this evidence with him every time he gets behind the wheel.

If money talks, the small change you get must be the baby talk.

Vote Extension of Mortgage Moratorium Act to July 1, 1942

BILL FOR LEGALIZED SLOT MACHINES DIES

Small Prospect of State Being Reapportioned at Current Term

A bill extending the present mortgage moratorium act to July 1, 1942, received final senate approval last Thursday and was prepared for transmission to the governor for signature.

The house accepted a conference committee report on the measure, which ironed out differences between house and senate versions. The senate acceded without debate.

The present act would expire March 1, next.

Other new bills introduced in the senate were:

A measure by Senator Fred K. Gage of Fairfax to set up a five-man commission to acquire a site for an addition to the Faribault state school for feeble minded. The total cost of the addition, under the measure, would be limited to $1,200,000 including the site, building and equipment.

Senators Daniel Feidt and Burton L. Kingsley, both of Minneapolis, authored an amendment to the state hunting law to ban shooting of mourning doves as game birds.

Senator Elmer Adams' bill to legalize slot machines which brought widespread discussion early in the present Minnesota legislative session, was killed by the senate general legislation committee last week.

The action was consistent with the recent approval of the measure putting teeth in the anti-slot machine law which was backed by Senator Harold Harrison of Minneapolis. Senator Adams of Fergus Falls, proposed to legalize slot machines so as to permit local governments to share in the revenue from them.

Approval of a bill to outlaw fireworks except as given at supervised events by experts was approved by the committee after an amendment was adopted permitting sale of cap pistols.

Minnesotans probably will not have an opportunity to vote at the 1942 elections on a constitutional amendment to cut the size of the legislature and reapportion the state accordingly.

A bill calling for action by the electorate at the next general election was killed by the senate reapportionment committee Tuesday. The vote was 8 to 2.

The senate highways committee discussed a bill to remove the state highway patrol from jurisdiction of the state crime bureau. M. J. Hoffmann, highway commissioner, spoke in opposition to the proposal which grew out of criticism of the patrol administration.

Alden Halseth of Crookston, area WPA supervisor, was present to propose the creation of a project planning board to include representatives of the city council, county board and school board, to handle future work projects. Proposed as representatives of the council on the board were Alderman Clarence Rhode and City Engineer I. E. Quist.

1st March Draft Quota Leaves City March 17

Volunteers for selective service, 14 of whom were available Wednesday, will make up the greater portion of the Pennington county selective service draft quota of 16 men who are scheduled to leave Thief River Falls Monday, March 17, it was announced at local headquarters today.

The board here also revealed that Merle Rolland of St. Hilaire will leave shortly to serve as a replacement for one of the young men in the February contingent who was disqualified. Most of the last quota are to be stationed at Camp Warren in Wyoming.

Minnesota's draft quota for March was boosted Tuesday to 5,570 men—almost 1,000 more than had been expected by state selective service officials.

A call for 1,322 white selectees to be inducted from March 21 to 31 and for 25 negroes to report March 15 was received by Lt. Col. J. E. Nelson, state selective service director, from seventh corps area headquarters in Omaha.

Stepping up of the rate of induction will require calling from every draft board district in the state during the last 10 days of this month, Colonel Nelson said.

This will mean an additional quota this month for each of 105 draft boards which are supplying 2,248 men during the first two 10-day periods.

The number of men selectees in camps by the end of this month will be 6,046—more than one-third of the 18,652 quota to be filled by June 30.

Rate of induction is expected to be stepped up again in April, with possibility 5,000 or 6,000 men will be called from Minnesota during the month.

SECOND JURY CASE IS NOW UNDER WAY IN DISTRICT COURT

Criminal Negligence Action Arises from Death of St. Hilaire Girl

Under way in district court in this city today is the case of the State vs. Charles Olson, who is charged with criminal negligence as the outgrowth of an automobile collision on Highway 32 near St. Hilaire last October, in which LaVerne Royal, St. Hilaire high school student, sustained fatal injuries.

The work of selecting a jury to hear the case was begun early Tuesday afternoon, and, as a result of detailed questioning of the prospective jurors by opposing counsel, the task was not completed until Wednesday afternoon, when the hearing of testimony got under way.

First jury case to be disposed of was that of Verna Schmitz vs. Schuyler Schmitz, her brother-in-law, arising out of an alleged assault and battery committed August 10, 1938. After hearing the testimony, the jury retired Tuesday noon and returned a verdict at 2:30 in the afternoon in favor of the defendant.

Reuben Lawson pleaded guilty Monday afternoon before Judge O. R. Knutson to charges of unlawful possession of liquor or sale as well as unlawful sale of liquor. He was fined $50 and costs on each charge, together with a 30-day jail sentence which was suspended on condition the fine be paid.

READY TO TURN ON ELECTRICITY ON RURAL LINES

Current Not to be Turned on Until 80 Pct. of Homes are Wired

ANNUAL MEETING OF CO-OP. ON WEDNESDAY

Substations and Transmission Lines Now Virtually Completed

Several hundred farm homes in this section of the state will shortly enjoy the convenience made possible as a result of the rural electrification program, sponsored locally by the Red Lake Electric Cooperative together with the Minnkota cooperative at Grand Forks.

S. E. Hunt, vice president of the Minnkota co-op, stated today that the substations at Grand Forks and Terrebonne are now completed and that the transmission line from Grand Forks to Terrebonne is practically finished and ready for the electric current to be turned on, which it is expected will be done next Monday, March 10.

"However", said Mr. Hunt, "the Rural Electrification administration at Washington informs us that current cannot be released until 80 per cent of the members have their buildings wired and ready to take the electric energy, so now it is up to us to be ready at that time.

"We are still short of the required number being wired, so let's all get busy and get this job done at once. We have many members who wired their buildings last summer, and these folks are getting anxious to get the current, so let's not keep them waiting.

"If we are not wired up and ready to take the current when it is made available, we may nevertheless have to make our minimum monthly payment according to our membership agreement."

E. F. Kiland, superintendent of the Red Lake co-op, announced this week that the annual meeting of the organization will be held in the community hall at Red Lake Falls next Wednesday, March 12, starting at 1:15. In connection with the meeting there will be a demonstration of electric appliances by dealers from various communities in this section. Attendance prizes will also be awarded.

It is hoped to reflect advantages to farmers in better returns per acre from the crop, both in the sale of straw as well as grain.

Draft Boards Make No Distinction Between Public, Private Jobs

Public employees in Minnesota are being given exactly the same consideration with regard to occupational deferment from selective service training as is given to private employees, Lt. Col. J. E. Nelson, state director, said today. It is simply a question of how each individual best can serve his country, whether it be in military or civilian capacity, he pointed out.

"Many questions have arisen", Col. Nelson asserted, "as to the status of public employees—federal, state and local—under the selective service system. Most of these questions indicate considerable misunderstanding of the principle of occupational deferment. Some local government officials have raised the question of group exemptions for local public employees. Such group exemptions, of course, are prohibited by law.

"This is covered clearly by the provisions of the selective training act and who is found to be necessary in his job where the job is in an activity that is productive or useful and contributes to the well-being of the community or the Nation. Furthermore, it should be kept in mind that there is little probability that so many individuals would be selected at any one time from any one enterprise or activity as to cripple it".

WANT AD ANSWERED AFTER SIX MONTHS

Aitkin—Spreading papers on her floor after scrubbing, an Aitkin housewife noticed an advertisement in a six months old issue of the Aitkin Republican announcing the loss of a key ring described as "Rainier National Park" key ring. Realizing that a similar ring had been found by a member of her household last fall, the woman looked them up and took them in to the paper office. Sure enough, they were the missing keys and were returned forthwith to the owner. Unfortunately, however, the owner of the key case had in the mean time sold the car which the keys belonged leaving her with one badly weathered, but still usable key case.

TRY OUT NEW METHOD OF PERCH FISHING

Chaska—When Hetheilder and John Dienslake of Chaska started out on a fishing expedition at Lake Minnetonka recently, the catching of a few fish was included in the plans, but not the manner in which they were caught. Driving out onto the lake, Mr. Ede feel the car start sinking in four feet of water and jumped out. His companion remained in the car and was pulled out a few minutes later. Still later the car was dragged out of the lake. The catch for the day was a couple of perch—"dry-docked" on the back seat of the car.

Famous Charter Oak

The age of the historic Charter Oak in Connecticut was computed at nearly a thousand years when it was blown down in August, 1856. A white marble monument now marks the spot in the city of Hartford.

WHAT A HEN! RAISES FAMILY IN SNOW DRIFT

Atwater—One recurring miracle after practically resulted from the November snow storm, but here's one with a new twist. It's the story of a hen who, with a brood of small chicks was snowed in for three months and emerged with her family almost full grown and on top of that, was setting on a batch of eggs when discovered—eggs produced by herself! Fortunately Biddy and her flock had parked themselves near a supply of grain spilled when being loaded into the granary and thus had ample food for herself and family.

Puffed Wheat

The process of puffed wheat was discovered by Alexander P. Anderson in 1901-02 while carrying on research at the New York botanical gardens. Wheat is puffed by the explosion of the starch granules.

EMERGENCY RADIO CORPS IS TOPIC AT MEETING MONDAY

Would Function When Other Types of Communication Have Failed

The regular monthly meeting of Unit No. 2 of the North-Minnesota Radio Association was held Monday evening. Jerome Havel, president, introduced the main topic of discussion, "The Amateur Emergency corps."

He explained that the A. E. C. is a nation-wide co-operation of amateur radio operators for the purpose of assisting the American Red Cross and commercial communication facilities by providing inter-city communication in the event of isolation by flood, tornado, earthquake, or any other emergency such as was created by the Armistice day storm.

The radio club is attempting to get a self-powered amateur station in or near each of the larger towns in this section of the state. These "emergency stations" must be equipped in such a way as to be operable at a moments' notice, entirely independent of any local power. These "emergency stations" need be powerful enough to operate only within a fifty-mile radius, for their purpose is to get the message out of the isolated area to one of the "supporting stations" which will relay it to its destination.

With a view to extending the facilities of the A. E. C., the club made arrangements to contact every amateur radio operator in the five counties in N. W. Minnesota which are under Jerome Havel's jurisdiction as Emergency Co-ordinator for Area No. 1 of Minnesota.

MOTHER GOOSE GOES MODERN

Little Jack Horner
Sat in a corner
Eating a Tuna Fish Pie.
You see it was Lent,
So meat was absent,
But who cares . . . when there's tuna fish pie?

Mrs. Goodheart . . . who is a neighbor of the Horners . . . was horrified when she discovered that she'd invited the Horners for dinner on one of the nights when the Horners didn't eat meat. What made things worse . . . Mrs. Goodheart remembered Mrs. Horner's saying that Jack and Mr. Horner simply wouldn't touch any kind of fish.

Mrs. Goodheart wracked her brain and nearly wrecked two cook books trying to find something in them that wasn't fish and wasn't meat which the Horners could eat. Then she had an idea. Perhaps they didn't like fish because Mrs. Horner didn't know how to make the fish interesting. She'd find out. She'd make the very best and tastiest tuna fish pie she could . . . and then just see.

She Called It A Mock Chicken Pie

She was wise though. She didn't even mention tuna fish. She just called it a "mock chicken pie" and asked if they could guess what was in it.

Well, you should have seen Mr. Horner and Jack eat! They ate two helpings apiece. Mrs. Goodheart was thanking her lucky stars that she'd made two pies. But they couldn't guess what it was that tasted something like chicken and yet wasn't chicken. You could have knocked them down with a feather, when Mrs. Goodheart finally said it was tuna fish.

But you can rest assured that Mrs. Horner went home with that tuna fish pie recipe in her purse.

TUNA FISH PIE

½ cup chopped green pepper	Pepper
½ cup diced celery	1½ cups milk
3 tbsp. butter	1 can tuna fish (7-oz.)
3 tbsp. all-purpose flour	1½ cups diced cooked potatoes
½ tsp. salt	1½ cups grated cheese (⅜ lb.)

Cook the green pepper and celery in the butter for 5 minutes. Blend in the flour, salt and pepper. Remove from heat. Slowly stir in milk. Return to heat, and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Carefully blend in tuna fish (broken in large pieces), potatoes and 1 cup of the grated cheese.

I forgot to mention that Mrs. Goodheart had first put her tuna fish in a strainer and let hot water run over it . . . to wash away the fish oil and any fish taste that might alarm the Horners before they discovered that they liked tuna fish pie.

Pour into an 8-inch round "open face" casserole and sprinkle the remaining ½ cup cheese over the top.

Make Biscuit Topping

Sift together 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1½ tsp. baking powder and ½ tsp. salt. Cut in 2 tbsp. shortening with a pastry blender (or 2 knives) until finely blended. Add about 6 tbsp. milk and mix to make a soft dough. Roll out dough to fit the top of the casserole and extend ½ inch beyond the rim. Wet rim of casserole. Lay dough on top of hot filling in casserole, and fold back into double layer at edge. Build up a fluted edge being careful to pinch down over the wet rim of the casserole to hold it. Cut slits in top for steam to escape.

Bake about 15 minutes in a hot oven, 450° F. This makes 4 servings.

DIES IN ROOM IN WHICH HE WAS BORN

Waseca—Though the life span of Charles A. Smith of Waseca took him to several places of residence, he was born and died in the same room in spite of the fact that even the room had been moved to a different locality. Born in Wilton, during his youth, the house in which he was born was moved to Waseca and became a part of the Richard Conway home. Although he lived elsewhere in the summer months, Mr. Smith took the room in which he was born in the winter months and there passed away.

MOORHEAD SPUDS DEFEAT PROWLERS SATURDAY 36-27

Ed Flasch Is High Scorer for Locals with Total of Ten Points

Two sharp-shooting forwards, Scheide, who counted 5 field goals in the first half, and Solien, who scored 5 field goals and 2 free throws in the second half, gave the veteran Moorhead high school Spuds a 36 to 27 win over the Prowlers in a game played at Moorhead last Saturday night.

Both teams played slow basketball during the first half of the game, with the Spuds having a 14 to 8 lead at the intermission. The Prowlers, on field goals by Eddie Flasch, Denny Althoff, and Johnny Parbat, and a free throw by Russ Garnes, had trailed the Spuds by but one point, 8 to 7, at the end of the first period; but a second period in which they tallied but one point, a free throw by Armand Pederson, while the Spuds piled up six points for their half-time lead.

Eddie Flasch, Babe Peterson, and Russ Garnes paced the Prowlers in the second half, with Eddie getting 8 points, on 6 free throws and a field goal, Babe tallying 2 field goals and a free throw and Russ counting 2 field goals. The Spuds red-hot Solien kept the Prowlers from whittling into the Moorhead lead, the quick-shooting forward getting 12 points in the half.

Flash was high scorer for the locals with 10 points, followed by Babe Peterson and Russ Garnes with 5 points each.

2½ POUND MONTH-OLD BABY CUTS FIRST TOOTH

Brainerd—Evidently thriving on notoriety, the tiny two and a half pound baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meyer of Brainerd, Carol Jean by name, astounded hospital attendants and her doctor by getting her first tooth at the tender age of one month. Premature by a month, the baby is perfectly normal except for her size. She measures 13 inches from head to heel, her chest is eight and one-half inches in circumference, and her arm measures a scant five and a half inches from shoulder to finger-tip.

The Number One Item

The No. one item on this week's sports calendar is the States-Dominion hockey league play-offs, the finals. The Grafton Millionaires will play the second and third games of the series here, playing here tonight and Sunday afternoon. The rivalry between the Thieves and Millionaires has been red-hot all season and with the two teams in the play-off finals the fans can expect plenty of excitement. Better make it a point to see these games.

Hes a Comer

Billy Bye, Supt. Bye's broad-shouldered and stockily-built young son, is going to be quite a basketball player in a couple of years. The fact is, Billy is quite a basketball player right now for in an intramural game the other week, playing with his eighth grade junior team, Billy dropped in 16 field goals and 1 free throw for 33 points. In the six games that his team has played Billy has scored 107 points, for an average of 18 points a game.

It's Worth a Paragraph or Two

Walt "I'm not good enough to bowl with the Land O'Lakes" Carlson, bowling for the Junior C of C, last week upset the ten-pins for a 204 total, and made the Honor Roll. Walt, who's employed by the Land O'Lakes, is eligible for the company bowling team but he had an early season average of around 115 or so, and Harry Severson, manager of the Land O' Lakes team, took one peek at Walt's average and asked for, and got, waivers on Walt.

Harry has been receiving some 'heat' for letting Walt get away from him, but he doesn't seem to be excited about Walt's recent high average bowling. Harry told me that Walt's 'exuberant' bowling was due to some tonic and vitamin pills that he, Walt, has been taking to cure a cold. In fact, Harry stuck a finger in my chest and offered to wager a slow bet that Walt wouldn't roll a 400 total the night the Junior C. of C. bowl the Land O' Lakes team. I took him up on that, providing Walt still has his cold and is taking the tonic and the vitamin pills.

Ole Ness Has a Problem

Ole, who's the Connie Mack of the city diamondball league, will have to do some scratching to get a team on the field this year. Last Tuesday night he lost his catcher when 'Bing' Bergstrom left for one year's enlistment in the army, and now comes another blow. Heinie Waag, his right fielder has volunteered for a year of service in the army, and will leave on the 17th. Ole will be able to fill 'Bing's' place behind the plate; but what's he going to use in right field? Perhaps Ole will stuff that bear-skin that he got last fall and put that out in right field. That may fool the fans for awhile, but it won't be long before they'll discover that that isn't Heinie in right field. Well, as I said, it's Ole's problem.

It's a Defense Act

It wouldn't be stretching the too far to classify that Tuesday evening young men's recreation project in the high school gym as a national defense act. Or perhaps it would be more correct to call it a self-defense act. If a fellow can go through 4 periods of basketball as it's played on Tuesday night, without incurring a permanent disability, he is certain to be qualified as an expert in self-defense, and in addition he will have picked up a few tricks in jujitsu. But they are having a lot of fun, and they are surely getting the exercise.

Miscellany

Eddie Beaulieu, Grafton's left wing, has received notice to report for his physical examination. Which means that he will be in Canadian army in a short while. Did you know that the Lee Richmond that played guard for Cass Lake, wearing jersey No. 24, was a member of the Minneapolis Marshall high school team last year, and that he was expected to hold down guard position for the Cardinals this year?—Roseau high school basketball team was down here Monday night for an informal scrimmage with the Prowlers.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

Puppet Show

The puppet show for this week will be "Little Red Riding Hood". It will be put on in the arena puppet theatre at 4:20 o'clock. Everyone is invited to this free show. Last week's show drew a large and enthusiastic crowd. Many parents with pre-school children were on hand for a very good performance.

Handicraft

Miss Lucille Thomas has started the children working on art work in connection with her handicraft classes. Several participants have already taken a great interest in the work. Many new things are being made now under this new setup. A great many children have taken advantage of these classes in the past and have profited by it. Others are welcome at any time to come and visit the classes.

Craft Shop

This ought to be good news for all those interested in craft work in the arena shop. Just the other night the local recreation board set aside one hundred dollars for the purchase of new tools. Some new power equipment along with many hand tools, all new, will be installed in the shop some time this week. A regular spring house cleaning will be held before the new equipment is made available, thus giving interested craftsmen an entirely different setup. "Fred" Langevin and Ben Reyn will handle instruction duties, formerly taken care of by Loren Lord. The shop will be run under the same regulations as in the past. In other words, use of the tools is free and every one is welcome to come and participate.

Arena Game Room

In the upstairs of the arena two ping pong tables have been set up. They are used a great deal, but there is still room for many more. Several other games are also available in the game room.

Implement Dealer Will Present Movies Monday

L. A. Engen & Sons, local Minneapolis-Moline implement dealers, today invited the public to attend a free motion picture production at the Avalon theatre [illegible] Monday afternoon, March 10, beginning at [illegible]. They will present the picture, "This Land of Ours" dealing with the national parks and points of historic and scenic interest through the United States.

"BEAT ME DADDY" IS SHOPLIFTER'S UNDOING

St. Peter—Too "hepped with the jive" was a 15-year old Le Sueur youth who couldn't resist helping himself to a couple of choice records including "Beat Me Daddy, Eight to a Bar" in a Mankato store a week ago Friday. A bystander who happened to be in the store at the time, chased and caught the boy who was unable to get "in the groove" [illegible] hampered [illegible] by the group of records he was carrying.

House Bill Provides Group to Study School for the Feeble-Minded

Mr. Harold Kempter, Pilcard, Monday proposed creation of a five-member commission to select a site in northern Minnesota for construction of a $2,000,000 school and colony for the feeble minded in a bill introduced in the state house of representatives. AUCTIONEER MISSES FIRST SALE IN OVER FORTY YEARS

Buffalo Lake—When the average person comes down with flu—it's just one of those things; but it was a different matter entirely when R. W. Funk, popular Buffalo Lake auctioneer, came down with the flu on a recent Friday, the same day that he was scheduled to officiate at an auction. During forty years of auctioneering over a wide territory, "Col." Funk had never missed a single auction sale at which he was scheduled to cry until Old Man Flu got a good hold on him and broke the jinx.

PROPER SUBJECT FOR DEBATE

There is good reason for the American people to concern themselves over the possibility of dictatorship resulting from the powers granted to the President in the lease-lend bill now being debated in Congress. While we favor passage of the bill, we are also in favor of reasonable limitations and strict definitions of power being incorporated in the measure.

We favor the granting of broad powers to the President at this time because in an emergency such as that with which we are now confronted it is essential to effective action that authority be concentrated. While war has not been officially declared, we are actually at war. Call it a program of national defense or what you will, our nation is rapidly being converted into a war machine and until peace is restored to the world we will continue to direct our energies into the building and maintaining of a military organization. It is not a pleasant prospect but wishing it to be otherwise does not alter facts. As a nation at war we must yield some of our cherished individual rights. Broad powers must be granted to the chief executive.

Those who argue that the lease-lend bill is a step toward war are right. The measure places us definitely on the side of the nations that are resisting the aggressors. To quibble about what or how much aid we should extend is idle talk and there is reason to suspect that the quibblers are thinking in terms of their own political fortunes rather than the welfare of the nation. We will remain strictly neutral or we will take sides by extending aid. Having taken sides, the question of how much aid we should give will be determined largely by the needs.

There is justification, however, for debating the question of how much authority should be granted to the executive and under what circumstances such special authority may be withdrawn. Those are problems the American people will expect Congress to consider most carefully.

To the officers, delegates and patrons of Land O'Lakes Creameries, Inc., attending the organization's annual meeting at the Auditorium today, we say "Welcome to YOUR city." As owners of one of the largest and most important industries of the city, there really isn't much reason for extending a "welcome" to this group. A few words of appreciation for the valuable contribution they have made to our community might be more in order. If the progress made by Thief River Falls in recent years could be attributed to any one development we would say that the development most deserving of that credit would be the establishment here of the Land O'Lakes poultry plant in 1929. It was especially important at that time because it represented a vote of confidence in our territory by an organization that served more than the entire state, and what we needed more than anything else in the late twenties was a vote of confidence. So to the members of the organization that has done so much for Thief River Falls we extend a welcome that is cordial, sincere and appreciative.

Another storm passed us by. We don't know how much longer we are going to be favored by the weather man but as long as it lasts we will enjoy the special consideration.

A round of cheers for the Lincoln lads who took top honors in the state tumbling competition last week. Until recent years we had thought that this particular field of gymnastics had been reserved by nature for the orientals. It pleases us mightily to know that our youngsters can flip and flop as dexterously as the Chinese.

A report submitted to us by Senator J. V. Weber on the conclusions reached by a special commission authorized to study iron ore taxes encourages us to believe a sensible solution for an important state problem may soon be adopted. Minnesota's vast iron ore resources will never be developed until a sensible tax program is put into effect. Under the present system of taxation only the richest ore is being mined and at the rate the rich deposits are being taken out the end is in sight. The great bulk of Minnesota's iron wealth is in the form of low grade ores and of these there apparently is an inexhaustible supply. The future of the industry, and the range country, depends on the development of this low grade ore and it would seem reasonable to expect the people of the range communities to supply leadership in the effort to secure changes that will make such development possible. The range communities apparently take a short sighted view of the problem however and probably will oppose any reform program that will force them to adopt sensible practices in the management of their own public affairs. In the interests of the state as a whole, as well as the range itself, the state will have to step in and, by reasonable limitations on local taxes, put an end to the political corruption and public extravagance that, to a large extent, is responsible for a deplorable condition in what should be one of the state's biggest industries.

THE DIFFERENCE IT WOULD MAKE

A correspondent writes us to ask what difference it makes to the United States whether Hitler or England wins the war. The difference is this—

If Hitler wins, the United States must immediately become a military nation, supporting a large standing army and spending huge tax supported appropriations for war equipment, ships and airplanes. Our conscription law now temporary in operation would become permanent so that each year millions of young Americans would take military training in order for the country to have a defense army. If Hitler wins, our entire national life would be changed because we would live in a new world dominated in large part by dictators who would always be a potential threat to our peace and security.

If England wins, the threat of dictatorial menace would immediately be removed. We could repeal our conscription law. We could cease our enormous expenditures for military preparedness. We would need no large standing army, big navy or huge airplane force.

In other words, if Hitler wins, we are in for long years of uncertainty as to our national security which would force constant military preparation at enormous cost. If England wins, we can continue our present mode of living and subordinate the war defense effort to the ways of peace.

The U. S. census finds that in 1939 there was a total of 7310 newspaper establishments whose dollar volume of business exceeded $5000 in operation in the U. S. These establishments give employment to 63,329 salaried workers and 97,251 wage earners.

As long as the United States has nearly 8000 free and independent newspapers which can and do enjoy the freedom of expression guaranteed in our constitution, there is little danger of our nation losing its freedom.

One of the first steps in putting Russia, Germany and Italy under the control of single agencies was the suppression of "freedom of the press." He who controls the sources of information to the people controls their thinking.

No country can be free which is not informed by agencies not under government control. The greatest bulwark to our liberties is the free and uncensored press of America.

W. F. Schilling, who always has an eagle eye out for the interests of the dairy farmer, is opposed to the bill introduced in the legislature to double the legal butterfat content of ice cream. Bill says that the ice cream would cost more and would be so rich that if a customer ate one helping he would not want another very soon; that the plan has been tried out in several states and found to work against the consumption of the product. In these days of "reducing" it certainly would put ice cream on the socially taboo list.—Morris Tribune.

Never judge a man by his outside appearance. A shabby old coat may enwrap a newspaper publisher while the man wearing fine new duds and sporting a gold headed cane may be a delinquent subscriber.—Exchange.

What makes the firefly glow? The light-giving organ consists of fatty tissues supplied with numerous air tubes and nerves; the nerves stimulate the air tubes and the latter convey to the fatty tissue the oxygen which combines heatlessly with luciferin to produce the light.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor Times:

I see an item in last weeks' Times on the high cost of brush and grass cutting thruout the county. Yes, I agree with Mr. Olson that it should be discussed among tax payers and others. But there is one question that is always forgotten and the most expensive of all, a burden the taxpayer creates himself. That is the practice of dumping rocks and junk in the ditches and on the ditch banks. That is where you find big piles of rock and everything you can think of from baby shoes to double seated buggies. This adds greatly to the cost of cutting grass and weeds because it retards the progress of the work.

Referring to the suggestion that weed cutting should not start until the third Monday in September when most of the threshing is done I can only say that Mr. Olson must raise early crops. I was born in the town of Rocksbury in 1883 and have lived in the county ever since. From my experience threshing drags out until late October and until the snow flies, and that is no time to cut grass. I started in July last year. I have put in three seasons with the scythe and axe.

Yours truly
M. M. Anderson
Goodridge, Minn.

Dear Editor:

It made me feel quite indignant reading John P. Erickson's letter in The Times stating that some of our County Commissioners make it a business digging up Old Age and Relief cases.

It is gratifying to know we have commissioners who have respect for old age and people who are unfortunate and have to be on relief. Does Mr. Erickson believe he is going to have Eternal Youth?

Sincerely yours,
Anna Houfek Kelly.

By Tom Benson

National defense training classes are hitting their stride in evening sessions at the Lincoln high school building and form the nucleus of almost every group conversation around the NYA Resident Center. Yours truly is fairly bubbling over with enthusiasm over the mechanical drawing class. As essential parts of industrial construction appear on the drawing paper under the students amateur hand, this fascination naturally increases and the three hour classes are over almost before they have begun so it seems.

Woe of woes, around a place like this is kitchen turmoil and it hangs on with undue perseverance! In order to accommodate the different groups of boys in the 4:30 classes and the 7:30 classes, two suppers have been arranged, one at 6:00 P. M., the other at 7:30 P. M. This means that besides the regular staff of Kitchen Police, an extra squad must be detailed to handle the first supper. This inconvenience makes it doubly hard to raise a smile from the cook, Al. Nelson, who has our sympathies. Mystery — try and find the youth spending free time within calling range of the kitchen.

The NYA Resident boys have been forced to discontinue competition in the city basketball league because evening classes have taken almost every player on the squad. Mortification runs high among the players who feel they were just beginning to click when this new monkey wrench jimmed the works. "Not by a jugfull" however, would one of them swap his classes for the privilege of keeping the team going.

PASTURE PLANNING URGED FOR COUNTY FARMERS BY LERUD

Advises Correction of Deficiency in Adequate Pasturage

Farmers of Pennington county who are now setting up their crop plans for the coming season can profitably give close attention to the problem of furnishing abundant pasture, says County Agent Lester A. Lerud. Since 1941 looks like a good year for livestock production, pasture, and cheapest of all livestock feeds, should be given a preferred place in the farm plan for the coming year.

Most Pennington county farms are set up so that there is a real shortage of feed at certain times of the grazing season. This deficiency can be corrected with a pasture plan which may include one or more of the following steps:

(1) Unproductive permanent pastures can be improved by top dressing with manure, rotation grazing to give grass a better chance to recover, and by strict avoidance of overgrazing. This program can be put into effect without delay.

(2) On farms where pasture shortage is general, it would be well to plan for new seedings of alfalfa and brome, alfalfa and timothy, or other mixtures that will give a high yield of feed. It may take two years to get such pasture into full production, but the result will be worth the trouble.

(3) Supplemental pasture is needed on almost every farm to take care of the low points when permanent grasslands fall down. The midsummer slump is the most serious, although there is room for improvement in early spring and fall pasture supplies. Sudan grass and second crop legumes are excellent for July and August feed, while rye makes a good early spring pasture in this locality. Frequently these pasture plantings will work well with conservation and weed control practices. They are given much encouragement under the A. A. A. program.

DUCKS SIGHTED NEAR IRONTON FLYING SOUTH

Ironton—For those who have lamented the rigors of Minnesota winters here is a cheerful news note of interest. Sheldon Erickson of Ironton sighted the familiar V formation of a flock of ducks flying south in February, a flock that had evidently stayed to enjoy the mild winter here. It is to be hoped that they arrive in the sunnier climes in time to join the parade of birds coming north in a few weeks.

Ewes and Lambs Respond to Extra Care in Spring

Care of ewes and new-crop lambs during the next few weeks will have an important bearing on profit or loss in this year's sheep raising operations, says W. E. Morris, extension animal husbandman at University Farm. Losses can frequently be headed off by proper care of the flock prior to lambing time.

Ewes should be gaining in weight as lambing nears. Thrifty animals with plenty of good legume hay during the winter months will not require grain until a few weeks before lambs are born. However, the ewes will be stronger and they will milk better if fed a pound of grain per day for about a month before lambing and immediately after until they can be placed on grass. Plenty of clean water is also important.

Adequate exercise is necessary during the pregnancy period. Hay fed in racks or corn bundles fed some distance from the barn provide the necessary incentive to make sheep move around.

Undersea Post Office

The only underwater post office in the world is located at Nassau in the Bahamas. Its official title is "Sea Floor, Nassau, Bahamas." Founded by the famous explorer of marine life, John Ernest Williamson, the post office is situated in the underwater chamber known as the Williamson Photosphere from which the explorer pictures the wonders of the deep in the coral decorated sea floor. The post office has its own cancellation and postage stamp, the only one in existence showing scenes of undersea life.

"THE BETTER WAY"

There are two ways of life, the "restricted prohibited way" and the "liberty, self-controlled way."

In central Minnesota are two cities about the same size (1,500 population) and only a few miles apart, that illustrate these two different ways of life.

"C———", the first city, (this study was made in 1939) is typical—main street, newspaper, general store, bank, yes, and four beer taverns, but the local authorities insist on strict observance of the laws. No minor ever buys a glass of beer; no booths are permitted; the taverns observe the closing hours. Result: there are no drinking problems in this city.

"D———", the neighboring city, discontinued the sale of beer in January, 1939. When investigators visited this city in August of 1939, every law-abiding citizen interviewed was disgusted with existing conditions. The day the beer taverns closed their doors six bootleggers started plying their nefarious trade; fights and drunkenness became common sights.

A year of this was a sufficient lesson. At the 1940 city election "D———" voted for licensing the return of 3.2 beer and the return of the "liberty, self-controlled way" of living.

EVERY LITTLE HELPS

"I coughed my head off last night."

"Then you coughed to some purpose."

AFTER THE BIG GAME

"Gee whiz! but that was a brilliant run. Didn't you enjoy it?"

Bacon Eggs for Breakfast

The late Boies Penrose, Republican "boss" of Pennsylvania, was one of the heartiest eaters in Philadelphia. He used to drink a half gallon of buttermilk before breakfast. A typical breakfast would then be a dozen fried eggs, a huge half-inch thick slice of ham, a dozen hard rolls, a quart of black coffee. He was quite a fellow, 6 feet 4 inches tall.

What a Chance

Money when confiscated from lotteries in the state of New York must go to the poor, this law decrees. According to the Penal Code of New York State: "Any prize that shall be drawn in any lottery shall be forfeited to the use of the poor and it shall be the duty of the overseers of the town where the person or persons drawing such prize or any of them shall reside, to sue for the same in their names. And they shall recover the same in an action for money had and received."

Square Milk Pail

Who ever heard of a square milk pail? Yet such an article was exhibited at the Midwest Industrial Designers exhibition recently.

The square milk pail, as many other revolutionized farm implements, horse equipment, tools, and machines, has reasons for existing. It is easier to carry. It is easier to hold between the knees when milking. Its rounded corners pour a neat, small stream, and it is simple to wash because it can be laid on its side.

Discovery of Potato

Potatoes first grew in South America. Until Columbus discovered America and the early explorers had carried the curious plant back to the Old world, potatoes were unknown in Europe. In fact, they were not known in North America until after the middle of the Sixteenth century, when they were first brought to Virginia from Peru.

THIEVES ENTER FINALS WITH WIN OVER COMETS 5-3

Near-Riot Results Over Disputed Goal in Final Period

The Thieves closed out their play-off series with Fargo-Moorhead—and are now in the finals—by defeating the Comets, 5 to 3, in a bitterly-contested game played at Fargo last Thursday night.

The first minute of play saw Paul Kornek scoring for Thief River, taking a pass from Joe Popiel and beating Fargo's Tripp. Al Nehring, Comet center, on an assist from Hodge Johnson, knotted the score at 1-all when he tallied at the 7:20 mark.

Both teams counted two goals in the second period, with Bill Gray and Paul Kornek tallying for the Thieves, and Ray Clark and Howie Lee getting the counters for the Comets, and the game went into the final period with a tie score, 3 to 3.

Midway in the final stanza a near-riot occurred when Paul Kornek whipped a hard shot into the net, but which the goal judge claimed and hit the goal post. When the mix-up was unscrambled goalie Tripp was on top of the puck outside the goal-line; but the Thieves contended that the puck had hit the back of the net and bounced out of the goal. After much shoving and heaving and loud talk a new goal judge was installed, the score dis-allowed, and a face-oe declared in the Comets zone.

A few minutes later Eddie McMillan marked up the game-winning tally when he took an assist from George Beverly to score. Kornek added some insurance a minute later when on a double assist from McMillan and Popiel, he tallied the final goal of the game.

The summary of Thursday night's game:

Bronson	goal	E. Tripp
Beverly	defense	Shisler
Gustafson	defense	Davis
Novak	wing	Lee
Popiel	wing	Johnson
Kornek	center	Nehring

Spares: Thief River Falls Hovie, McMillan, Gray. W. Tripp, Fargo-Moorhead Wallace, Mahala, Clark, Latvala.

First period—Scoring: Kornek (Popiel), [illegible]; Nehring (Johnson), 7:20.

Second period—Scoring: Clark (Latvala), 7:31; Gray (McMillan), 8:30; Kornek (Beverly), 17:00; Lee (Nehring), 19:00. Penalties: Wallace, McMillan.

Third Period—Scoring: McMillan (Beverly), 18:02; Kornek (McMillan, Popiel), 19:00. Penalties: Wallace.

Second Playoff Game in Arena This Evening

Fortified by a decisive 11-2 victory over Grafton in the first game of the States-Dominion league playoffs at Grafton Wednesday evening, the Thief River Falls sextet is out to repeat the performance in the local arena this evening when the two teams meet in their second encounter of the best-of-five-games playof series.

The third game also will be played in Thief River Falls next Sunday afternoon, March 9. If fourth and fifth games are required, they will be played at Grafton next Tuesday evening and here Thursday evening, March 13.

The Thieves had complete control of last night's game all the way through. Beverly led the scoring with four goals, while Kornek scored twice, and Novak, Popiel, Gray, Gustafson and McMillan one each. The scores were equally divided among the three periods, with three in the first and four each in the second and third.

Jack McKee and George Gordon, referees, selected a league all-star team, including Bronson, TRF, goal; Beverly, TRF, and DePaul, Crookston, defense; LeDoux, Crookston, center; and Kornek, TRF, and Johnson, Fargo-Moorhead, wings.

On their second team they placed Tripp, Fargo, goal; Gustafson, TRF, and Hebert, Grafton, defense; McMillan, TRF, center; and Sutherland, Grafton, and Allen, Crookston, wings.

PROWLERS QUELL CROOKSTON FRIDAY BY SCORE OF 40-16

Bemidji Teachers College Reserves Will Appear Here Friday

Holding the Crookston Pirates without a point during the first twelve minutes of play, and allowing but three field goals during the entire contest, the Prowlers romped through the Bucs for a convincing 40 to 16 win in a district basketball game played here last Friday night. Tomorrow night the Prowlers meet the Bemidji Teachers College reserves in a game on the local floor. It will be the final game of the season for the Prowlers before the district tournament, which starts at East Grand Forks next Wednesday.

The revenge-seeking Prowlers poured through the Pirate defense for 17 points during the first period of the game last Friday night, while holding the Crookston team scoreless. Eddie Flasch took a hook pass from Russ Garnes and drove in for the first field goal; Lenny Lorentson, on a pivot shot, dumped in a field goal; Johnny Parbst looped a long shot into the net, Garnes pivoted into the free throw lane and lifted a shot into the hoop, and then followed with a free throw; Flasch lifted a one-handed shot into the basket, and then Eddie dove into a Crookston play, recovered the ball and dribbled in for a push-up shot; Parbst counted on a one-handed toss and Armand Pederson picked off a rebound and marked up a field goal. Crookston's sole threats at scoring during the period, with the exception of some long shots, were three free throw tries by Bill Ericson.

Garnes opened the second period with a one hander that found the basket; James Conner converted on a free throw try. Bill Bakken counted the Pirates first points, when his long shot from out court near the side-lines swished into the hoop; and Bill Morlan added a couple of Crookston points when he dropped in two free throws. Denny Althoff marked up a Prowler field goal on a pivot shot; and Orrin Pederson added a field goal on another pivot shot near the basket. Score at half-time being, Prowlers 24, Pirates 4.

Both teams played ragged ball during the second half, committing numerous fouls. Of the 28 points scored by the teams during the second half, 14 were marked up from the free throw line, with 19 personal fouls being charged against the players. The locals scored 7 points during the third period, on field goals by Flasch, Lorentson, and Armand Pederson, and a free throw by Parbst; while the Pirates were adding four points from the free throw line.

The final period, with reserves in the game, was an evenly played quarter, with the Prowlers counting 9 points and the Pirates scoring 8 points. Two field goals and a free throw by Gordy Reierson, three free throws by Garnes, and a free throw by Jimmy Conner, accounted for the locals points; while Bill Bakken, Carl Morken, Bill Ericson, and Charley Graham, connected for the Crookston counters.

In a preliminary game Coach John Lindenmeyer's Prowler reserves defeated Walt Schreia's Crookston reserves, 39 to 14. Leading scorers for the Prowlers "B" team were Gus Paulson and Milt Reierson, with 8 points each, and Bob Abbott with 7 points.

EIGHT QUINTS TO COMPETE TONIGHT IN SUB-DISTRICT

Smaller Schools Trying for Entry in the District Tournament

Eight teams from the smaller high schools in District 31 compete today and Friday in the East Grand Forks gym for four places in the district tournament March 13-15.

First-round draw: Goodridge vs. Plummer, 6 p. m. Thursday; St. Hilaire vs. Oslo, 5 p. m. Thursday; Red Lake Falls vs. Fisher, 7:30 p. m., Oslo vs. Climax, 8:30 p. m.

Winners of the first two games meet Friday at 10 a. m. and winners of the second pair clash at 11 a. m. The consolation final will be Friday at 7:30 p. m. and the sub-district title will be settled at 8:30 p. m.

Since four of the eight entries will earn places in the district meet, also scheduled in the East Side gym, winners of the opening games will advance to the bigger tourney.

Draw for the district meet will not be made until after the Crookston-Warren game this week, since the four big schools—East Grand Forks, Thief River Falls, Warren and Crookston—are seeded according to season play.

Officiating at the sub-district meet will be Gerald Caskey and Herbert Whiting of Bemidji.

R. M. EVANS, AAA HEAD TO TALK IN MOORHEAD MAR. 15

Chief Coming from Capital to Discuss Marketing Quotas

R. M. Evans, AAA administrator from Washington, will address two meetings of farmers in Minnesota Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15, Charles W. Stickney, chairman of the state AAA committee, announced today.

It is expected upwards of 6,000 farmers and businessmen will attend the meetings to be held in the St. Paul auditorium on Friday and in the municipal auditorium at Moorhead on Saturday. The meetings will start promptly at 1 p. m.

Due to the intense interest in marketing quotas shown by thousands of farmers at AAA educational meetings held thrughout the state this month, administrator Evans will devote a considerable portion of his talk to this subject. Agricultural problems brought about by the present world war and the part farmers must play in national defense will also be discussed.

Mr. Stickney will be chairman of the St. Paul meeting and will comment briefly on the 1941 farm program in his opening remarks. Director Paul E. Miller of the extension service will discuss contributions that the extension service can make toward attaining the objectives of the farm program.

At the Moorhead meeting, A. W. Berg, chairman of the Clay county Agricultural Conservation committee, will preside. Talks by Mr. Stickney and Director Miller will precede Administrator Evans' address.

OPOSSUM SURVIVES 3 MINNESOTA WINTERS

Hutchinson.— Although native of the South, the killing of an opossum near New Auburn several weeks ago revealed the fact that the animal can survive even a raw Minnesota winter—in fact, three of them. The opossum was brought to the Carl Bloomquist home in Hutchinson as a present when it was a baby and subsequently removed to a farm. Apparently discontented, the little animal refused to eat and was eventually liberated more than three years ago. Several weeks ago, in a stunted but otherwise healthy condition save for a few frozen toes, he was caught marauding in a farmyard near New Auburn and was clubbed to death.

PLANT TREES FOR WINDBREAK, SAYS CO. AGENT LERUD

Prospect Is for Excellent Moisture Condition This Spring

Almost every neighborhood in Pennington county has one or more farms on which a vigorous young windbreak is now growing. These point the way, declares County Agent Lester A. Lerud, for the many farmsteads totally without tree plantings of a protective nature and those where additional rows of trees are needed to make old groves or partially completed shelterbelts really successful.

Moisture conditions this spring are excellent for tree planting. Sturdy young trees set out early will get off to a good start and grow rapidly throughout the spring and summer, according to Clemens Kaufman, assistant extension forester at University Farm.

Time and labor necessary for planting can be reduced by early soil preparation. Land in fallow should be worked down and packed. Stubble land should be plowed deep and properly harrowed and packed in the same manner as land prepared for any grain crop. Planting on soddy land can be done most successfully if the ground is plowed and worked for one year. Sod can be prepared in one year, however, if it is disked three or four times, then plowed about eight inches deep and disked several more times.

Much of the planting stock needed can be secured without cost. Cottonwoods and willows can be grown successfully from cuttings of one to two-year-old wood 10 to 15 inches land and ½ to 1½ inches in diameter. Seedling ash and elm can often be found in old groves.

3 Conservation Booklets Available for Schools

The department of conservation this week had available for distribution to schools three conservation teaching pamphlets on selected subjects. Known as Conservation Teaching Aids Nos. 1, 2, and 3, the pamphlets are entitled "Game and Fish," "Stories of Conservation," and "Conservation Topics." Schools, instructors and others interested in receiving them should write the department of conservation, bureau of information, Room 18, state office building St. Paul, Minn. There is no charge.

Minnesota Draft Chief Tells Registrants to Bring Needed Supplies

The army won't furnish everything, Minnesota selective service registrants were warned Thursday.

State headquarters urged men who will be inducted into the army to have a full suit of civilian clothes, including overcoat and hat. Soldiers may wear civilian clothes when off duty and not on the military reservation.

Also needed are bath towels, light wool socks, extra underwear, plain white dress shirts, plain-toed or tan oxfords, shower shoes, plenty of handkerchiefs, extra coat-hangers, toothbrush, shaving equipment and other toilet accessories.

Cites State Burden in Connection with Rise in National Debt Limit

Since the federal debt limit now is increased to $65 billion, in connection with the National Defense Program, Minnesota's share of the federal debt, should it reach the $65 billion figure, would be $1,365,000,000, or an average of $488.81 for every man, woman, and child in the state, or of $2,009.13 for every family, according to figures issued by the Minnesota Taxpayers Association today, in emphasizing the need for reducing non-defense state expenditures in Minnesota.

These figures compare with Minnesota's share of a federal debt of $43 billion on what may be termed a pre-defense basis totaling $903,000,000.00 or an average of $323.29 per capita, or $1,329.13 per family.

"Great as the national defense necessities will be, coming on top of the existing tax burden, it appears likely that much of the current expansion in national defense activities will be financed only in part by additional taxes," President James P. McDonnell of the Minnesota Taxpayers Association said, in pointing out the figures.

"This debt is an obligation on the people of every state, adding to their existing state and local government debt obligations. Both in the matter of meeting present defense costs and future debts, is it not the part of wisdom and foresight to keep down non-defense costs in Minnesota, so as to expedite the defense program today."

Cong. Buckler Expected to Announce Retirement at End of Present Term

Rep. Richard Buckler, Minnesota's last Farmer-Labor member of congress, is ready to retire from active politics at the end of his present term.

The veteran Minnesota political figure who has served in public office for 30 years said in an interview in Washington, D. C., that he planned to formally announce his determination in April and "quit politics" January 3, 1943.

Buckler who then will be 77 years old, said he wanted to spend the rest of his years on his 1,280-acre farm near Crookston where he grows "practically every" crop and makes a hobby of sheep-raising.

Buckler has held many township and local school-district offices, served 12 years in the state senate and is serving his fourth two-year congressional term.

"I wouldn't accept another term even if they put me up without opposition," Buckler declared.

HAS EXCELLENT REASON FOR BEING ECCENTRIC

Aitkin—Before locking up an elderly man who had been reported to be "conducting himself in an eccentric manner", Sheriff Ned Price of Aitkin county made the customary search for weapons, asked the man if he had money he wished to turn in for safekeeping. The man fumbled through several layers of garments and pulled out a money belt containing sufficient reason for any degree of eccentricity. Secreted in the belt was $4,271.00.

LARGE MILEAGE OF GRAVEL ROADS IS HELD INADEQUATE

Commissioner Hoffman Cites Increased Car Operating Expense

Slightly more than 1,700 miles of gravel trunk highways, listed as "inadequate" for the traffic they bear in the road-adequacy study now being completed by the state highway department and the statewide highway planning survey, cost Minnesota motorists over two and a quarter millions of dollars a year in car-operating expense.

If another 1,561 miles of gravelled trunk highways, which are listed as adequate, were to be included the total annual cost to the motorists using gravelled trunks would be $3,023,000 a year more than if they were to drive the same distance on paved or bituminous surfaced highways.

These figures were arrived at by determining the average daily travel on all of the state trunk highways which remain in the gravel surface status, and applying to this volume of travel the results of car-operating cost studies jointly conducted during recent years, by the Iowa engineering experiment station and the United states bureau of public roads.

These car-operating cost studies, based on careful analysis and records of motor vehicle operations on highways of various surface types in three states, showed that the average cost of operating a passenger car is 1.03 cents per mile higher on gravel roads than on either concrete pavement or a smooth bituminous.

The studies as to adequacy of the Minnesota trunk highway system have been underway for some time and are being incorporated into a report for the Legislature. The conclusions are the result of more than three years of detailed investigation by the statewide highway planning survey, a joint project cooperated in by the Department of Highways, the U. S. Public Roads Administration and the Work Projects Administration.

Of 3,265 rural miles of gravelled state trunk highways 1,561 are considered adequate as to surface type, in that they carry not more than a year-around average of 200 motor vehicles a day, but 1,704 miles are termed inadequate in surface, since they carry from 200 up to 1,800 motor vehicles per day.

Patrolmen Aid 3,417, Warn 6,829, Make 803 Arrests in January

Seven thousand six hundred thirty-two motorists on Minnesota trunk highways were stopped by highway patrolmen during the month of January for various types of traffic law violations, and 803 of them were arrested for the more flagrant violations which have been shown to be responsible for a major share of traffic injuries and deaths.

Of the remainder, 3,550 were given either written or verbal warnings against repetition of less flagrant or unintentional offenses; 1,991 were issued tags requiring them to repair illegal and dangerous equipment such as defective lights, brakes and steering gears; and 1,288 were required to correct improper license tags.

Of the violators arrested, 124 were charged with excessive speed, 114 with running through a stop sign, 97 with careless driving, 85 with driving while drunk, 29 with improper passing, and 150 with driving a vehicle with dangerously defective equipment, according to the monthly report of Elden Rowe, highway patrol chief. Thirty-two were arrested for driving without a driver's license, and 67 with improper registration.

Out of the 1,991 "must repair" tags issued for defective equipment, 1,682 were caused by defective lights.

Six hundred seventeen of the motorists warned were given written warning tickets, which mean that a repetition of the offense will bring about arrest. Of these "do not repeat" tickets 162 were for excessive speed, 109 for running through stop signs, 55 for driving in the wrong lane, 33 for improper passing, and 194 were properly licensed drivers who, however, failed to have their driver's licenses in their possession as required by law.

WANTED; AGILE STAIR CLIMBER TO WIND CLOCK

Chaska.—The Chaska community is confronted with the problem of finding a willing caretaker for the aged town clock which has been informing the townspeople as to the time of day for the past 57 years but which stopped a few weeks ago and has not run since. Although old, the clock is not worn out, but being of early vintage, must be wound by hand. Age has made its present caretaker, Brother Cornelius Gossman unable to climb the 52 steps daily and the city council is now considering the creation of a small monthly salary for someone who will volunteer to climb the nearly 19,000 steps required each year to see that the clock is wound each day.

IN THE STATE SENATE

By Senator E. L. Tungseth

There has lately been much interest shown by the state legislature in the need for a new state institution which will provide necessary institutional care for the feeble minded. Every county in the state has a large list of such patients who cannot be admitted to the present institutions because of lack of room. Early in the session I introduced a concurrent resolution calling for the necessary investigation so that the following session of our Legislature might be fully informed and possess the necessary recommendations relative to the site and cost of such an institution. Since then much additional information has come to the Senate and the general opinion appears to be that we should build this institution now and that in building it now, we may make use of Federal WPA funds.

Acting on this additional information, the Senate Public Welfare Committee, of which I am a member, introduced a bill last Friday, Senate File 772, which sets up the necessary mechanics both for the selection of site and construction of the institution, carrying an appropriation of $2,000,000. At my request, the committee unanimously voted to so word this bill that the institution be placed in Northern Minnesota. I believe that our part of the state is entitled to such an institution since it is the general practice of the state to spread these institutions out and our part of the state has no major institution. I believe that the city of Thief River Falls with its railroad facilities and with the many highways which lead into this northern Minnesota metropolis should be selected as the site for this new institution.

Another matter in which our people are vitally interested is that of the replacement of the four cent gasoline tax. The reduction of one cent tax per gallon has severely reduced the allotments to rural counties by the State Highway Department for state aid. Because of the urgent need in rural Minnesota for the restoration of the four cent gasoline tax, I introduced such a bill, S. F. 96, early in the session. The House of Representatives has already passed a bill which restores the four cent gasoline tax. This House File, together with my Senate File, is now in the Senate Committee on Motor Vehicles and Tax Laws. The Senate Committee will conduct a hearing on this subject matter Wednesday afternoon, March 5th. I am not a member of this committee but trust that it will give the measure favorable recommendation.

We also have another bill introduced which is as fine an example of trick legislation as anything can possibly be. It proposes to increase the counties' share of highway funds, and presents an amendment to the state constitution whereby each county will share in its respective license fees. This idea was, I believe, presented to the state convention of county commissioners by none other than state auditor, Stafford King. The net result will be a considerable loss for our highway fund and a very small amount proportioned to rural counties throughout our state. It is, of course, somewhat reasonable for the three large counties and cities of our state whose highway program has already been well taken care of to disregard the need of highway construction in the rural sections of our state. Fortunately, such a proposal must be submitted to the people of Minnesota by way of a constitutional amendment. It will, no doubt, be defeated and it should be defeated. It is an attempt by the three large first class cities and their respective counties to obtain a still larger share of highway funds.

The State Highway Department reapportions one-third of all gasoline tax revenues to the counties of our state. This is in accord with our present constitution. Therefore, the larger the gasoline tax, the larger will be the reapportionment to each county. The constitution in this matter determines that not more than three per cent of such reapportioned funds shall be given to any one county. However, while most of the rural counties have suffered a severe reduction since our state has collected only three cents per gallon taxation, the counties of Hennepin, Ramsey and St. Louis have continued to receive a maximum amount. Now they want still more and are trying to get a large slice of the funds that come in by virtue of license fees. It is surprising that a rural Senator like Sletvold of Becker County will lend his support to such legislation which will deprive rural Minnesota of the reasonable and necessary funds for trunk highway construction and maintenance.

Ginger Rogers and James Stewart Win Movie Honor

A nimble footed Charleston dancer turned dramatic and a lanky actor Hollywood once kept buried like a case ace are the new queen and king of the movies.

Ginger Rogers and James Stewart are the newest winners of the awards signifying best performance given by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

Ginger won with her portrayal in "Kitty Foyle", and Stewart by his work in "The Philadelphia Story."

They, as well as a score of others, were called to the podium of a banquet hall jammed with celebrities and fellow workers last night to be handed statuettes which have been dubbed Oscars.

"Rebecca" was the year's best motion picture opinion of the academy's 12,000 voters.

SAFETY CONTEST WINNERS LISTED BY STATE BUREAU

25 Cities Go Thru Year without Single Traffic Fatality

Cities and counties, winners in 1940 Minnesota safety contests, are announced today by A. V. Rohweder, president of the Minnesota Safety Council.

In the Minnesota traffic safety contest four cities and four counties win Governor's award trophies in that many population groups. Fifty-one cities and towns are entered in the contest and of these twenty-five went through the entire year without a single traffic accident fatality. The number of cities and towns achieving this commendable status has been increasing steadily since inauguration of the traffic safety contest in 1934 and it has been necessary for safety activities as well as traffic fatalities to be taken into consideration to determine winners.

Winner of top place in group "B", cities having 100,000 or more population, is Minneapolis, with St. Paul and Duluth following in close order.

First place in group "C", cities having 10,000 to 100,000 population, goes to Austin, with South St. Paul, Virginia, Albert Lea and Brainerd strong contenders.

Ely is rated highest in group "D", cities with 5,000 to 10,000 population. Columbia Heights and Little Falls each achieved many credit points in this group because of having had no traffic fatalities in the past three years.

First place in group "E", cities having 3,000 to 5,000 population, goes to Marshall. This city, St. Peter and Warren also have had no traffic deaths in three years.

In the county groups Ottertail is given first place in group "A", counties having 50,000 or more population; Olmsted first in group "AI", counties having 20,000 to 50,000 population; Marshall in group "AII", counties having 10,000 to 20,000 population and Hubbard first place in group "AIII", counties having less than 10,000 population.

U EXPERIMENTERS ENDORSE LIST OF GRAIN VARIETIES

Agricultural Test Station Adds Several More Kinds to List

New varieties such as Rival wheat and Emerald and Wisconsin Pedigree No. 0 rye now join Thatcher wheat, Gopher oats, and other well-established grains on the list of recommended varieties prepared annually by the Minnesota Agricultural Experiment Station. The new list has just been announced by the division of agronomy and plant genetics at University Farm. All recommended varieties have been tested for yielding ability and disease resistance on experimental plots and have the joint approval of University agronomists, plant breeders, and pathologists. A brief summary of these recommendations follows:

Wheat—Thatcher and a new spring wheat, Rival, are recommended for southern Minnesota. Rival wheat was developed by the North Dakota Experiment Station and is more resistant to scab and leaf rust than Thatcher. However, Rival shatters more easily and has a weaker stem.

Oats — Recommended early maturing varieties include Gopher, Iogold, and Nakota; mid-early maturing, Minrus; and medium-maturing, Rusota. Vanguard, another medium-maturing oat, has been added to the list for northwestern Minnesota, while Anthony remains on the list only as a possible choice for the cutover region of northeastern Minnesota.

Barley—Wisconsin 38 and Velvet are still the best choices in the smooth awn varieties, while Peatland is the only approved rough awn barley. Many brewers consider Peatland of poorer malting quality than Wisconsin 38 and Velvet.

Rye—Wisconsin Pedigree No. 0 and Emerald, Minnesota No. 107, join Dakold on the recommended list for all parts of the state. Rosen is suitable for southern Minnesota only.

Flax—The old favorites, Redwing for southern Minnesota and Bison for the Red River Valley, are the flax varieties best suited to Minnesota conditions. Buda is also recommended for northwestern Minnesota.

Kitty's Kitchen Klatter

The double petunia holds the stage of attraction today with three lovely, frilly blossoms. Jokes are cracked about these flowers (remember Gildersleeve's petunias), but just the same, when it comes to showy, pretty blossoms that take a minimum amount of care, give me the petunias. And if you want something really beautiful get some seeds of the double variety. A double petunia placed with your houseplants in the fall will delight you with its bright green foliage and gorgeous blossoms.

You may have some trouble getting the seeds to grow when planting directly in the garden. The seeds are so minute. Plant them in boxes just like tomatoes, keeping the soil moist so that the tiny seed can germinate.

After you've had them in the garden one year, you'll find you'll have plenty transplants from then on. They seed themselves.

GRYGLA

P. T. A. Party

The Grygla school auditorium was the scene of much merriment Friday evening when the men of the P. T. A. entertained the ladies at a party. Plans for the entertainment had been kept strictly secret so there had been much speculation by the ladies as to what was in store for the evening. However, everyone who attended felt fully repaid for the suspense as the party was a rousing success and the evening progressed without even one dull moment. Entertainment consisted of two songs by the male members of the P. T. A. accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Knutson and a comic skit, "Another Morning Episode", which was very humorous and was presented by John Gonnering, Carl Holbrook, Elmer Hylland, Alfred Swanberg, John Stewart, A. Bendix, Isaacson, and Mike Teigland. The highlight of the evening came when Clarence Doran, who announced the program, told us that by paying another 5c we could remain in our seats and see the quintuplets. Eager expectancy was rewarded when five very unfeminine chorus girls made their appearance on the stage and to the accompaniment of Charlie Knutson and Robert Thorson, playing the piano and violin respectively, showed the audience a very skillful dance routine. The next number was an impromptu contest presented by ten lady volunteers who were each supposed to imitate a famous person. This was followed by a card passing relay race.

A lovely three-course lunch was then served by the gentlemen who had donned white caps and aprons; the first course consisted of appetizers such as crackers, sardines and limburger cheese, the second course consisted of sandwiches and salad and cake and ice cream completed the lunch. The final event of the evening was the singing of "Goodnight Ladies", by our hosts. Proceeds for the evening will be entered in the P. T. A. treasury and totalled $24.89.

MIKE HOLM PAYS UP AN OLD DEBT

Warroad—Explaining a $5 check received recently from Mike Holm, Secretary of State, W. J. Gerey of Warroad explained to the friend that back in 1896 he had owned a banjo which had struck Mike's fancy and $7.50 was settled on for the price of the instrument. Mr. Holm made a down payment of $5 and shortly thereafter Gerey left the country. A few weeks ago the Secretary of State was reminded of the banjo, its purchase and the money he still owed Gerey so he sent him a check for $5 to cover the balance due plus interest.

One can run into debt but he usually comes crawling out.

LEGISLATORS ARE GIVING ATTENTION TO TAX MEASURES

Solons Receive Proposals to Reduce Levies on Real Property

With the legislative session near the half-way mark, members of the two houses this past week turned their attention increasingly to the major problem of taxes.

Two different proposals for constitutional amendments that would place definite limitations on the total taxes that might be levied on real estate and personal property were advanced in bills introduced during the week, and the senate tax committee sent on its way, with a favorable recommendation a bill providing for submission of a constitutional amendment which would abolish the state tax on property.

The bill recommended by the senate tax committee, sponsored by Senators A. O. Sletvold, Val Imm and O. J. Finstad, would allow the state to levy a tax on property only to cover debt incurred prior to January 1st, 1942, when the amendment would become effective if approved by the people. This would bring about the gradual elimination of the state tax on property, now about 10 mills, authors of the bill point out, and reserve the property tax to local units of government.

One proposal for tax limitation, advanced by Representative Warren R. Moore of Duluth and Senator Milton Lightner of St. Paul, includes a statutory bill setting up a limitation for 1940 and 1941 and a bill submitting a constitutional amendment prescribing limitations for succeeding years.

Under this plan the taxes levied on property in 1941 would have to be at least 8 per cent less than the mill rate for 1940 and the amount levied in 1942 would have to be 6 per cent less than the rate for 1940. Under the amendment the rate for 1943 would have to be 3 per cent less than the rate for 1942, and a reduction of 3 per cent would have to be made each year until 1952, after which the rate would have to be held down to the point then reached. The funds needed for debt incurred prior to January 1st, 1943, and employees' pension and retirement funds would be outside the limitation.

Another bill proposing a constitutional amendment, introduced by Representatives L. C. Dixon, John A. Johnson, A. M. Burnap, A. H. Nelson and Herd Wheaton, would make it impossible, if the people approve, for the state and other governmental units to levy a tax on real and personal property in excess of 1 1-2 per cent of the full and true value, with not more than 10 per cent going to the state. An additional levy of 1-2 of a per cent might be made in emergencies, when approved by not less than 60 per cent of the electors in a given district. Funds needed for debt contracted before effective date of the act would be outside the limitation.

Careless Walking Is Cause of 23 Deaths in January and February

With official accident reports for February not yet complete, 23 pedestrians already have been killed in traffic since the first of the year, the department disclosed this week.

Most of these fatalities have resulted from careless walking and 11 of the deaths, or approximately 50 per cent, have definitely been shown to have resulted from outright violation of traffic regulations on the part of the victims themselves. Completion of accident reports on those fatalities occurring the latter part of February will undoubtedly show that an even larger percent were due to law violations.

Major pedestrian offenses against traffic rules, which contributed to the 23 fatalities were:

1. Walking on the wrong side of the road, with traffic, instead of on the left side of the road facing vehicular traffic—a practice which is not only illegal but is extremely precarious at night.
2. Crossing streets and highways at other than intersections—a practice which may save a few steps but cost a life.
3. Attempting to hitch rides on passing vehicles.
4. Crossing signalized intersections against the red light.

Eleven pedestrians were killed during January, the traffic accident reports of the Highway department show, and of these 7, or approximately 64 per cent, were in violation of the law at the time of the accident.

VERDICT GIVEN FOR DEFENDENT IN DEATH CASE

Jury Finds Charles Olson Innocent after Being out Eight Hours

JURORS DISMISSED SATURDAY EVENING

Numerous Criminal Actions are Disposed of During Court Session

The petit jury in Pennington county district court was dismissed from further duty by Judge O. R. Knutson Saturday evening after returning a verdict of not guilty in the case of the state vs. Charles Olson, who was charged with criminal negligence following the death of Laverne Royal of St. Hilaire in an automobile collision two miles north of St. Hilaire last October.

Four days were occupied in the selection of the jury and trial of the case, which went to the jury Saturday noon after County Attorney Paul Lundgren and Defense Attorney H. O. Chommie had made their pleas. The jury returned its verdict at 8:30 Saturday evening after having called on the court once for further clarification of points at issue.

Olson, employed as a farm laborer in Smiley, had been arrested in an intoxicated condition on Riverside av. two hours after the fatal accident, suspicion having been drawn to him by a cut on his forehead, altho a physical examination had revealed no other bruises on his body. The prosecution was unable to bring forward any witnesses to the fact that Olson had been the driver of the pickup truck that figured in the collision.

Stricken from the calendar were the cases of the City of Thief River Falls vs. County of Pennington; O. N. Urdahl vs. Even Schulestad; and D. D. Simmons vs. F. H. Peavey company et al. Actions continued over the term included a second case of Verna Schmitz vs. Schuyler Schmitz; and J. Albert Peterson, administrator, vs. C. E. McCracken. Other civil cases will be disposed of without a jury.

C. B. Bradley, charged with unlawful barbering, pleaded guilty and was given a ninety-day sentence, which was suspended. Orlando Cousin, Leland Y. Knight and Arne Tenem pleaded guilty in paternity proceedings, while another similar case involving Cousin was continued, and the action against Raynold Schramm was stricken from the calendar. The action against Philip Doucette on a reckless driving charge was continued, while Albert Struble, charged with taking indecent liberties, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve thirty days in jail.

1,500 ATTENDED L. O'L. MEETING LAST THURSDAY

Auditorium Was Packed to Capacity for Program in Afternoon

JOHN BRANDT GAVE PRINCIPAL ADDRESS

All District Officers Were Retained in Annual Election

The annual meeting of District 17, Land O'Lakes Creameries, in Thief River Falls last Thursday was the most successful in the recent history of the cooperative enterprise, approximately 1,500 persons filling the municipal Auditorium to capacity for the afternoon session. Stuart McLeod, district president, was in charge of the meeting.

John Brandt of Minneapolis, president of Land O'Lakes Creameries, was the principal speaker, calling attention to the fact that this summer will be observed the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the big cooperative.

The organization, he stated, was started in 1921 without a dollar in an effort to develop better dairy marketing facilities, and in the past two decades has developed into the best known cooperative in the world with assets of more than one million dollars.

Discussing national problems, Mr. Brandt spoke in favor of the repeal of the present social security and wages and hours acts, and their reanactment on a more equitable basis to all concerned. He also expressed concern over the nation plunging deep into debt without giving thought to the matter of repayment. Such a course, he declared, can lead only to bankruptcy and dictatorship.

The afternoon program opened with selections by the Lincoln high school chorus directed by Miss Ruth E. Nelson, followed by an address of welcome by Morris Bye in behalf of the Civic and Commerce association. Mr. Bye paid tribute to the contribution made by residents of the surrounding rural areas to the progress shown by this city in past years.

John Lager, field man, presented awards to the winners of the district cream grading and efficiency contests as announced in the Times last week. In the annual district election held at the close of the afternoon, all present officers were retained, including Mr. McLeod, chairman; P. S. Erdmann, first vice chairman; Ella Grahn,

STATE AID ROADS TO BE POSTED IN SPRING BREAKUP

Load Limit of 3½ Tons Will Become Effective When Frost Goes Out

At the March 4th meeting of the Pennington county board, a resolution was passed placing a load limit of 3½ tons gross weight on the state aid roads in this county and County Highway Engineer J. A. Erickson was authorized and instructed to have signs prepared and posted along the roads.

This action is taken in an endeavor to avoid excessive damage to the county road surfaces during the spring breakup, and the 3½ ton gross weight load limit will be posted on the state aid roads at the same time the state trunk highways are posted for load limits.

It would be well for those who have heavy hauling to do, to anticipate their needs for the near future and have this hauling done while the frost is in the ground, said Mr. Erickson, adding that in cases of emergency or services that cannot be delayed some special arrangement must be made.

It is anticipated by the county board that users of the county highways will cooperate by conforming to the posted notices. However the cooperation of the sheriff's office has been assured to enforce the resolution.

STATE PLANS ROAD IMPROVEMENTS IN T. R. FALLS REGION

C. & C. Road Committee Confers with State Highway Chief

That a considerable amount of work is in prospect for this year on state highways tributary to Thief River Falls was the word brought back to the city by F. A. Hinkel, chairman of the road committee of the Civic and Commerce association, who, with W. E. Dahlquist, conferred late last week in St. Paul with M. J. Hoffman, state highway commissioner.

Mr. Hoffman stated that the program includes the rebuilding of Highway 32 between this city and Red Lake Falls, with a new approach to Thief River Falls from the south along the Great Northern tracks west of the sewage disposal plant, eliminating three curves. Several curves also will be eliminated on the highway northeast of Red Lake Falls.

Some construction work is also in prospect on Highway 1 east from this city to Goodridge, in addition to which the road is scheduled for oil treatment. Another improvement on the approved list is the application of a stabilized base surface on the new section of Highway 59 between Plummer and Brooks.

It was also reported by the local men that there is some prospect of the remaining ten-mile section between Brooks and the paving at Erskine being constructed late this year.

RURAL CREDITS ISSUE IS TOPIC IN LEGISLATURE

Senator Solstad, Committee Head, Estimates Loss at Big Total

DEPARTMENT ASSETS TOTAL $25,000,000

Propose State Levy of One and One-Half Mills to Apply on Debt

A new plan to attempt further salvage from the state's ill-fated $60,000,000 rural credits venture by refinancing through a $40,000,000 appropriation was announced Saturday by Senator Alfred Solstad, Fisher, chairman of the senate rural credits committee.

Senator Solstad's committee has been working on the proposal for weeks, consulting with George C. Jones, state rural credits conservator; the attorney general's office and the state investment board.

Before the job is finished, according to Senator Solstad, the state's interest in the rural credits project will reach almost $65,000,000. This much capital will be necessary to liquidate the entire indebtedness.

How much the state finally will lose on the deal will be determined presumably by the degree of success of the new efforts. Some previous estimates of the ultimate loss ranged up to $28,000,000. Loss of interest already totals about $19,000,000.

Part of the answer may be known by the end of next year when the remaining 2,800 farms held by the bureau are sold. In two years, the department has sold 2,428 farms, all going back on the tax rolls.

Senator Solstad, explaining the new rural credits picture from a taxpayers viewpoint, said:

"It will take approximately $65,000,000 to liquidate the entire indebtedness. The department has approximately $25,000,000 of assets toward liquidation of this debt in cash, farms owned and mortgages and contracts outstanding. It will therefore require approximately $40,000,000 of additional funds to complete liquidation.

"A bill ready for introduction provides for these funds and a tax levy of not less than $1,800,000 a year for 22 years to gradually retire this bond indebtedness. This will make a mill rate per year on all property in the state of about 1½ mills per year.

"It also provides for the refinancing of bond issues if required. It makes all bond issues to be issued under this plan callable after three years.

"One of the things overlooked when the rural credits department started functioning in 1923 was that it could not be foreseen that interest rates would take as large a drop as they have. None of the rural credits bond issues were therefore made callable which in part accounts for the huge interest lost sustained by the state.

"The loss of interest sustained by the state over the entire period of operation now totals about $19,000,000 which means that the state has paid out that much more interest on its bonds than collected from its borrowers."

Senator Solstad reviewed efforts of the legislature to save as much of the original investment as possible, citing laws enacted in the last four years reducing interest from five and one-half per cent to four per cent and enabling former owners to have the first chance to repurchase their homes.

Girl Scout Notes

Girl Scout Anniversary Week—March 12th-18th

Yesterday, March 12, was the beginning of Girl Scout Anniversary Week, which is being celebrated until March 18 all over the world, as the Girl Scout organization covers the entire globe. Using this idea as its theme, our local council recently completed a clever window display in the Northern State Bank building showing Girl Scouts around the globe.

Girl Scouting stands for good citizenship in a democracy, and because it stands for that, it has been fostered and aided by nations that want their citizens to grow up to think for themselves, be self-reliant, resourceful, active participants in their own government.

The membership of the Girl Scout and Brownie troops in this city has now reached a grand total of 115 members. There are also 50 graduate Girl Scouts in the community, some of whom are assisting with Scout work now.

Auxiliary Notes

All Legion Auxiliary members and other women interested in Community Service are asked to register on March 15 from 10 a. m. on at the Palm Garden.

This registration is for the purpose of an Emergency Voluntary Service in case of cyclones, floods, fires or any other disaster which may occur either locally or nationally.

Let us all get behind this and show our community that the women of Thief River Falls are service minded.

INTEREST SHOWN IN POTATO TRAIN IN CITY TUESDAY

State Extension Specialists Address Meeting in Afternoon

The potato train on the Great Northern tracks at Thief River Falls on Tuesday attracted a large number of visitors. The two baggage cars had a dozen booths demonstrating improved potato growing practices, and methods of marketing potatoes. Large colored displays illustrated the various potato diseases, and insects that are prevalent in potato fields. How the various losses could be prevented were also shown in the various exhibits.

At the meeting in the afternoon A. G. Tolaas, in charge of the state seed certification, and R. C. Rose, extension potato specialist, pointed out the various problems faced by potato growers. Colored slides that were shown illustrated very well the tests under which certified potatoes must undergo and some of the common diseases of potatoes. They pointed out in their discussions what the possibilities are for growers of raising choice seed stock in this section of the state where fields can be kept quite isolated.

Paul Wagner, of the Great Northern railroad, presented a clear picture of what is required in the way of potatoes on the table stock market at the present time. Uniform potatoes that have been washed and carefully packaged and graded so as to be used as a baking potato, or whatever grade the consumer demands, are some of the new requirements for the table stock market. The necessity of more rigid grading, and labeling of grades were pointed out as necessities. The need for a program to control marketing of poor quality potatoes was also pointed out, as well as a program to regain some of the market for table stock potatoes.

Halvor Ekeren, former resident of this city and now of Chicago, Ill., arrived Tuesday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf H. Ekeren.

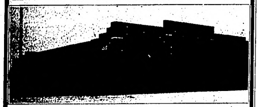
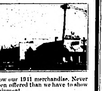
• FARM AND IMPLEMENT NEWS •



30th Anniversary Friday, March 21st



Friday, March 21st, marks the day of exactly thirty years since we started in business on our corner in Thief River Falls.

We are inviting our friends and customers to celebrate the day with us.

We are planning a program, much on the same order of our usual spring opening. Serving lunch at noon, with movies and a few short talks during the afternoon.

Most important of the event is after all to show our 1941 merchandise. Never before has better farm equipment and tractors been offered than we have to show you. McCormick-Deering and Minnesota farm equipment.

The 1941 International trucks are outstanding and rank tops.

The Nash and Studebaker automobiles for 1941 are in the lowest price bracket. They are also first place in gasoline economy, giving from 25 to 30 miles per gallon. They are the surprise to all in the 1941 values.

We want to show you what we have and feel confident you will be pleased and this is your special invitation.

We will arrange special registration and door prizes for the day. It is our intentions to do our best in making it interesting for all day.

It will be impossible for us to give any shop repair service on the day of our program March 21st. Program and movies will be in our service shop.

Of special interest to all farmers will be the showing of the New McCormick-Deering Diesel Tractors.

USED CARS

Anyone interested in good value used cars will find in our present stock some exceptionally outstanding values. All reconditioned to prove satisfaction of any buyer.

GRAIN DRILLS

Right now we have five rebuilt grain drills at exceptional bargains.

HORSES

We have fourteen very good farm horses now and no doubt will have more later, but in the bunch on hand are some exceptional values. Different ages, most of them young horses, all native raised and ready for spring work.

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION

With electricity now going out to the farms on a large scale we must call your special attention to our display of Kelvinator refrigerators. Several farmers have already bought Kelvinators of us this winter and we know they will be more than pleased, just the same as our Kelvinator customers in town.

SERVICE & REPAIR PARTS

We have tried to build our business from the very beginning on service to our trade and especially in stocking replacement parts, and still feel justified in claiming that we have the best repair service, second to none, in the Northwest. It pays to buy the new machine to which you get the best service when the machine needs replacement parts.

THE CITIES ARE IN DISTRESS

Minneapolis and St. Paul are having serious financial difficulties and are asking for a more sympathetic attitude from the rural areas of the state in matters of taxation and the distribution of state funds. There probably is some justification for their plea. It is possible that in some things the rural areas, having unquestioned control of the legislature, have been unfair to the large cities.

We are inclined to believe, however, that most of the difficulties now being encountered by the large cities are due to their own mistakes and mismanagement and it would be much easier for us to sympathize with them if they would show more inclination toward correcting their own errors.

Minneapolis and St. Paul are good cities. We like them and their people. It is not pleasant to see them so down at the heel that they cannot at least maintain the appearance of orderliness and cleanliness. We visited them last week and really were disturbed by the many evidences of shiftlessness. Snow had been shoved back from the center of streets and piled high in the gutters just as was done in small towns years ago. Cleaning the streets would have provided work for a vast army of unemployed.

No doubt Minnesota's great cities need assistance just as some rural counties have needed, and received, assistance in the past. But it will serve no good purpose to extend aid to our city cousins until they prove themselves capable of managing their own affairs. To go on borrowing year after year as they have done, refusing to balance their budgets either by increasing their revenue or decreasing their costs, proves them quite incapable according to the standards of our banker, who is a small town guy. Maybe the thing to do, if the farmers must intervene, would be to throw them into receivership and appoint a committee of township officials to run their affairs for them for a while. Most township officials have learned, by personal experience, how to live within their means.

A LONG WAR BUT WE WILL WIN

Now that the lend-lease bill has been adopted it may be expected that the process of converting our country into a military machine will be speeded up. Our country is now moving in a definite direction. We have agreed upon a specific course to be followed. We have adopted a program that may require a great sacrifice. Whether or not we are proceeding in the right direction time alone will tell. The important thing is that to a large majority of our people, it seems to be the right thing to do.

Certain it is that there are no delusions about the course we are following. It is a course that offers no promise of gain. All that we can hope for is that success will enable us to retain our liberties. We have deliberately abandoned neutrality as a national policy because we have learned from observation that to be neutral is to invite disaster. We are now allied with many nations thruout the world that are resisting the aggressors. It is a union of democracies that was slow in forming, perhaps too slow, but finally forced upon us by the realization that liberty, as we understand it, can survive only by the united effort of free people.

It seems probable that the war will last a long time. Hitler cannot now hope to strike a blow that will force the allies to a quick peace. He may take the British Isles but that will not end the fight. Japan may conquer the Orient but the war will go on. Eventually they will fall, possibly not because of the superior might of their opposition but more likely because of the uprisings of desperate people in the countries they have attempted to subdue. It is inconceivable that such people as the Hollanders, Belgians, Norwegians and Danes will long submit to slavery. France is still a factor to be considered and the fact that Hitler has not pushed through to the Mediterranean is proof that he still respects the French armies that are intact in the French colonies. The Chinese, given adequate supplies, will eventually impoverish Japan.

It is quite probable that our country's promise of economic support, assured by passage of the lease-lend bill, will prove to be a deciding factor in the final outcome of the war. It adds greatly to the difficulties of the dictators not only because it strengthens the resolve of the nations that are resisting them but also because it will do much to break the morale of their own people, removing all hope, as it does, for a speedy victory.

So you want seven billion dollars to carry out your program of defense authorized by the lease-lend bill, Mr. President. That's fine. If that isn't enough come back for more. We know it's going to mean some tough scratching for all of us to pay the bill but we'll worry about that later on. The immediate problem is to stop the gang of insane world conquerors who are on the loose and we agree with you that it will be cheaper to spend a few billions now to keep the other fellows fighting than to wait until we have to fight it out alone. So shoot the works, Mr. President, and don't pull your punches. But Mr. President, won't you please consider the needs for strict economy in some of the other departments of your government. As long as we are building a great army in the military sense, why not try to reduce the army of civilian bureaucrats who are still running around the country wasting our good money in shameful ways. We are sure you could build several battleships a year with what could be saved by consolidating a few of your alphabet organizations, and without injury to the public. A little consideration along this line, Mr. President, would be most encouraging to those of us who know we are going to be called on to foot the bill.

A red hot finish for the hockey season is in prospect for tonight. Two good teams are fighting it out for championship honors and one guess is as good as another as to the result. Yes, the game is to be played here at the Arena.

C. T. Slinger Dies Wednesday, March 12; Funeral Rites Sunday

Christopher T. Slinger, who was born on March 15, 1869 in Lancashire, England, passed away at his home at 421 Duluth Ave. S. on Wednesday, March 12 at the age of 71 years, 11 months, and 27 days. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. S. S. Olafsson from the Erickson & Lund Funeral Home on Sunday, March 16 at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

In 1909 he returned to England where he was married in January 1910 to Miss Margaret Longworth, after which they returned to Winnebago. His wife preceded him in death in 1911. In 1919 he moved to a farm in Norden Township, and in 1938 he moved to this city where he lived until his death.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor the Times:

We, as residents of the rural area and the city of Thief River Falls and average taxpayers, feel that 95% of the taxpayers within the boundaries of Pennington County follow in this particular class, we are of the opinion that we are fairly well acquainted throughout the County, in fact, we have visited many of the taxpayers' homes throughout the County over a period of years and have made many acquaintances with the families in the city of Thief River Falls and throughout the County. The Pennington County Taxpayers Association is trying to represent all the taxpayers in the County, particularly the smaller property owners.

A few weeks ago the Pennington County Taxpayers Association appointed a committee to meet with the County Commissioners to discuss some of the problems that are confronting the taxpayers of this county. They were called d— liars by Mr. Frank Race. He threatened to call the Sheriff to throw the group out of the room and to prefer charges against us for disorderly conduct.

In order that the taxes of Pennington county may be reduced it must be remembered that it is very essential that the expenditures be curtailed extensively. As taxpayers we are all interested to know something about our expenditures and it is the intention of the Taxpayers Association, from time to time, to keep the taxpayers of the county informed as to the financial status and the expenditures of the County as it may be.

Recently we called to the attention of the taxpayers of this County that there was a bill being presented to the Legislative Body at St. Paul increasing the County Commissioners salaries from $420 to $600 per year. Below are some figures received from various counties of the Northwestern part of Minnesota as a comparison check relative to the salaries paid to the various commissioners in the different counties and you can readily see that our Commissioners' salaries now compare favorably with the other County Commissioners.

County	Population 1941	Sq. Mile Area	Assessed Valuation 1938	Yearly Salary
Red Lake	7,413	432	$ 1,912,524	$ 300.00
Polk	37,734	1979	12,635,157	600.00
Clearwater	11,153	1019	1,268,003	225.00
Marshall	18,364	1788	5,361,308	325.00
Kittson	10,717	1111	4,309,455	325.00
Roseau	15,103	1670	2,273,953	480.00
Pennington	12,913	607	3,627,566	420.00

We also want to quote the figures and mileage-per diem of the Pennington County Commissioners for the year 1939:

O. M. Mandt	$420.00	$492.30	$912.30
Paul Roy	420.00	361.40	781.40
W. H. Mulry	420.00	199.55	619.55
Frank Race	420.00	323.75	743.75
Alfred Bredeson	420.00	290.15	710.15

Our Commissioners are well paid for the time they spend in behalf of the county. There was a total of $10,848.74 spent for weed and brush cutting on the right-of-ways of the Pennington County road system for the year 1940. Our County Engineer's salary for 1940 was $2,400, mileage for using his personal car he collected $1,139.80. As you all know, our County Engineer is running his personal car and the taxpayers of this county are paying him five cents per mile, that means that he drove his car on County business for a total of 22,796 miles—a lot of miles run.

For the year 1940 our County Commissioners expended for all road purposes within the boundary line of Pennington County approximately $120,000. It must be remembered that we still have $813,000 worth of bonds outstanding as of Dec. 31, 1939 and under such a rapid rate of spending, it is impossible to retire this bond.

We want to take this opportunity to thank Mr. S. N. Olson of Route 5 and Mr. John P. Erickson of Goodridge, Minnesota for their comments relative to the high cost of brushing and the salaries of the County Commissioners.

How many taxpayers of Pennington County know that there was a bill passed in 1931 increasing the County Commissioners salaries from $225 to $420 per year? This bill was passed by the Legislative Body without any knowledge to the taxpayers of this County.

Yours respectfully,
Pennington County Taxpayers Association.

Dear Editor:

A word to our legislature in Minnesota. There is a pension for blind people in our state, but no pension for those who are paralyzed in both hands and feet. This is not right. Surely the blind people are helpless in many things, but those who are totally paralyzed in both hands and feet are in lots worst condition as they must have help for everything. I hereby ask our lawmakers to have this corrected. You people who read this please write to your representatives about this.

John Seaverson
Thief River Falls, Minn.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

Puppet Show

Another puppet show will be held today in the arena puppet theatre beginning at 4:20 o'clock. Today's show will be "Nicodemus and His Houn' Dog". Last week's show drew another large crowd. A new enthusiasm is being shown in favor of these weekly productions. Parents with pre-school children have been coming more and more. These youngsters really show joy as the animated characters go through their performances.

Handicraft Classes

In connection with handicraft work, some new art classes have been formed. Great response has been shown toward this new work. Interest is still high in handicraft work. Each day new articles are being turned out. At present the girls are working on some intricate weaving designs and work. Wooden bilts and necklaces are also being made.

Arena Craft Shop

The shop is closed at the present time, but will be open as soon as the new equipment is installed. As has been announced before, new power equipment and hand tools will be set up in the shop. Opening of the shop under these conditions, new tools and all, will be very soon. Persons interested in working at the shop are asked to keep an eye open for information concerning the opening date. It will be announced in the paper. Bernard Langevin will be in charge of the shop.

Miscellaneous

The toboggan slide has been closed. Likewise, supervision has been taken away from the arena ice and the school rinks. Winter activities on the program are giving way to spring games and events. The arena is chuck full of recreational activities for all those wanting to make use of them. When it is too wet to be outside, the arena is a good place to spend leisure time. Parents as well as children are invited to make use of these facilities. Puppetry, many game room activities, low organized games for smaller children, ping pong, handicraft and art work are some of the activities open to everyone in the community without charge.

"Dodging work is the hardest work of all and pays the poorest salary.

By Tom Benson

Lovely Priscilla Spring, as she has been called, threatened to make her annual debut last week end. And the warning she sent in the form of thawing winds, a smiling sun, and a clear, fresh tang in the air did impish things to the emotions of the Resident Center boys. Thus with the first soft shadows of evening the boys could be seen traipsing off to promote dates with the fair sex.

Sunday eve the student body elected a staff of officers in the following order: President, Lynn Stenseth; vice president, R. Krowech; secretary-treasurer, E. Eide; student councilman, T. Benson, Dennis Norland; sergeant-at-arms, Charles Dunbar; board of sanitation, Jack Barron, Tom Benson, and Albert Ready; board of justice, Joseph Passi, Arthur Slawson, and Lester Rivard.

Last week was paint and turpentine week for the boys on the project. They grinned and sang through turpentine tears, and were as exuberant and gay when they crawled out of their overalls, bedabbled and bespattered with all shades and shapes of paint in the evening as they were in the morning. So they must have enjoyed it. They aren't expert painters, but the transformation they can put the interior of a F.S.A. farm house through with a few gallons of paint would actually make your jaw hang in amazement.

PROWLERS WHIP BEMIDJI TEACHER RESERVES 34-32

Locals Win Final Contest before District Tourney in E. G. Forks

A red-hot fourth period, in which they scored 12 points, gave John Lindenmeyer's Prowlers a well-earned 34 to 32 win over a hard-driving white-clad Bemidji Teachers College reserves team in a game played here last Friday night.

The game, which was one of the fastest of the season, concluded the Prowlers regular schedule, and primed the locals for the district tourney being played this week at East Grand Forks.

The Peds bounced into an early lead, Andy Dolney pumping in a long shot; Spalding counting on a free throw; and Cliff Lunke dropping in another long shot. The first Prowler points were marked up when Babe Peterson scored on a side shot. Dolney looped in a one-handed shot. Johnny Parbst twisted in close to score on a push-up shot. Melby flipped in one-handed shot from side-court. Eddie Flasch dribbled in to tally on a close shot. Garnes, on a pivot shot, one-handed the ball into the basket. Spalding racked up a free throw, and when he missed his second try from the free throw line, Melby tipped in the rebound. The score at the end of the first period: Prowlers 8, B. S. T. C. reserves 12.

Free throws by Denny Althoff and Garnes, and a one-handed shot for a field goal by Jimmy Conner, knotted the score early in the second period. Lunke, on a long shot from the side-lines, gave the Peds a two point lead; but Conner, on a pivot shot near the basket, evened the count at 14-all. Dolney lifted a long shot into the nets, and Maeser followed with a field goal on a one-handed looper. Parbst tossed in a free throw as the half ended, with the Peds holding an 18 to 15 lead.

Spalding chalked up a free throw as the half ended, with the Peds holding an 18 to 15 lead.

Spalding chalked up a free throw to open the second half, and Dick Otterstad, on a drive into the basket, scored on a close shot. Jimmy Conner scored on a pivot shot; and Babe Peterson, on a rebound, scored another Prowler field goal. Dolney, on a two shot foul, converted both tries. Flasch made good a gift toss. Babe Peterson, on a set shot near the free throw line, popped in a field goal.

The score going into the final period was B. S. T. C. 23, Prowlers 22. On a double foul free throws were scored by Jimmy Conner and Andy Dolney. Russ Garnes flipped in a field goal from side court, to send the Prowlers into a one point lead; and added to the margin when he dropped in another shot from the same place. Melby broke through for a close-in shot; and Dolney counted on a one-handed shot, and Peds went into the lead. Eddie Flasch swished a long shot into the net; and Garnes free throw gave the Prowlers a two point lead. Wally Spalding again brought the game to a tie score with a push-up shot. Garnes spun into the free throw lane and lifted a one handed shot into the basket; but Melby sliced the Prowler lead to one point on a free throw. Eddie Flasch boosted a long shot, from the side-lines, into the basket, and the Prowlers held a 3 point lead with half a minute of play remaining. Melby was fouled just as the game ended, and dropped in the free throw to give the Peds their final point. The score: Thief River Falls 34, B. S. T. C. reserves 32.

In a preliminary game the Prowler 'B' team, with fine all-round play, and led by Orlin Gjernes and Milt Reierson, who scored 9 and 8 points respectively, swamped 'Curly' Aines Senior Red Devils, 51 to 20. Jimmy Ferguson and Vernon Ostrom paced the Senior scoring with 7 points each.

Thieves and Grafton in Final Tilt Tonite

Winning a bitterly contested overtime game at Grafton Tuesday night, defeating the Thieves, 3 to 2, when Eddie Beaulieu scored a goal from a scramble in front of the Thief River net with but 14 seconds of play remaining in the overtime period, the Millionaires forced the States-Dominion hockey league play-offs into a fifth and deciding game, which will be played here tonight.

After dropping the first two games of the series the Grafton club has, by some fine hockey, brought the play-offs into a 2-all tie by winning games here on Sunday, 12 to 2, and Tuesday night's game. The Thieves won their second game of the series when they nosed out the Millionaires in a game played here last Thursday night, 6 to 5.

In Thursday night's game the locals trailed the Grafton club until the final three minutes of the game, when two goals by Paul Kornek and a single tally by Eddie McMillan gave the Thieves their narrow-margined victory.

The game here last Sunday, which saw the Thieves receive a 12 to 2 drubbing, was played under slushy ice conditions, and the Millionaires proved to be by far the better 'slushers'. Eddie Beaulieu, who has been playing a strong game for Grafton during the play-offs, paced the Millionaire scoring with four goals, followed by three goals by Ted Prock, two goals by Larry Smith, and single counters by Jerry Hebert, Bill Sutherland, and Nick Shack. The two Thief River counters were marked up by George Beverly and Joe Novak.

Tuesday night's affair at Grafton was a ding-dong battle, with the Thieves jumping into an early lead. After a scoreless first period Freddy Gustafson, on an assist by Kornek, and Joe Popiel, on an assist by Novik, counted goals to give the Thieves a 2 to 0 lead at the close of the period. Grafton knotted the count in the third period, with Sid Foy taking an assist from Beaulieu to score, and Beaulieu, who had a hand in all of Grafton scores, getting a goal on a double assist from Teel and Foy. 14 seconds of the overtime period remained to be played when Beaulieu, poking in Teel's rebound, scored the game-winning goal.

The summary of Tuesday night's game:

Thief River Falls (2)		Grafton (3)
Brunson	goal	Lawrence
Beverly	defense	McVicar
Gustafson	defense	Hebert
Popiel	wing	Foy
McMillan	wing	Prock

Bjorkmans Whip Hartz in City Basketball Loop, and Lose to J & B Drugs

Monday night's game in the WPA-City Recreation basketball league go on record as being some of the best games played all year. Hartz' last place team almost threw a wrench into Bjorkman's plans for a perfect won-lost record. The final score of 34 to 22 does not tell the whole story. For three quarters the two teams battled back and forth as the lead changed hands. In the final period the league-leaders put on a scoring spurt as the loser's defense bogged down. The second game of the night was very much like the first. It took a last period splurge for J & B Drug to whip Soo Cafe 28 to 25. In the final game on Monday, DeMolay showed too much offensive punch and went on to a 48 to 23 win over Oen's cagers.

In a make-up game played Tuesday night, Bjorkmans' league leaders suffered their first loss at the hands of J & B Drug's second place team. Usually a strong offensive team, Bjorkman's were held to a mere 14 points as the winners garnered 23. B. Dickens led the winners with 11 points. Cy Kompelien was top scorer for the losers with 8 points.

The Chips Are Down

It's question whether or not the Thieves were 'coasting' when they took that 12 to 2 lacing from Grafton last Sunday; but it's a cinch that they weren't 'coasting' when they dropped that 3 to 2 overtime decision to the Millionaires at Grafton on Tuesday night. And it's another cinch that they won't be 'coasting' when they meet the orange-clad Graftons in the final game of the play-offs tonight. It appears that the Grafton club is a 'slow' ice team—lacking clever stick-handlers and shifty skaters they can make more use of their 'power' on soft ice— and if the ice is 'heavy' tonight the game will be a toss-up.

City Bowling League Ends Season

The matches rolled last Thursday night concluded the City league's schedule, with the J & B Drugs winning the team title. The J & B's, who compiled a record of 48 wins and 15 losses, to hold a six game margin over the second place Thief River Pharmacy, replaced the Kiewels as City league bowling champions.

Wally DuChamp, bowling with the fourth place Grain Belts, won the individual high average championship with a fine 186 pin total. Other high average bowlers were Carlo Columbo, 179; Johnny Jaranson, 181; John Langseth, 178; and Walt Ekeren, 177. The high single game for the season was Wally DuChamp's 267, and the high three game total by an individual was Wally Carlson's 680.

The high three game total for a team was the 2783 mark reached by the Pharmacy, with the J & B's having a 2782 for second place. The J & B's 1030 was the single game high score for a team; and the Pharmacy's 858 was the high average team.

By the way, the Thief River Pharmacy will be bowling in the A. B. C. Saturday night. In the team event they will bowl on alley No. 30 at 7:00 p. m. And on Sunday afternoon, at 12:30, Walt Ekeren and Rolf Wollan, the two high average bowlers on the team, will roll in the doubles, with Walt bowling in the singles immediately following the conclusion of the doubles.

Plenty of Competition

The most intense rivalry in all of the city's bowling league appears to be centered in the Commercial league. For instance, last Monday night four teams, the Thief River Times vs. Hartz Office and the Thief River Creamery vs. Hartz Stores, had tie games, with each team bowling 841 totals. In the extra frame roll-offs the Hartz Office edged out the Times, and the Creamery defeated the Hartz Stores.

Not Much Argument

There can't be much argument about the all-league teams that referees Pete Ullman, George Gordon, and Jack McKee selected. On their first team they chose Jimmy Brunson, goal; George Beverly and Walt DePaul, defense; Paul Kornek and Hodge Johnson, wings; and Chet LeDoux, center. On the second team were Earl 'Shorty' Tripp, goal; Freddy Gustafson and Jerry Hebert, defense; Bill Sutherland and Bob Allen, wings; and Eddie McMillan, center. There could be some discussion on whether or not Fred Gustafson should have [illegible] defense [illegible]. Gus was much the stronger player on offense, having scored 37 goals during the season; but DePaul, while he has slowed up quite a bit, is still a pretty effective defense man. Bob Allen and Eddie McMillan are very nearly on par with Hodge Johnson and Chet LeDoux, being younger and more aggressive.

That George Gordon who has been working the hockey play-offs here with Pete Ullman is, or was quite a hockey player. In 1936 he was a member of the St. Boniface Seals, the team that won the Memorial cup, the trophy emblematic of the Canadian Junior hockey championship. Gordon, who played a wing, had as a team-mate on the Seals, Wally Stanowski, who's now playing defense for the Toronto Maple Leafs. An attack of pleurisy forced Gordon to give up active participation in hockey.

Just a Reminder

Don't forget that the eighth regional basketball tournament is scheduled for the local high school gymnasium next Thursday and Friday, March 20th and 21st. Making a guess, the teams in the regional will be Fosston, or possibly Hendrum, Bemidji, Roseau, and Thief River Falls.

PROWLERS MEET WARREN TONIGHT IN TOURNEY PLAY

St. Hilaire Quintet Gives Prowler Reserves Hard Battle

Starting a reserve five that had Denny Althoff and Armand Pederson at the forwards, Orrin Pederson at center and Tommy Carlisle and Lenny Lorentson at the guards, the Prowlers for three periods of their first round district tournament game at East Grand Forks yesterday afternoon were played to a stand-still by a stubborn St. Hilaire team. Coach Lindenmeyer sent his first string into the game during the final minutes of the third period, and with Eddie Flasch and Russ Garnes spearheading the attack the Prowlers racked up 16 points in the final quarter to give the locals a safe 30 to 14 win, and send the Prowlers into the second round where they will meet Warren tonight at 8 o'clock.

Warren, with Bob Dahlof, Dana Allen, and Jack Gilbertson leading their play, looked very impressive in trouncing Climax by a 50 to 13 score. Other first round games saw the fast-breaking Crookston Pirates defeat Plummer, 49 to 33; and East Grand Forks defeated Fisher 27-17.

Climax, Plummer, Fisher and St. Hilaire Selected in Subdistrict

Climax defeated Plummer, 23-19, to win the sub-district 31 high school basketball title Friday night in the East Grand Forks gym. Fisher whipped St. Hilaire, 54-26, for consolation honors.

In Friday morning's semi-finals, Plummer beat St. Hilaire, 45-27, and Climax nipped Fisher, 22-21, in two overtime periods. All four teams will compete in the district tournament next week.

In the title game, Climax trailed at the end of the first period, 5-2, but came back to hold an 11-8 lead at halftime and Plummer trailed thereafter. It was 15-14 at the three-quarter mark.

Fisher made sure of its win over St. Hilaire in the first period scoring 15 points to hold a 15-6 margin, which was boosted to 21-13 at halftime and 46-18 as the third period ended.

Plummer advanced to the final chiefly on the work of M. Page, who dropped in 11 field goals and two free throws for 24 points, just three less than St. Hilaire's squad totaled.

RED LAKE FALLS FLAX TOW MILL IS RAZED SATURDAY

Huge Plant Employing 90 Is Put out of Commission by Blaze

Loss as yet undetermined was caused at Red Lake Falls Saturday night in a fire which destroyed the greater part of the flax tow mill operated by Smith Papers, Inc., of Lee, Mass.

The mill, owned by Fiber Products Co., and leased by the Smith firm, has been making tow for cigarette paper from flax straw. About a year ago $20,000 worth of flax straw was destroyed by fire. Saturday night's blaze did not touch the stock piles, which are scattered throughout the premises.

A night shift of 30 men fought the blaze and then called the town fire department, but it was impossible to save the structure. Much of the machinery imported from England last year for the mill was costly equipment.

The mill was housed in two long warehouse type structures on the western edge of Red Lake Falls. More than 90 people are employed at the mill. Employes who discovered the blaze said the fire might have started from a hot-box or may have been caused by spontaneous combustion in the drying room, in which the temperature is kept very high.

CREAMERY ENJOYS SUCCESSFUL YEAR AT PLUMMER IN '40

O. E. Wilson Is Succeeded as President of Assn.

by G. H. Orr

The annual meeting of the Plummer Co-operative Creamery Association was held at the Plummer hall March 3, with a large attendance of stockholders and patrons in attendance, says the Red Lake Falls Gazette.

George H. Orr was elected president of the co-op to succeed O. E. Wilson, who retired from the board of directors. John M. Hagen was elected vice president and Mike Mickelson was chosen as director. H. H. Fredrickson was re-elected secretary-treasurer, Carl Sorenson was re-elected director and Gust T. Craft as creamery operator.

William Dankers of the University Farm, St. Paul; and Clarence Sande of the Land O'Lakes creameries, Thief River Falls spoke at the meeting of the stockholders. Lunch was served at the noon hour, followed by the business session.

The financial statement reveals that the association did a gross business of $98,030.41 in 1940, which is a slight increase over the previous year. A total of 309,-295.8 pounds of butterfat was received at the creamery in the year. 360,739 pounds of butter were shipped during the year. Overrun gain amounted to 69,-488.2 pounds. The average net price received for butter manufactured was 27.25 cents. Average price paid for butterfat, sweet cream, was 31.02 cents; for butterfat, second grade, 28.19 cents; average net for all butterfat was 30.78 cents.

Plumbers to Take Tests at "U" Farm March 24th

The state board of health will conduct examinations for master and journeyman plumbers at 9:00 a. m. on Monday, March 24th in room 203 of the Agricultural Engineering building, University Farm School, St. Paul. The state law provides that in any city or village having 5,000 or more population, according to the last census, and having a system of water works or sewerage, no person, firm or corporation shall engage in or work at the business of a master plumber or journeyman plumber unless licensed to do so by the state board of health.

IN THE STATE SENATE

By Senator E. L. Tungseth

By this time developments are proceeding so swiftly that it is impossible to cover very much even of what is most important in a brief weekly letter. This week I first of all wish to call your attention to a situation which during the past two years has developed in the State Highway Patrol. Our State Highway Patrol has in years past done a very effective and constructive service for the people of Minnesota in patroling our public highways and causing them to become safer for the citizens of our state.

Two years ago, however, Governor Stassen insisted on merging our State Highway Patrol with the Crime Prevention Bureau. This was not accomplished by any legislative act but merely by appointing Mr. Elden Rowe, who was chief of the Crime Bureau, to also act as chief of the State Highway Patrol. This arrangement has during the past two years caused a great deal of grief to the State Highway Patrol and also to our citizens. It has attempted to make the State Highway Patrol so many policemen instead of patrolmen. Arrests have been numerous and in many cases entirely unwarranted and Mr. Rowe has gone in for a great deal of much deserved criticism with reference to his supervision of the State Highway Patrol.

I have spoken to a large number of patrolmen and I have yet to find the first one who has expressed himself in favor of the present police and arrest policies of this department. Of course there are drivers who should be arrested but the operators of motor vehicles on our highways should not be hunted to become victims of arrest. A certain index code which required so many arrests on accidents, has caused all of our patrolmen a great deal of embarrassment and forced them often to make arrests merely to save their own face with the department.

I am writing this letter on the State Highway Patrol in order that our people may not unjustly accuse our patrolmen for such actions as have reflected unfavorably upon the State Highway Patrol during the past two years. I am confident that all of our Patrolmen are men of fine character and quality and men who wish to serve our people in the capacity of safety patrol officers.

Attempts, engineered by Eldon Rowe and a few political followers, are now being made to disrupt the originally independent set-up of our State Highway Patrol and to force it in under our present civil service. Personally, I do not believe that Eldon Rowe is even qualified to fill the position of the chief of the Crime Prevention Bureau, to say nothing about the State Highway Patrol. I am therefore among those who are sponsoring legislation in support of the State Highway Patrol under its original arrangement and purpose, and that the patrolmen might retain a tenure entirely independent of present civil service act. I also believe that the chief of the Highway Patrol should be appointed from the ranks of the Patrol, because it is generally agreed that it requires several years to make a well qualified and seasoned patrolman, and certainly the chief of the Highway Patrol should be a man who not only possesses some executive qualifications but who through actual experience knows what it is all about.

Incidentally, I may add that if our civil service act will not operate better in the future than it has in the past, it is definitely headed for the slaughter house. There has been a great deal of serious dissatisfaction with the way civil service in Minnesota has worked out so far. The governor's appointment of a mere student of civil service to head this department may cause its political funeral in a very short time.

DIOGENES! YOU CAN BLOW OUT YOUR LAMP

St. Peter—Diogenes, if he is still hanging around, can put out his light—the honest man he was looking for has been found. Adolph Harmes, Sleepy Eye, when arraigned before Judge Leslie H. Morse in municipal court at Mankato on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, answered thus when asked if he admitted being "under the influence": "No," said Harmes, "I was not under the influence—I was drunk."

Most men who have the most time to kill usually want to spend it with someone who hasn't any.

Large Audience For Farmer's Day

"Farm families of our community enjoyed a local treat when they saw "This Land of Ours", a movie production sponsored by R. F. Sandberg, the local Minneapolis-Moline Dealer. The large enthusiastic audience, numbering over nine hundred, travelled far and wide through our great land, enjoying its places of beauty and interest on the screen in their natural color and splendor. Our beautiful national parks, canyons, waterfalls, forests and highway, passed before them in review. In addition, they saw how farmers in other sections of our country reduce cost and live better using modern machinery.

"THE BETTER WAY"

- There are two ways of life, the "restricted prohibited way" and the "liberty, self-controlled way."
- In central Minnesota are two cities about the same size (1,800 population) and only a few miles apart, that illustrate these two different ways of life.
- "C——", the first city. (this study was made in 1939) is typical—main street, newspaper, general store, bank, etc., and four beer taverns, but the local authorities insist on strict observance of the laws. No minor ever buys a glass of beer; no booths are permitted; the taverns observe the closing hours. Result: there are no drinking problems in this city.
- "D——", the neighboring city, discontinued the sale of beer in January, 1939. When investigators visited this city in August of 1939, every law-abiding citizen interviewed was disgusted with existing conditions. The day the beer taverns closed their doors six bootleggers started plying their nefarious trade; fights and drunkenness became common sights.
- A year of this was a sufficient lesson. At the 1940 city election "D——" voted for licensing the return of 3.2 beer and the return of the "liberty, self-controlled way," of living.

100 BLACKBIRDS INDICATE SUMMER?

"Look Out for Bumps!" Road Crews Prepare to Combat Spring Breakup

One of the most certain—even if less welcome—signs of spring has arrived.

The unwelcome but inevitable harbinger came in the form of two warnings issued this week by the state highway department: One the warning to motorists to "Look out for the Bumps," and the other instructions to state highway maintenance crews to take every precaution to protect the travelling public and at the same time make every possible preparation to hold frost heave and frost boil damage to a minimum.

Both warnings mean just one thing—Minnesota's annual "spring break-up" is at hand, with its resultant public inconvenience, its expensive road-surface repair bill, and its inevitable result of from 3,800 to 4,600 miles of state trunk highways under maximum load restrictions for several weeks.

Serious frost heaves have been reported from many maintenance districts, the highway department reports. All maintenance engineers and section men were instructed some time ago to exercise great care to see that such hazards are marked with "Bump" signs or red flags as rapidly as they become serious. The driving public, however, is urged to be on the alert for warnings to vehicles travelling at high speed.

Departmental engineers also have been instructed to maintain constant vigilance in an effort to do everything possible to lower the frost heaves, and to prevent them from developing later on into frost boils.

BICYCLE MISHAP PROVES SERIOUS

Anoka—Sidney McKay of Anoka has learned that bicycles can skid on ice with as dire results occasionally as cars. On a recent morning while riding his bike, the rubber-tires skidded on the snow covered ice and he fell striking his eye on the handlebar, breaking his glasses which in turn cut a jagged slantwise cut, just missing his eyeball. Two stitches were required to close the wound.

Growing With Your Child

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

The Lure of Good Reading

Last week, in discussing the unwholesome comic books that children are reading by the million, I said that it was possible to find worth while inexpensive books which children would find enthralling. I want to make good on that by naming a few, all under a dollar.

Those who claim that the exciting comic strips make other books tame should dip into Siberian Gold by T. A. Harper (Doubleday $.75). It's as thrilling as any boy can ask, as are The Blazed Trail (Grosset $.75) by White, Jules Verne's Mysterious Island, and Howard Pyle's Robin Hood (Scribner $.75).

"East O' the Sun and West O' the Moon" (Rowe $.68) by Thorne-Thomsen is a collection of Norse fairy tales that are as immortal as the gods they tell of. Hans Christian Anderson's beautiful stories (Macmillan $.50) and Jacobs' English Fairy Tales (Burt $.50) are in the same class.

Ginn puts out an edition of Pinocchio at 64 cents. Crowell obliges with Lear's Book of Nonsense, that will be a favorite with the whole family, at $.75. Houghton Mifflin presents Parkins' Dutch Twins, at 88 cents, one of that long series of twin books so dear to eight year olds.

For the very small children in the family, to set them on the right track and make sure that they will appreciate good color and superbly-drawn pictures, there are Caldecott's picture books for only 60 cents (Warne), and Beatrix Potter's Peter Rabbit (Gabriel $.40) that no young child should be without.

Old favorites are always available at low prices. Little Women and others in that series are from $.50 to $.85. Tom Sawyer and Penrod team up together at $.75 (Grosset). Altsheler's Horsemen of the Plains (Grosset $.75) may start a boy out on reading American history, although it is in the guise of exciting Indian stories. Jack London's Call of the Wild is another perennial favorite at the same price.

How hard it has been not to mention some of the long list of splendid books that can be had for a dollar! Many of these, as of those listed above, are illustrated by the finest artists. N. C. Wyeth, Howard Pyle, Arthur Rackham, Kay Nielsen are only a few of those whose pictures should, and will make children able to see what tawdry, sloppy, insincere drawing the illy-printed, badly colored comics contain.

Would you like a list of those dollar books? Write in to the Institute of Child Welfare, and we'll be happy to send one.

Immediately afterwards he was re-arrested and given a preliminary hearing, for resisting and assaulting the sheriff and deputy sheriff when apprehended last November on the former judgment. Increasing Life Span Creates New Problems, State Physicians Say

Thirty years ago, physicians and sociologists were pre-occupied with the troubles of the young and vigorous, according to today's bulletin from the Minnesota State Medical association, and there was generally plenty of room by the chimney corner for the few oldsters who, by reason of superior toughness, survived to the biblical three score years and ten.

If you survived diphtheria, small pox, typhoid and childbirth, according to this bulletin, you were a source of pride to your family and nobody worried much about your keep or your rheumatics for the few remaining years of your life.

"Now the story is different," the doctors declared today. "There isn't enough room in the chimney corner for all the youngsters who, because of modern methods of treatment, escape diphtheria, small pox, and typhoid, grow up to be oldsters, too.

This change in the average life span from less than 30 years in 1900 to more than 60 in 1941 is responsible for much of our social and economic distress today, according to the physicians' bulletin.

NEITHER TARDY OR ABSENT IN 11 YEARS

Heron Lake—Miss Inga Satre, Heron Lake teacher, broke an 11 year record recently when she was absent from her teaching duties a half day to attend funeral services for a friend. Up until that time, she had never been absent from nor late at school in her entire eleven years of teaching at Heron Lake.

HAS FRESH GARDEN CARROTS FOR SOUP

Belle Plaine—When Ed. [illegible] of Belle Plaine forgot to bring home carrots with which to make soup for the evening meal one day last week, his wife laid down a "no carrots no soup" ultimatum. Ed liked soup and he liked carrots in it—so, remembering a row of carrots that hadn't been dug by the time snow fell last fall, he went out with a shovel, cleared the snow away and brought back a pailful of dandy fresh carrots.

FISH SPEARED WITH STRINGER IN MOUTH

Hoffman—While fishing through the ice at Lake Oaks, Bernard Anderson of Hoffman speared a two pound pickerel that had hanging to its jaw a large section of a fish stringer that had been carried by the fish for so long that the jaw was almost sawed in two. Very thin, the pickerel showed the effects of the handicap it had lived under since pulling away from some unlucky fisherman's stringer.

Softball is becoming popular in [illegible] and a league has been organized.

BROTHERS BREAK LEGS FIVE WEEKS APART

Royal, 11, broke his leg just above the ankle while skating about five weeks ago. A while last week, his brother, Richard, 12, fell and broke his leg—just above the ankle—while playing in the high school gym. The boys are keeping each other company while confined to their home with their legs in splints.

$2,000,000 OF NEW STATE ROAD JOBS UNDER CONTRACT

Anderson Bros. Get $59,951 Contract in Kittson County

The Minnesota State Highway department already has almost $2,000,000 of its 1941 construction program under contract, M. J. Hoffman, state highway commissioner, disclosed today with the announcement of low bids on 12 new projects to cost $1,312,416.

This letting, combined with an earlier $670,865 letting in January and approximately $2,500,000 in uncompleted projects carried over from last year, puts the Highway department in the position of having approximately $4,500,000 of trunk highway and federal aid secondary improvements "ready to go" as soon as a break in the weather will permit.

Included in the latest letting are 12 miles of concrete paving, 7 bridges and 9 concrete box culverts. The work, located in 10 counties, includes one "strategic necessity" project on T. H. 59 of the defense network. The projects include: Kittson County: T. H. 11—Grading for 8.6 miles between 9 miles east of Donaldson and Karlstad, Anderson Bros. of Thief River Falls, $59,951.

State Medical Group Backs Clinics Staged Under Auspices of PTA

A health examination this spring for youngsters, who are to start school this fall, followed by the correction of remediable defects is the best investment that can be made for the benefit of the child, the school and for future national defense.

This fact is emphasized in this week's bulletin from the Minnesota Public Health association, which is cooperating in the Summer Round-Up campaign of the Minnesota Congress of Parents and Teachers. The purpose of the campaign, of which Mrs. Norman H. Baker of Fergus Falls is chairman, is to have the class starting school each fall in good physical condition and protected against preventable diseases through immunization and vaccination.

"Children may be greatly handicapped in school by defects that are easily correctible if discovered early," says the bulletin "Their success in adult life may also be seriously affected by uncorrected physical handicaps."

STATE MEETING OF LAND O'LAKES NOW UNDER WAY

Annual Session of Big Co-op. Is Being Conducted in Minneapolis

Twentieth anniversary of Land O'Lakes Creameries, Inc., will be commemorated at the annual meeting of the co-op. today and Friday at its headquarters in Northwestern Terminal, Minneapolis. Numerous members and officials from this locality are in attendance.

Principal speakers will be Dr. W. C. Coffey, who becomes acting president of the University of Minnesota July 1; Congressman August Andresen, Edgar Guest, the poet; A. G. Black, acting governor, Farm Credit administration, and John Brandt, president of Land O'Lakes.

Creamery operators and managers held their annual conference Wednesday, at which winners of the 1940 efficiency contest were announced.

Organized June 7, 1921, Land O'Lakes has done a gross business of more than $600,000,000, its executives pointed out.

Of the first board of directors three still are members: Vernon Lockwood, Motley, F. L. Farley, Spring Grove, and John Brandt, Litchfield. Mr. Brandt has been president since shortly after the co-op's organization.

Citizens Watch Reports of Governmental Bodies, Taxpayers Assn. Asserts

In order to function properly, Democracy requires that the citizen be well informed. The citizen must support the government, but the public official in turn must report back to the citizen and give a complete accounting of all monies received and expended. The burden of proof as to how well he has extended public money is one of the responsibilities of a public official, James P. McDonnell, president of Minnesota Taxpayers Association, declared in a recent talk.

Today, more than ever before, public financial reports are read and analyzed by the public. The tax bill has become so large in recent years that the average man desires to know why, and this is one of the reasons why there is growing interest in county and local financial statements.

Taxpayers associations in the state and in the counties are devoting more time than usual this year in scanning local newspapers for these reports of village, county, and school officials. These reports tell the story of a year's activity; they give an accounting of the tax money in the community; they represent the highest ideals of representative government since they are, in reality, annual reports to the stockholders—and in this case, the people are the stockholders, Mr. McDonnell stated.

Gals in Gingham

Again our local twins, Ruth and Ruby Angell, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Angell, are making good on the radio. Everyone remembers them as the Gals in Gingham when they performed over the Fargo Station WDAY last year. Now they have new jobs which keep them very busy in Minneapolis. They started shortly after the Christmas holidays which they spent at their parental home. Every afternoon they sing over station WLOL and on Thursday noon hours they are to be heard on station WTCN. Those popular girls also appear on Sunday afternoons at the Princess Theatre in Minneapolis with all other talents from different stations within that city. Tune in on these stations and hear those sweet voices. More power to the girls! We're proud of them.

Fugitive

Her comb was not in the least bit frozen despite the 30 below weather not so long ago. She's in the hen house now.

This writer is happy to inform that J. M. Theige's house did not burn down. It was almost a false alarm last Monday except that there was a chimney fire burning a small portion of the roof before it was extinguished.

Why Not FEED
THE FEED OF CHAMPIONS

The following is taken from a recent letter received and now on file in our office:

"With reference to our feeders' winnings at the various shows, we have the unique distinction this year of having every grand Champion live bird at all the Northwest shows. We list them as follows:

Northern States Turkey Show, Alexandria, Minnesota: Grand Champion: Bourbon Red, Exhibited by Otto Thieke, Beardsley, Minnesota.

HUBBARD'S and "Hubbard Made" Feeds also had 80% of the breed champions at the All-American."

We feel very proud of the fact that all grand champions at the five Northwest shows were HUBBARD fed birds. This is not a lot of phooey, folks, plus idle talk. It is facts and certainly proves that HUBBARD'S must have something in their Concentrate that can do the job right for you.

IT COSTS LESS TO FEED THE HUBBARD SUNSHINE WAY!

THE RECORD .... Facts That Concern You No. 26 of a Series

A few weeds grow in every garden

Among the thousands of decent law-abiding beer retail establishments in America there may be a few disreputable "joints."

While it is the brewers' responsibility to brew good beer and the retailers' responsibility to sell beer under wholesome conditions, nevertheless the brewing industry is concerned about these undesirable places and wants them cleaned up.

We want them cleaned up because they endanger your right to enjoy good beer . . . and our right to make it.

We want them cleaned up because they endanger the 34,373 jobs and $29,866,962 payroll created by beer in Minnesota since re-legalization. Beer contributed $1,926,921.61 last year in taxes in this state.

These benefits are worth preserving. You can help us, if you will, by (1) patronizing only the reputable, legal places that sell beer and by (2) reporting any law violations to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

Two good mixers are better than one

THERE you sit, watching the long road ahead as it dips and rises.

Under your feet there's a quiet whispering, to let you know that all eight able Buick cylinders are happily on the job.

You're giving not a single thought to what's happening under that long bonnet nosing out in front, but here's what's going on:

Instead of the single, compromise-size carburetor you find on most cars, this Buick FIREBALL eight with Compound Carburetion* has two good mixers on the job.

A single one of them—the front one—keeps you rolling smoothly, easily, quietly, on the very minimum rationing of gasoline.

But the other carburetor is alert and ready for any sudden need. Just tramp down on that accelerator pedal—it goes into instant action, giving you more fuel and more power for any emergency purpose!

It's almost like having two engines—one to handle normal requirements thriftily, another to team up with the first for extra oomph and wallop when you want it.

That kind of teamwork pays.

And owners by the thousand will tell you it's more economical too—as much as 10% to 15% more economical.

If you haven't experienced what it feels like to have that under the bonnet of your automobile, better go have that Buick demonstration now.

GYMNASIUM DOORS WILL OPEN AT 7 P. M.

Various Groups Will Provide Entertainment Between the Halves

Basketball interest in the eighth region will be focused on the local high-school gymnasium tonight and Friday night when champions of districts 29, 30, 31, and 32 meet to determine northwestern Minnesota's entrant in the state basketball tourney, which will be held in Minneapolis next week. The doors of the gym will open at 7 o'clock.

Tonight's program will have a rangy Hendrum team, champions of district 30, with an attack that revolves around its big center, Casper Severson, meeting a scrappy green-clad Roseau team, champions of district 32, at 7:45 p. m. At 9:15 the Bemidji Lumberjacks, champions of the 29th district, and defending eighth region title-holders, meet the Prowlers, champions of district 31, in a game which is expected to be the feature of the first night's play.

Hendrum won its way into the regional tourney with a 21 to 16 conquest of the veteran Fosston team in a game played at Fosston last Friday night. Roseau, the storm-bound team, entered the regional tournament by virtue of a thrilling last half minute win over Baudette, in a district 32 finals game which was played here last Tuesday afternoon.

The veteran Bemidji quint, with such stars as George Thorbrogger, Bob Worth, Hector Brown, and Jack Johnson, on its roster, defeated Cass Lake, 27 to 16, to win the 29th district title, and has been installed as the favorite in the regional meet. The Prowlers, with a 27 to 23 victory over the surprisingly strong East Grand Forks team, retained their 31st district championship.

In the past seasons' play, including games with teams from other districts, Bemidji has won all but five games, Hendrum all but three, Roseau all but two and Thief River all but seven.

The local high school girls tumbling team will perform between the halves of the first game tonight, while the half-time feature of the second contest will be an exhibition by the Junior and senior high school twirling squads. Regional trophies will be awarded following the final game Friday night to the champion, runner-up and third place winner.

DISASTROUS FIRE HITS ST. HILAIRE IN STORM SUNDAY

Four Business Places Razed in Blaze Breaking out in Early Morning

A fire which started at 2 a. m. Sunday totally destroyed a grocery, store, two cafes and a drug store at St. Hilaire, the loss being estimated at approximately $25,000.

The blaze swept through the four structures in two hours. Volunteer firemen were virtually helpless. Because of the storm-blocked roads, the Red Lake Falls and Thief River Falls departments were unable to reach St. Hilaire.

The fire, believed to have been caused by a chimney fire at the Tom Grovum cafe, also destroyed the L. B. Hartz grocery of which Fred Biskey is manager; the Redwood Inn cafe operated by Nickie Drees and the Nyal drug store of which John Hanson is manager. All of the buildings were one-story except the Grovum cafe. None of the fixtures and equipment in any of the places was saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Grovum and two small children, were forced into the blizzard clad only in their night clothing.

One observer said firemen had all they could do to keep their feet in the high wind, much less attempt to put out the flames.

Telephone Exchange Has Busiest Night on Record During Saturday Storm

As a result of the raging blizzard that struck this community shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday evening and continued thru the night, the local telephone exchange experienced the busiest night in its history, A. J. Rau, manager, announced. He said the whole switchboard was lit continuously between the hours of 9:30 and 4:30 Sunday morning, and despite the efforts of seven operators delays were unavoidable. Concern over the well being of friends and relatives were revealed by the fact that the exchange handled 510 long distance calls, a new high mark.

RITES FRIDAY FOR HENRY C. ECKLAND, LOCAL ARCHITECT

Resident 14 Years Succumbs at Hospital in City Tuesday

Henry C. Eckland, architect, who practiced his profession in Thief River Falls since 1927, passed away Tuesday in a local hospital at the age of 72. He had recently suffered a stroke and had been in failing health since that time.

Funeral rites will be conducted Friday afternoon, March 21, at 2 o'clock from the Community church, Rev. S. S. Olafsson officiating. The remains will be taken to his former home at Kewanee, Illinois, for burial rites and interment.

Born in Boras, Sweden, May 2, 1868, Mr. Ecklund came to this country in 1883, settling first at Kewanee and later moving to Moline, Illinois. In 1927 he came to Thief River Falls, where he has since made his home with the exception of the time that his business affairs took him to Kansas City, Missouri.

He was married in East Grand Forks in 1931 to Mrs. Edith Haynes, who survives his death, together with two daughters, Mrs. Helen Stevenson and Mrs. Alice Beguin, both of Chicago; a son Everett, of Moline; and a step-daughter, Miss Esther Haynes, of Thief River Falls.

Also surviving are seven sisters, Mrs. Hilda Miller, Chicago; Mrs. Marie Johnson, Kewanee; Mrs. Hilma Juline, Des Moines, Iowa; and Mrs. Alma Johnson, Mrs. Elisabeth Norden, Mrs. Judith Ekstrom and Mrs. Nellie Johnson, all of Sweden; one brother, Fritz Ekland of Sweden; and four grandchildren.

RECREATION PLAN HERE DRAWS HOST OF PARTICIPANTS

Supervisor Elstad Reports on Attendance During Winter Months

Information regarding the winter recreation program, along with participation figures have been made available by Ferd B. Elstad, local WPA-City recreation supervisor. Although some of the winter activities are still in progress figures given are for the months of December, January and February. Boys totalled 19,156; girls, 15,551; men, 4,855; women, 3,879. The grand total for all age groups throughout the three-months period is 44,440. A total of 14,033 spectators was registered.

Seventeen recreation leaders were on the program during the winter months to handle the following: skating on school rinks and in the arena, midget hockey on the school rinks, basketball league in the auditorium, business and professional men's recreation at the high school, puppet shows and construction of puppets, handicraft, low organized games, game room activities, girls' club activities, boxing and wrestling, and craft work in the arena craft shop. Recreation officials hope that the interest shown in the past will continue. The above participation figures seem to show that interest in recreation activities is high, and also that the program is continuing to grow.

Sixteen Pennington county young men making up the first March contingent of volunteers for selective service left the city Monday evening for induction at Fort Snelling, while another young man is leaving today and six more will go from the city next Sunday, March 23. Preceding their departure the two groups were guests at a farewell party in the Palm Garden cafe Monday evening.

Included in the group that left Monday were the following from the Thief River Falls community: Alden Johnson, Stanley Karlstad, Gaylord Strong, Clifford Kautcher, Theodore Quale, Jr., Dayton J. Silk, David H. Morgan, Henry A. Waag, Edward L. Snelling, Ordean M. Iverson, and Millard Stigen. Others were Merle Rolland, St. Hilaire; Raymond J. Gunstad, Hazel; and Roy S. Jensen, Vernon V. Vaughan, and James J. Vaughan, Goodridge.

Einar Myhrer of this city is leaving tonight, while next Sunday will see the departure of Walter Ekeren, Arthur Knutson, Carl A. Johnson, Sigurd Haugen and Eugene Besancon. Ralph Richards will meet the group in Minneapolis.

A gathering of 100 persons Monday attended the sendoff given the young men by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Lions club and American Legion post, the parents and other relatives of the volunteers also being guests.

The program, over which Glenn Christie presided as toastmaster, opened with the singing of "America", led by M. G. Peterson and accompanied by H. F. Harrison, which was followed by the invocation by Rev. S. S. Olafson, and the introduction of the honored guests by Dr. A. B. Hulbert, president of the Lions club.

Paul A. Lundgren, who was the principal speaker, commended the group for offering their services at this time—without waiting for their draft numbers to be called. He also expressed the hope that world affairs would so shape themselves that the young men would not be called on to engage in battle, and he predicted that they would return later to their homes the better for their period of military service.

Theodore Quale, Jr., responded briefly for the volunteers, expressing their willingness to enter the army and expressing the view that the experience would be a most interesting one.

FOOD STAMPS MAY SOON COME TO PENNINGTON

Project Given Big Forward Impetus at Meetings Wednesday

ALL TOWNSHIPS MUST COOPERATE IN PLAN

N. H. Holzknecht Elected Chairman of Group to Cooperate

With representatives of three-fourths of the townships in this county signifying Wednesday that their units would sign up for the federal food stamp plan, and with the remaining townships expected to make up the necessary 100 per cent cooperation, prospects are that the plan may become effective in Pennington county within thirty days, it was announced today by John X. Lynskey, executive secretary of the county welfare board, which will be in charge of administration.

Preliminary action was taken Wednesday morning at a meeting of township and city officials, the county board, and wholesale and retail grocers in the district court room with Dr. E. G. Boothe, field man for the Federal Surplus Marketing administration.

N. H. Holzknecht, who presided at the meeting, and who has been cooperating with welfare agencies and the Civic and Commerce association in seeking the extension of the stamp plan to this county, was elected permanent chairman of a special committee to cooperate in administering the plan, while George W. Werstlein was named secretary-treasurer.

Other members of the committee include Waldie Christenson, Clarence Sande, L. W. Hullen, N. A. Holen, J. H. Ulvan, Alfred Longren, and eight grocers including M. H. Jackson, St. Hilaire; Carl Christenson, Goodridge; Bud Korstad, Highlanding; Wes Padden, River Valley; and Alfred Bredeson, A. M. Magnuson, Roy Oen and John Ward, Thief River Falls.

Dr. Boothe in his discussion pointed out that the stamp plan was designed to relieve the situation created in recent years by increased supplies of food commodities and diminishing purchasing power on the part of the consumer. With the adoption of the plan, he stated, direct distribution of surplus commodities to relief clients will cease and will be handled instead more effectively thru the stores.

Recipients would be permitted to buy orange stamps covering their usual food budget, and in addition would be given blue stamps amounting to fifty per cent additional, which would be available for purchasing a restricted list of commodities at food stores, thus substantially increasing the food budget over that now prevailing.

Stamps will be made available to clients of the county welfare office thru a revolving fund to be set up by the county board.

SETTLEMENT OF CURRENT TAXES TOTALS $48,459

Payments to County Treasurer About the Same as Last Year

The sum of $48,459.74, representing payments of current taxes in Pennington county to March 1, was turned over Tuesday by County Treasurer A. E. Johnsrud to Auditor A. M. Senstad for inclusion in the March settlement, which in addition will include delinquent tax payments and payments into the tax forfeiture fund.

Receipts of current taxes were approximately the same for the first two months of 1941 as a year ago, Mr. Johnsrud stated.

Francis James Weckwerth Is Pennington Co. Victim of Blizzard

STORM STRUCK HERE WITHOUT WARNING

Many Harrowing Experiences Reported by Local Citizens

Bringing tragic death to a member of one Pennington county family, and causing many other residents caught away from shelter to escape death from exposure by the narrowest of margins, a terrific blizzard of hurricane proportions burst out of the north without warning last Saturday evening shortly after 9 o'clock and completely filled the air with loose snow, bringing all traffic to an immediate halt.

The earlier part of the evening had been mild, with a gentle breeze from the south; but, when the north wind struck, the mercury dropped 20 degrees in as many minutes and continued downward until it was well below zero early Sunday morning, thus intensifying the suffering of those exposed to the elements. The high wind continued until well into Sunday.

The death victim was Francis James Weckwerth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Weckwerth, prominent farm familly residing southeast of Thief River Falls. After the storm broke, the young man, age 22, became worried about the safety of his brother Harold, age 16, who was visiting at the Andrew Arne home nearby.

He started out in the storm on horseback against the urging of other members of the family, but got lost and failed to reach his destination. The horse made his way back to the barn, but James had evidently fallen off, for his frozen body was found at daybreak in a sitting posture along a fence

Residence on Riverside Av. Nearly Destroyed in Fire Friday Afternoon

The Tennie Torkelson home on Riverside av. was nearly totally destroyed early Friday afternoon by a blaze that apparently originated in a stove on the second floor. At the time the alarm was turned in the fire department was putting out a chimney blaze at a residence on Conley av. S., thus delaying its arrival. Firemen were further handicapped by the fact that the first hydrant to which they connected the engine proved to be frozen. An automobile parked on East Second st. was slightly damaged by fire Tuesday evening, while Wednesday morning the department was called to the Ivan Hofstad home at 619 St. Paul av. S. by a chimney fire, no damage resulting.

Two Soo Line Coaches Are Damaged in Blaze Early Friday Morning

A blaze of undetermined origin, discovered Friday morning at 4 o'clock, caused extensive damage to one Soo Line coach and partial damage to another, the loss to the two cars being estimated at approximately $4,000. A Duluth line coach, the more badly damaged, was coupled on to a Wheat Line passenger car near the depot, and spread to the latter car before the two could be separated. Much of the former coach was destroyed, and the fire burned thru the roof in several places. The two cars were taken to the Soo Line shops near Minneapolis to be repaired or otherwise disposed of.

Victim of Blizzard

FRANCIS J. WECKWERTH
Son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Weckwerth, who got lost near his home in the storm Saturday night, and perished, his frozen body being found Sunday morning.

JUNGS BAKERY IS DAMAGED BY FIRE EARLY SATURDAY

Blaze Results in Substantial Damage to Rear of Structure

Substantial loss, the amount as yet undetermined, resulted from a fire that broke out in the basement of Jung's bakery Saturday morning at 6:30, originating apparently in a switchboard located at the foot of the basement stairs.

Excellent work by the local fire department was responsible for the fact that the entire structure was not destroyed. Basement partitions and joists supporting the rear portion of the main floor were damaged, as well as the freight elevator, and all will have to be replaced.

Augmenting the loss was the presence in the bakery of a newly arrived carload of flour in addition to nearly a half-carload previously on hand.

Approximately ten days will be required to repair the plant, it was announced. In the meantime the trade is being cared for thru a Bemidji bakery, where four of Jungs employes are temporarily stationed, as well as from other sources.

The lower group includes David Morgan, Merle Rolland, Gaylord Strong, Raymond Gunstad, Dayton Silk, Millard Stigen, Edward Snelling, Cliff Kautcher, and Ordean Iverson.

Storm Comes Without Warning, Catches Many on Highways

12 POLK CO. CITIZENS LISTED AS VICTIMS

Man Perishes Near Marcoux Corner While Seeking Assistance

In the most disastrous late winter storm in a generation, striking the Red River Valley without warning shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday evening, more than seventy lives were lost, including 26 in Northwestern Minnesota and 36 in North Dakota. A heavy sufferer was Polk county, where deaths of twelve residents were reported as a result of the storm.

The storm opened with a light fall of snow, following which a gentle south wind turned in an instant into a terrific northern gale, which reached a measured velocity of more than 75 miles an hour in Grand Forks and Fargo. The wind immediately picked up the loose snow, which filled the air, reducing visibility to zero, and piling up huge hard-packed drifts. At the same time the temperature dropped from 30 above to well below zero in two hours.

Making up the greater part of the fatalities were motorists who were caught without warning away from shelter, and who, were forced to stop their cars on the highways. Those who remained in their cars fared the best, while others who left them to seek shelter from the blinding storm, got hopelessly lost and succumbed in large numbers.

One of the most tragic incidents involved Mrs. Orland Bailey of Hibbing.

Death came Saturday night to the 22-year old mother of three after she had battled her way to within a few hundred feet of the farm home of Mrs. Minnie Ross, six miles west of Crookston on U. S. highway No. 2.

Mrs. Bailey, her ailing husband, five-year-old daughter, and two sons, four years and two years old, were en route to Grand Forks Saturday night when the terrific wind struck without warning. Their car, and another, just a few feet ahead, stalled. The young mother got out to go to the other auto.

The furious wind swept her away into the swirling, blinding blizzard. But she struggled on, toward Crookston. Three and one-half tortuous miles she walked. Then, cold and exhaustion overtook her. She sank down in the five or six foot space between two

Affair Will be Directed by Mrs. E. F. Wright and James Carlson

The Parent-Teacher association will present a pageant depicting the history and background of American costumes Monday evening, March 31, in the Lincoln high school auditorium. Proceeds of the event will be allotted to a fund for the purchase of robes for the high school chorus.

Under the direction of Mrs. E. F. Wright and James Carlson, the entertainment will make use of the talent and resources of PTA members and the community as a whole.

The event will show costumes and features representing successive periods in the settlement and growth of the nation, including the colonial, Civil War and other eras. Various characters of other nationalities will be presented, as well as the "Gay Nineties" and the gayer Jazz Age.

All of the characters and models will be presented by local people. The costumes for the most part will come from local trunks, and many authentic pieces of historical significance have been discovered. An appeal is being made to all who can make additional contributions that will represent any aspect or period of American costume history.

The sequence of scenes will include not only the costumes of each era, but also entertainment and music typical of it. Arrangements for the pageant are being made by the directors and a special committee of PTA officers and members appointed by Mrs. V. C. Noper, president.

Ruth Wassgren-Morris Howick Nuptial Vows Spoken Last Thursday

On Thursday, March 13, at 3 o'clock p.m., Miss Ruth Irene Wassgren, daughter of Mrs. Abbie Wassgren of Thief River Falls, became the bride of Morris Edwin Howick, son of Mrs. Sophie Howick also of this city, at a charming ceremony taking place at the Community Church. Rev. S. S. Olafson officiated at the single ring candlelight ceremony. On either side of the altar was a candelabrum holding lighted cathedral candles, and baskets of snapdragons and red roses.

Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mrs. S. S. Olafson; and preceding the ceremony, Miss Ardith Burrell, accompanied by Mrs. Olafson, sang "Because". "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Miss Burrell during the nuptials, and soft music was played during the ceremony. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bridal party retired to the chapel of the church where their friends offered felicitations.

The bride wore a peach-colored chiffon floor-length gown with a full skirt, pleated bodice, and puffed sleeves. Carrying out the traditional "something old, something new—" the bride wore a strand of pearls belonging to her mother, as her only jewelry. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.

Her sister, Miss Helen Wassgren of Milwaukee, Wisc., who acted as bridesmaid, wore a pale green chiffon gown fashioned in a style identical to the bride's, and she wore a string of pearls, a gift of the bride. The bride's and groom's mothers both wore navy blue street-length ensembles with identical shoulder corsages of roses and sweet peas. Lloyd Howick, brother of the groom, was his attendant.

Immediately after the nuptials were spoken, about 20 guests attended a reception given by the bride's mother at the Wassgren home. A pink and white color scheme was used in the decorations, and a heart-shaped wedding cake trimmed in the chosen colors and bordered with real roses, centered the table. Crystal candelabra with pink tapers were at either end of the table. A two-course buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. Wassgren assisted by Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Hammergren, and Mrs. Lane.

The couple returned Friday from a short wedding trip, and are now at home to their friends at 423½ North Duluth Avenue. For her travel costume the bride selected a beige gabardine suit with brown accessories.

4 LINCOLN SCHOOL PUPILS TO ENTER DISTRICT CONTEST

Will Compete in District 31 Speech Event Tuesday at Crookston

Twelve schools will send students to the district 31 high school speech contest to be held in Crookston Tuesday, March 25, according to I. M. Wikre, director.

The contest will be held in the high school auditorium, with preliminary rounds in the afternoon and the final competition in the evening.

Competition will be in four divisions, oratorical declamation, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking and interpretative reading. Each school will have the privilege of entering one student in each division.

Two preliminary rounds for interpretative reading and oratorical declamation are planned. In each division the preliminary rounds will bring the total number of contestants to three, so that the final contest in the evening will have 12 students competing.

Four instructors from the Bemidji State Teachers college will be present to serve as judges of the contest.

Lincoln high school entrants in the contest will include Charles Gustafson, oratorical declamation; Jean Vielguth, interpretative reading; Lloyd Alnes, extemporaneous speaking; and Marian Thompson, original oratory.

Wise are they who believe their mirror rather than what other folks may tell them.

Roseau Represents Dist. 32 in Regional Tourney

Big Hendrum Quintet Is Champion in District 30

DISASTROUS STORM CAUSES MANY DEATHS OVER THE WEEK-END

small, unused buildings on the Ross farm, almost within a stone's throw of the warm house and safety.

Sid Bonamie, 27, Great Northern railroad agent at Tilden Junction southeast of Crookston, met death when he went for help in rescuing his wife and small daughter when their car became stranded three-fourth of a mile south of Marcoux Corner.

Bonamie went to Marcoux for help. Two youths, Wilfred Save and Louis Laygra, went with him in a truck but the machine ran off the road. Bonamie returned to the car and then started out a second time for help. He was never seen again until his body was found Monday afternoon three miles south and one mile east of Dugdale which is several miles from Marcoux.

Several persons, meanwhile, reached the stranded car and wrapped Mrs. Bonamie and her child in blankets at 1 A. M. Sunday, but they were not able to move them until 6:30 a. m.

One man, Waldemar Johnson, 25, Warren, owed his life to his presence of mind in burrowing into snow in a drainage ditch where he remained nearly 12 hours. He suffered only a frost bitten ear.

Within a distance of 10 miles, between Crookston and Eldred, the highway department reported, eighth persons were rescued from stalled automobiles. Between Grand Forks and Crookston 29 were rescued.

A crowd of 2,000 persons assembled in Moorhead for a district basketball tournament Saturday evening were marooned there when the storm broke out, and they were forced to spend the night in the Moorhead high school building.

The District 32 tournament, scheduled at Stephen, was disrupted when the Roseau quint, one of the contenders, was halted a few miles south of Stephen, the entire squad spending the night in one car along with Supt. C. D. Hollister of the Roseau school.

A dance will be conducted at Smiley hall Saturday evening, it was announced today by Jim McCrum, who added that roads leading to the hall are in good condition.

RURAL SCHOOL PUPILS TO COMPETE FOR BIG PRIZES IN CONTEST

tained at the Times office.

While the contest is only for the rural schools, rural school students and their teachers may have their town friends save their slips and thus assist them in the voting, which will determine the prize winners.

Elsewhere in this paper today appears an announcement concerning the merchants who are sponsoring it.

Every sales slip of a Thief River Falls merchant who is cooperating in sponsoring the contest is worth its face value with one vote being credited for every cent.

In other words, a sales slip of $2.98 means 298 votes for that particular district school. The advertisements of the sponsoring merchants as they appear in the Times are also worth votes and these votes are automatically increased when the merchant signs his advertisement.

The ads of participating merchants can be identified by the words, "School Votes" printed in a small black circle in their respective advertisements.

The teachers must count the votes for their own schools and must bring them to the Times office or J & B Drugs of the Pharmacy, contest headquarters.

As stated, the contest begins today and the advertisements appearing in this paper are valuable and should be clipped and saved. The contest will continue until May 10. As the contest continues, the Times will from time to time publish the standings of the various schools so that they know what chance they have of winning one of the seven fine prizes. However, all that is important to remember at the present time is that the school teacher enters his or her school in the contest simply by sending in the registration card.

SIX YOUNG FOXES DUG OUT BY JORDANITES

Jordan—Frank Sunder and Peter Heckius and sons Jerome and Eugene of Jordan discovered a fox den Tuesday of last week and, upon investigating, dug out six kits. The den was found in a ravine where the men had followed fox tracks. Believing they could find more foxes, the party set out the next day in search of the adult animals as there is a bounty of $1 per head paid on foxes.

STORM CAUSES MUCH DISTRESS TO COUNTY RESIDENTS SATURDAY

only a little more than fifty feet from the Weckwerth barn.

Funeral rites are being held this afternoon for the young man, with Rev. S. S. Olafsson officiating. James was graduated last year from a Fargo business college.

Many harrowing experiences were reported by local motorists who were forced to stop their cars on the highway and wait for the storm to subside. Perhaps the longest ordeal was that of A. M. Magnuson and his mother-in-law, Mrs. O. D. Osthy, who, while returning from Bemidji Saturday night, ran off the edge of the highway a mile west of Mentor, and were forced to remain there until 10 o'clock Sunday morning when a farmer living in the neighborhood came along and took them to his home to recuperate until able to continue their journey.

While Mrs. Osthy wore a heavy fur coat, Mr. Magnuson was lightly dressed, but both kept from freezing, as he had enough gas to run the heater at intervals until 7 o'clock in the morning. Neither suffered any ill effects, aside from the fact that Mr. Magnusons feet were frostbitten.

Ernie Torgerson, employed in the Gatzke vicinity, left Gatzke Saturday evening in company with Miss Cora Dahl, bound for Middle River, but they failed to arrive there, the pair being found in their car on the highway seven miles east of Middle River Sunday noon. The pair were brought in to a local hospital, Miss Dahl being released almost immediately, while Torgerson is still confined there, his condition being described as favorable this morning.

WARNING PEOPLE OF STORMS

Could the radio have been more effective than it was in broadcasting warnings of the Saturday night storm? Possibly. There has been criticism of the service and some of the criticism may be justifiable.

It must be remembered however that this was an unusual storm. Old timers cannot remember one like it and we may not live to see another in which the elements combine so disastrously.

A severe summer storm may strike swiftly but the most treacherous of summer storms gives some warning of its coming. People know when a summer storm is threatening. And ordinary winter storms are not a hazard for people who are accustomed to our winters. Weather is not a worry in our territory. We come and go, regardless of forecasts, with little thought of possible tragic consequences because tragic consequences are so unusual.

It probably is different in those sections of the country in which severe storms are more common. Under such conditions people would be storm conscious and weather forecasts would be of greater importance to individuals and to communities. People would be more careful.

A repetition of Saturday night's disturbance within a few weeks probably would find us reasonably well prepared. Certainly there would be less loss of life because we would know better what to do.

But it isn't likely that we will see such a disturbance again for a long time, so long that we will have become careless again. And the results, under similar circumstances, will not be less tragic regardless of what we do about weather forecasts. Forecasts may announce the approach of a storm but weather men cannot predict where a tornado is going to strike.

"German Laws Give Women Equal Rights With Men" says the headline of a Berlin born story. My, my. That's too bad for the German women.

In behalf of the community we extend an enthusiastic welcome to the visitors to our city who will participate in the regional basketball championship tournament. That includes players and fans alike. A regional tournament is an important event. Four district champions will compete for the honor of representing the region in the state tournament, one of the sports classics of the season. Our region has won more than its share of state championships in recent years, indicating that the variety of game played here is of an extra high standard. The winner of the eighth region championship will command a lot of respect at the state meet. May the best team win.

Our respect for the Greeks is steadily increasing. For a small nation they are doing a swell job under terrific pressure. A national relief organization is raising funds for the assistance of the widows and orphans of the valiant Greek soldiers. Because we believe they are especially deserving of whatever assistance we can give them, we will gladly forward to a responsible agency any contributions the people of this community may wish to make toward this cause.

To the local police a round of cheers for their good judgment in not permitting youngsters to leave the theaters during the blizzard. It was slow work distributing them to their homes in the police car but it may have saved several lives.

Tomorrow is the first day of Spring—according to the calendar—and we are getting along toward the season of activity again. Maybe this week's blizzard will bring winter to an end as suddenly as the Armistice Day storm put a stop to Summer last November. No one will object.

With bare ground in the offing, farmers are beginning to get that seedy feeling.

The Grand Rapids Independent reports a city youngster telling about his first visit to a farm. "The barn", he said, "was so cold the farmer had to go out and drain the cows' crankcases every night".

Girl Scout Notes

Girl Scout Anniversary Week Ends Tuesday, March 18

Celebration of Girl Scout week, which started March 12, and was observed by scout organizations all over the world, ended on Tuesday, March 18. Girl scouting stands for an ethical code of democratic citizenship—for responsibility voluntarily accepted by girls of all races, creeds, and colors. That code is set forth in the Girl Scout Promise and Laws, which have been called the simplest and strongest expression of what Girl Scouting is and does. Every Girl Scout council can be proud to point to this practical code of citizenship: "On my honor I will try to do my duty to God and my country, to help other people at all times, to obey the Girl Scout Laws." and, the Girl Scout Laws: 1. A Girl Scout's honor is to be trusted. 2. A Girl Scout is loyal. 3. A Girl Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others. 4. A Girl Scout is a friend to all, and a sister to every other Girl Scout. 5. A Girl Scout is courteous. 6. A Girl Scout is a friend to animals. 7. A Girl Scout obeys orders. 8. A Girl Scout is cheerful. 9. A Girl Scout is thrifty. 10. A Girl Scout is clean in thought, word and deed.

Knitting and Handicraft Projects Begun by Scouts

All of the Girl Scout troops are now working on handicraft projects, for which badges will be awarded upon completion. The girls are also doing knitting under the direction of Mrs. Edward Bratrud.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

Puppet Show

Last week's puppet productions, "Nicodemus and His Houn' Dog" and several shorts were witnessed by over 225 parents and children. The crowd was very enthusiastic as the colored characters went through their antics. This week's show will be "Hansel and Gretel". It will be accompanied by musical shorts. All are welcome to these free shows held every Thursday afternoon at 4:20 in the arena puppet theatre. Puppeteers are all local children. Costumes and scripts are the work of these children.

Arena Craft Shop

The arena craft shop with all its new power equipment and hand tools opens today. Although all tools have not been received as yet, it is expected the shop will be complete in a few days. All those who have been waiting for the shop to open are invited to come down and start on some new project. Craft leaders have been busy most of the week building a cabinet for the shop, which will hold all the tools and accessory materials. All three basement rooms will again be available for craft use.

Quiet Game Room

A half-dozen pre-school children have been coming to the game room at one o'clock every afternoon. Camille Dostal is on hand at that time and would like to see that number increased. Parents are urged to send their young children to the game room, where they enjoy themselves playing a lot of games. There is a lot of equipment in the room especially for children of pre-school age, so why not make use of it?

Funeral Rites for James Weckwerth Thursday

Funeral services are being conducted today, March 20, at 2 p. m. from the Erickson & Lund Funeral Home for James Weckwerth, who died on Sunday March 16, in Wyandotte Township at the age of 22 years, seven months, and 14 days. Rev. S. S. Olafsson will conduct the services and burial will be made in the Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Weckwerth was born in Smiley township and moved with his parents from there to River Falls Township in 1927 where he lived until the time of his death. He was not married.

He leaves to mourn his death his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Weckwerth; two sisters, Mrs. Richard Peterson of Wyandotte Township, and Doneida at home; six brothers, Clarence of Thief River Falls, Owen Jr., Walter, William, Harold, and Alan all at home; and his grandfather, Herman Weckwerth of Wenatchee, Wash. One sister preceded him in death.

SIDELIGHTS ON STORM

The local police force rendered a commendable service while the blinding storm was at its height Saturday evening by calling at the theatres and instructing the small children present not to leave for their homes until they could be taken in the police car or unless their parents should call for them.

Jim Dryden ran into the storm north of St. Hilaire, and was forced to stop his car and remain in it until daybreak Sunday morning, when he made his way to a nearby farm home.

A Great Northern train southbound from Noyes Saturday night stopped to pick up occupants of several stranded cars on Highway 75, near Euclid and took them into Crookston. Occupants of one of the cars were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Anderson, August Scholin, Emil Larson and Harry Johnson, all of the Thief River Falls community.

Verle Ingberg of Mavie was caught in the storm while returning to his farm home from a store in the village. His brother Harold came to the Oski home nearby in search of him. Car headlights were turned in all directions until Verle noticed them and made his way to the Oski home, nearly exhausted.

V. C. Noper, who lives less than a mile west of the city on Highway 1, started for home during the storm, but was unable to get more than a short distance and spent the night in one of the Sager cabins.

A lot of lunches had been prepared at Rod's Cafe to feed the crowd gathered at the Goodridge community hall Saturday night. The lunches remained at Rod's and the people remained at the hall. As far as we know the two never did get together.

Sunday morning was slow in coming to Mr. and Mrs. Noble Urdahl, stormbound at the Goodridge community hall Saturday night. The children were home alone and nothing that could be done about it.

Carl Brahs, manager of the local Land O'Lakes plant, was among the lucky ones. Returning from Minneapolis, he drove into his yard just as the storm broke in all its fury.

Kern Olson, Ben Kiewel and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Rulien, returning from Minneapolis, ran into the storm about a mile north of Mahnomen. With the assistance of two young men of the community whom they had picked up, they found their way to a filling station on the highway, where they remained until 3 o'clock in the morning, when they were escorted into Mahnomen by the Mahnomen county sheriff, who had made his way to the scene. The party suffered no ill effects.

Five Warren women who had been visiting at Oakland Park sanatorium left for Warren at 8:45 and had covered 12 of the 30 miles distance before they ran into the storm. They huddled in the car thruout the night, having enough gasoline to operate the heater until 5 o'clock in the morning. It was several hours after that when a highway snowplow came to the rescue of the thoroly chilled women.

Last Saturday night being the first one of the year that stores stayed open in the evening, shopping crowds were not as large as usual. Most of the visitors had not left for home when the storm broke, and they spent the night in hotels, cafes, at the Soo depot or with friends in the city.

Thirty-five cars were tied up on Highway 32 south of the city by a huge drift nearly ten feet high and a half-block long extending along the highway west from the sanatorium. A state highway department snowplow aided by a Pennington county Diesel unit had opened the road late Sunday.

County highway engineer Erickson knows now how folks feel when they are waiting for the snow plow to make an appearance. Mr. and Mrs. Erickson, storm bound at Goodridge Saturday night, spent seven hours on the road getting home Sunday.

Egyptian Calendar

Pre-historic Egypt is credited with having evolved the 365-day year. The ancient Egyptians divided the year into 12 months of 30 days each, with five feast days at the end of the year. It was not until Alexander's times, however, that accurate account was also taken of the extra day in leap years.

Mallard Duck Spending Winter in Tourist Park

Believe it or not, a mallard duck has spent the winter on an open place in the river adjoining the Thief River Falls tourist park, according to the testimony of Gust Opseth, supervisor of NYA work projects. Instead of flying south last fall, the bird has made its home on open water near the outlet from the sewage disposal plant. Opseth reports that until recently a half-dozen mallards were to be seen there.

Five in a Row

Squeezing that 27 to 23 victory out of East Grand Forks last Friday night gave the Prowlers their fifth consecutive 31st district basketball championship. That's quite a record, and the boys, the entire squad, and that includes the 'B' team, are deserving of a great deal of praise and credit for such an achievement. But while you are congratulating the boys on their accomplishment don't forget to ladle out a fair measure of credit to Coach John Lindenmeyer; and don't forget either that this makes the third year in a row that Lindenmeyer has coached the Prowlers to the district title.

I think that Lindenmeyer has put out a fine job of coaching this year, both in football and in basketball. He didn't have much stuff on hand when the basketball season opened last year. The lettermen were only three, Eddie Flasch, Babe Peterson, and Tommy Carlisle, and only Eddie had been a regular on the previous season's team. And the material that was available for the varsity ran mostly to inexperienced seniors. Think of what a year or two of basketball experience would have done to Johnny Parbst and Armand Pederson and Denny Althoff.

Of course Lindenmeyer received quite a boost when Russ Garness transferred from Twin Valley to the local school, but it took some time and coaching before Russ' style of play was co-ordinated with that of the other Prowlers. Considering all of the factors I don't think that there is much argument but that this year's team is pretty much of a coaching job, they aren't one of those spontaneous outfits that pop up every once in a while.

Prowlers in Good Shape

And the Prowlers are still on the move. They are in fine condition, both physically and mentally, for their crucial game with the heavily favored Bemidji Lumberjacks tonight. Psychologically the pressure will be on Bemidji, and the Prowlers, with everything to win and very little to lose, will be ready to go all out in their battle to upset the Lumberjacks.

Eddie Flasch and Jimmy Conner have recovered from their experience of Saturday night and Sunday. The boys went to Goodridge on Saturday night, in Jimmy's Model A, to 'trip the light fantastic' (that's what Ed called it). Came the storm; couldn't venture out; forced to remain in the hall all night; left for Thief River Sunday morning; became stalled; frostbitten feet; deep snow; high wind; found a farm-house and shelter; came home Sunday evening; Eddie in bed all day Monday with a hot pad on his chest; Jimmy walked around on his heels to save his sore feet. But they will be okay for tonight's game.

Just an Opinion

With an important hockey game here last Thursday night, and a slight head-cold on Friday night, I wasn't able to see the tournament in East Grand Forks, so I can't pass judgment on the all-tournament team picked by the Lincoln Log sports staff; but using the season's play as a basis I would pick the following as the district's outstanding players: on the first team—Eddie Flasch and Babe Peterson, Thief River, forwards; Russ Garness, Thief River center; Willie Morlan, Crookston, guard; and Bennett Larson, East Grand Forks, guard. And on the second five—Dana Allen, Warren, forward; Bill Bakken, Crookston, forward; Don Harney, East Grand Forks, center; Johnny Parbst, Thief River, guard; and Winton Znerold, Warren, guard.

Flasch is a cinch for one forward spot; he's the district's best ball-handler; has one of the most dangerous dribbles in the circuit; the best one-handed shot; and very effective at intercepting passes and setting up plays. Babe Peterson I consider to be the most underrated player in the district; he doesn't carry any bells or whistles so he isn't much noticed, but he's always playing ball; commits very few fouls; has poise; plays a strong defensive game; dangerous with his shots from out on the court.

Russ Garness is the district's best rebound player; and can handle himself when the play becomes rough and tough; dangerous scorer when he has his pivot shot under control; can direct most of the jump balls. Bennett Larson, East Grand Forks most valuable player; effective on offense and defense; tall and rangy, and a reliable point-getter; the Green Wave's best defensive player; a fine long shot. Willie Morlan, an Eddie Flasch type of player; exceptional dribbling ability; handicapped somewhat by lack of size; a good ball-handler; but only a fair scorer.

Second Choice

On the second five we have Dana Allen at forward, a frail sort of lad; a fine shot from out on the court, but lacking in drive and aggressiveness. Bill Bakken, one of the temperamental boys, can be a fine player when he's in the mood; a good shot; fairly fast on the break. Don Harney, at center, East Grand Forks captain; a big, active player, but somewhat erratic. Johnny Parbst, just a little shy on experience or he would have been on the first five; his first year of varsity basketball; the most improved player in the district. Winton Znerold, a fine all-round guard; strong defensively and fairly effective on offense; good shot.

SILVERTON

Of interest to former friends and neighbors of the Letness family is the announcement of the double wedding at the Letness home in Moorhead recently when Miss Emma Letness became the bride of Wayne Anderson of Moorhead and Miss Helen Klemetson of Hillsboro, N. D., became the bride of John Letness. The vows were spoken before the fireplace by the Rev. A. T. Tjornhom, pastor of Our Saviors Lutheran Church, Hillsboro. The room was decorated with talisman roses and white sweet peas and lighted with cathedral tapers for the 4 o'clock service. Miss Bertha Letness, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Letness played Lohengrins, "The Bridal Chorus" as the wedding party entered. Miss Ruth Lovaas of Hillsboro sang Greigs, "I Love Thee" in Norwegian and English before the ceremony and "Because" afterwards accompanied by Miss Bertha Letness. Miss Emma Letness had as her attendant her sister, Miss Marie Letness of Watford City, N. D. Mr. Anderson was attended by his brother Kent Anderson of Hannaford, N. D. Miss Klemetsons attendant was her sister, Miss Thelma Klemetson and Harold Letness of Hillsboro was his brother John's attendant. Wedding dinner was served at the Gardner Hotel at Fargo after which both couples left on a trip to the Twin Cities. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will reside in Moorhead and Mr. and Mrs. Letness will live in Hillsboro where they will be at home after March 8. Best wishes of their many friends here are extended to the happy couples.

Mr. and Mrs. Sivert Hanson and son, Wilhelm, Halvor Fodstad, Clarence Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Christopherson and Mrs. John Sorum motored to Hillsboro N. D. Wednesday to attend the sale at the Jens Letness farm. Mr. and Mrs. Letness have moved from the farm to Moorhead to make their home.

Miss Lulu Kukuk who has been a house guest of Dorothy Woolson left Tuesday for Grand Forks to visit Mrs. Gangness till Wednesday when she will return to her home in Cavalier.

Mrs. W. E. Chapman, Mrs. Willis Roese and son, Irven motored to Grand Forks Tuesday called there by the tragic death of Mrs. Halley in the past week's storm, Chapman's relative, Mrs. Orland Elwill school was closed Monday because of the storm and inability of Miss Iva Howe to return from Erskine where she had spent the week-end with her parents.

Jean Helgeland has enrolled in our spring primary class.

Miss Carrie Groven returned to her normal school duties after two weeks practice teaching at Elwell.

Next week we will have our elimination in declamatory work. Nine pupils are participating and only four may take part in the sectional contest which will be held next month.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dearly beloved daughter and sister, Mrs. Rose C. Klans who died March 23, 1931:

Deep in our hearts there is a picture
Of a loved one gone to rest.
In memory's frame we shall keep it,
Because she was one of the best.
Our lips cannot speak how we loved her,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say.
God only knows how we miss her,
As we journey along on life's way.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in Heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

Dearly loved and sadly missed by her parents and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vakoch and family. 12p

T. R. Falls Sextet is Hockey League Champ

Crammed into the Arena last Thursday night a near-capacity crowd witnessed the Thieves conclude their championship season with a sensational last-second 2 to 1 victory over the Grafton Millionaires in the fifth and deciding game of the States-Dominion hockey league play-offs.

The two teams went into the final minutes of play with the score knotted at 1-all, and with each team playing a man short—Paul Kornck of the locals and Jerry Hebert of Grafton having been sent off the ice at the 16:00 mark with major penalties for fighting—and with but six seconds of play remaining Joe Popiel, from a scramble in the northwest corner of the rink, hooked the puck out to Freddy Gustafson, and Gustafson's hard, angling shot whipped into the Grafton net past goalie Lawrence for the game-winning tally. A face-off, and a Grafton rush that was shoved into a corner, and the game was over.

The game was thrust and counter-thrust and a ding-dong affair from the opening bell to the final whistle. After a scoreless first period, in which the Thieves appeared to hold the upper hand and controlled the play for the greater part of the period, the locals opened the game's scoring at the 6:86 mark in the second period. Eddie McMillan, in a melee in front of the Grafton net, which was the south goal, punched Joe Novak's rebound into the laces for a Thief River tally. With a minute and a half of play remaining in the second period Jerry Hebert, Grafton defense man, evened the score when, after a solo rush the length of the ice, he swooped in on Jimmy Bronson and beat the Thieves' goalie with back-hand shot from close in, and to set the stage for Gustafson's game-winning goal.

Thief River Falls (2)		Grafton (1)
Bronson	goal	Lawrence
Beverly	defense	McVicar
Gustafson	defense	Hebert
Popiel	wing	Fox
McMillan	wing	Proch
Kornck	center	Beaulieu

Spares: Thief River Falls Novak, Gray, Hovle, Tripp; Grafton Teel, Smith, Shack, Sutherland.

First period: Scoring none. Penalties McMillan, Novak, Shack (2), [illegible] McMillan, Novak, Sh[illegible].

Second period: Scoring McMillan (Novak) 6:35; Hebert 18:40. Penalties Gustafson, McMillan.

Postponed Contest Played in Lincoln High Gym, Tuesday

In a story-book finish, scoring the winning points with but half a minute of play remaining, the Roseau high school team won the basketball championship of district 32 by defeating Baudette, 23 to 22, in a game played here last Tuesday afternoon. With the score 22 to 21 in favor of Baudette, Ray Dahlquist Roseau forward, received a two shot foul, and dropped in the two points to give the green-clad Roseau team its victory.

The Roseau team had an up-hill scrap before it eked out its win, being held without a field goal during the first two periods of play, and trailing, 10 to 0, at halftime. Jack Lundbohm sparked the Roseau team in its second half day, scoring three field goals and playing a fine floor game. Paul Patchin, Baudette guard, highlighted the play of the border team, counting two field goals and four free throws, for eight points.

LOCAL QUINT WINS DISTRICT TOURNEY FIFTH TIME IN ROW

Prowlers Defeat East Grand Forks in Finals Friday by 27-23 Score

Defeating St. Hilaire, 30 to 1[illegible], in a first round game, winning from Warren, 28 to 17, in the semi-finals; and defeating a fighting East Grand Forks team, 27 to 23, in the championship finals at East Grand Forks Friday night, the Prowlers, for the fifth consecutive year, were declared basketball champions of the 31st district, and earned the right to represent the district in the eighth regional basketball tourney which will get under way here tonight.

In their role of heavy favorite to retain their district title the Prowlers, under pressure, played erratic basketball in the East Grand Forks tournament. Against Warren, with Eddie Flasch, Babe Peterson and Johnny Parbst sparking the attack, and Russ Garness doing fine work on the rebounds, the Prowlers piled up a 19 to 6 lead at the half, and then slackened the pace of their offense in the second half with the result that the "Ponies" outscored the Prowlers, 11 to 9, in the final two periods of play.

The drama of the entire tournament was crammed into the second half of the championship game with East Grand Forks. A first half spurt, with Flasch garnering six points and Babe Peterson collecting four, had given the Prowlers a comfortable 17 to 9 lead at half time. Coming back on the floor for the second half, the [illegible] inspired East Grand Forks team, which was playing without the services of Don Ramsey, its captain and center, proceeded to take the play away from the Prowlers. Farrell Thompson [illegible] a one shot for the [illegible] Conner, who played a splendid game for the local during the tourney, dropped in a Prowler free throw; Lorentson scored on a push-up shot; and Parbst counted a field goal on an under-the-basket shot, to send the Prowlers into a 22 to 11 lead.

Eddie Flasch, who had picked up three personals in the first half, was given his fourth foul, and left the game. Kennedy counted a Green Wave free throw, Bennett Larson, the game's last shot, poked in a long heave, Conner marked up another Prowler free throw, Larson scored on shot from close in, to leave the score at the end of the third period 2[illegible] to [illegible] for the Prowlers.

Kennedy opened the fourth period with a close-in shot. Conner rang up a Prowler field goal. Babe [illegible] dipped in a close shot; and Morrod, on a two shot foul, netted his first try, and exercised his option of taking the ball out of bounds on his second shot. Potter pumped in a long East Side basket, and the score with seconds of play remaining was Thief River 25, East Grand Forks 23. Babe Peterson, who had been the most consistent of the Prowlers, dumped in an under-the-basket shot, and the game was won, 27 to 23.

PRESIDENT LASHES OUT AT DICTATORS IN FIERY ADDRESS

Tells Citizens They are to Feel Impact of Gigantic Effort

Warning that sacrifice and inconvenience lie ahead for all, President Roosevelt Saturday night made a "total victory" over the dictators the objective of an American "total effort", unflaggingly sustained, to place the implements of warfare in the hands of nations resisting aggression.

"You will feel the impact of this gigantic effort in your daily lives", he said in an address before the White House Correspondents association. "You will feel it in a way that will cause you many inconveniences."

The nation must be prepared for lower profits and longer hours of labor, he said. The arms program must not be obstructed by "unnecessary strikes". The idea of "normalcy" and business as usual" must be abandoned. There must be no war profiteering."

He hailed the passage of the lease-lend bill by congress as a decision ending "any attempts at appeasement in our land; the end of urging us to get along with the dictators; the end of compromise with tyranny and the forces of oppression."

The address was one of the president's most vigorous utterances, a speech bristling with determination to eliminate Nazism as a world force, and dedicating the material and industrial resources of the country anew to that purpose. It had been expected and awaited for days.

Production Credit Men From Five Associations Convene at Crookston

Officers of the Thief River Falls Production Credit association were included in a group of thirty representing five northwestern Minnesota associations that attended a two-day conference in Crookston. Principal speakers were George H. Susens, president of the Production Credit corporation of St. Paul, and Dr. Andrew Boss of the University of Minnesota college of agriculture. Those representing the local association included F. S. Erdmann of Red Lake Falls, Alfred Longren, Thief River Falls; and Robert J. Lund, secretary-treasurer.

Free Automobile Given Crookston Store Man as Reward for Politeness

Stewart Johnson, assistant manager of the Penney store at Crookston, had a new automobile Saturday as definite proof that it pays to be courteous to your customers.

A year ago when Johnson was working in a store for the same company at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., a man walked in just at closing time. Johnson volunteered to assist him in making his purchases despite the fact the store was about to close.

An hour later the man had finished his business and told Johnson he would never regret the courtesies he had shown him. The man said his name was Bert Williams, radio singer, whose real name was Paul Goff.

Saturday morning Williams, or Goff, flew by airplane to Fargo, walked into a garage and laid down three $500 bills for a new Buick automobile. He then drove the car to Crookston and presented it to Johnson.

Norwegian Relief, Inc., Sets Goal at $1,000,000 to be Raised by June 1

One million dollars by June 1 is the immediate national goal set for Norwegian Relief, it was announced today by Dr. Orlando Ingvoldstad, Chicago, newly appointed executive secretary of the organization which is raising funds for the benefit of the people of Norway.

The campaign for funds will hit a high point on April 9, the anniversary of the Nazi invasion of Norway. On that day Norwegian churches throughout the nation will hold special prayer services for the safety of the Norwegian people, Dr. Ingvoldstad announced.

Of the fund which is nearing the half million mark, more than $70,000 is already being used to ship ready-built homes from Sweden to Norwegian communities hardest hit by the blitzkrieg. A committee of American citizens in Sweden is aiding the organization. More funds are urgently needed as the food situation becomes more acute. A shipment of medical supplies is being made up for shipment direct to Norway. Every precaution is being taken to guarantee that the funds be used only for civilian needs among the Norwegian people.

Just remember that even the lowly ashes were probably big fires once upon a time.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR COUNTY TEST USING PHOSPHATE

TVA Metaphos Will be Used on Ten Test Farms in Pennington

An 18 ton shipment of metaphos, T. V. A's phosphate fertilizer of new high concentration, has been received at Thief River Falls for use by local test-demonstration farmers, Edwin L. Swanson, president of the Pennington County Phosphate Test-Demonstration association, announced today. The association and the Minnesota agriculture extension service manage the test-demonstration program through the county agent's office.

Metaphos, known chemically as calcium metaphosphate, is a higher analysis than any phosphate fertilizer in common use by farmers. It contains over 60 per cent available phosphate plant food, whereas the usual phosphate carries 16 to 20 per cent.

Lester A. Lerud, county agent, explained that application of phosphate, with lime, is nearly always necessary for satisfactory growth of soil-building crops. The demonstrators use the phosphate only on such water-and-soilholding crops. In addition, they adjust their whole farming system, as is made possible by the phosphate, toward a more successful and enduring agriculture.

Neighbors, who select the demonstrators, the county agent continued, advise with them while changes are being made and adapt new practices to their own farms. Results are judged by check plots, from records and by the visual effort of the phosphate on crops, livestock, the farm and home unit, and the community.

Since the test-demonstrators are rendering a public service, they pay for the phosphate only freight charges from Wilson Dam, Ala., location of the Tennessee Valley Authority's experimental Fertilizer Works. They also bear all other costs of changes incurred in their farm reorganization.

There are ten test-demonstration farms in the county. The present shipment is for the following: Erickson Bros., Black River; Mrs. Hannah Lindquist, Bray; Gill Oak, Deer Park; Rudolph Kusmak, Goodridge; Alf Jorstad, Kratka; John L. Wold, North; H. I. Finstad, Rocksbury; Knutson Bros. Silverton; Alvin Horning, Star; Harry A. Haugen, Wyandotte.

IN THE STATE SENATE

By Senator E. L. Tungseth

During the past two weeks the Chamber and the halls have been filled with discussions and arguments for and against the passage of the four cent gasoline tax. I might remind our readers that this is a restoration of the four cent gasoline tax since the last legislature reduced such tax by one cent per gallon. Because of such reduction our state highway department has lost a considerable amount of revenue. It is generally estimated that an additional one cent per galloon tax will provide an additional five million dollars. But it is not only our state highway department which is the loser, since 1-3 of all gasoline tax revenue is reappropriated back to the counties for state aid purposes, relieving the counties of necessary property tax levies for a road and bridge fund. It is quite apparent that the four cent gasoline tax bill, which already has passed the House, will also pass the Senate. However, there is a very determined effort on the part of the three large cities to have the Dunn one mill road and bridge tax repealed. In other words they are willing to compromise and vote for the four cent gasoline tax providing the one mill tax might be repealed.

The city people in general are as fair minded as our people from the country and they are, of course, an integral part of the great body of the citizens of the state of Minnesota. These fine city cousins of ours should however refresh their memory and recall how they sought to pass the Babcock Highway Amendment some thirty years ago in order to get highways leading into the large Metropolitan centers. The same Twin City people then realized the importance of good roads throughout the state and know that the building up of a state highway system would result in permanent benefit to them. If they will only compare their cities now with what they were a quarter of a century ago, they may contribute this growth in a very large measure to the building of highways throughout our state, which from all directions always lead into them as was the case in ancient times when it was said that all roads lead to Rome.

During the years which the State Highway Department has been in operation the Twin Cities have approximately doubled in population, business, and marketing facilities. Highway construction has been carried on with first emphasis on near city construction. Now that outlying districts in the state still are waiting for major highway improvements, this is not the time to curtail funds for this purpose. If they will make this comparison and give the state highway system its due credit, they should not now be anxious to repeal any source of income for the building of highways in the state of Minnesota, and what is true of the large city is also true of the smaller cities in proportion.

A repeal of the Dunn one mill road and bridge tax would not in any measure reduce real estate taxes in the state an iota. The one mill tax would simply be added to the general state levy and the proceeds thereof would merely be converted into the general revenue fund helping to pay the running expenses of the state instead of going into the Fund which has always been used exclusively for the benefit of roads and bridges throughout the state. According to a newspaper item of March 13, Governor Stassen has declared that regardless of the general demands now for a four cent gasoline tax, that such a tax is not justified without the repeal of the one mill state levy on real estate. It is difficult to say how or why our Governor can take this attitude. However, that is his mistake. I hope that he will not be able to exercise any effective influence over the legislature in this matter as was the case two years ago.

"MERRY CHRISTMAS" FOR DECEMBER 1940

Chaska—When John Kochs of Chaska received his mail the other day, he was surprised to receive a Christmas greeting card inasmuch as Christmas is a good nine months off. Upon opening it, however, it turned out to be a greeting card from his daughter in Minneapolis mailed December 19 but somehow or other requiring 70 days to cover the 25 odd miles separating the two places.

EASTER SEAL SALE FOR THE DISABLED TO BE CONDUCTED

Proceeds Will be Used to Finance Work of State Association

Mrs. Alexander Fraser of St. Paul and Mrs. Michael J. Dowling of Minneapolis, president and executive secretary, respectively, of the Minnesota Association for Crippled Children and Disabled Adults, Inc., announce the opening of the Easter Seal sale to help finance the work of this state-wide association, as of March 21st and continuing through until after Easter.

The Minnesota Association for Crippled Children and Disabled Adults joins with some thirty other states in sponsoring this annual sale of Easter Seals, which has been directed for several years past by the National Society for Crippled Children, Elyria, Ohio. While the national society prepares the general set-up for the Easter Seal sale, the proceeds of the sale all go directly to the state association where the seal is sold, for use in carrying on the work that is being done in this direction in many states.

Mrs. Michael J. Dowling, widow of the late and well known newspaperman, banker and philanthropist, Michael J. Dowling, has been in charge of the Minnesota Association as Executive Secretary since the fall of 1939, and has done a lot to put the association on a sound and substantial basis, where it functions as the only state-wide association interesting itself in the problems of the disabled and handicapped.

—RULES AND CONTEST INFORMATION—

VOTES ARE SECURED AS FOLLOWS

1—Purchases made at the participating stores count one vote for each penny purchase. Stores giving regular sales slips or cash register receipts do not give special "Rural Vote Contest Slips" in addition. The sales slip or cash register receipt is good for the number of votes indicated by the total purchase made. Special vote tickets are given only by the stores not using regular sales slips or cash register receipts.

2—DISPLAYED OR CLASSIFIED ads of cooperating merchants appearing in this paper count 25 votes each. No voting tickets are necessary. The ad itself counts as votes. There is no limit to the number of ads which can be turned in to count as votes.

3—ADDITIONAL VOTES ON ADS WHEN PURCHASES ARE MADE. If a purchase is made at a cooperating store, the merchant will sign ONE of his ads with each purchase. The ad itself with the signature then automatically counts for 100 votes, IF A SALES TICKET OR SPECIAL SALES VOTE SLIP IS ATTACHED TO IT! Whether the ad is signed or not it will not be counted for more than 25 votes unless a sales slip is ATTACHED TO IT! The purchase from the merchant NEED NOT be an item advertised on the advertisement he signs. ANY PURCHASE COUNTS!

4—When you sell PRODUCE, EGGS, CREAM, GRAIN OR POULTRY, you will receive votes equal to the amount of your sale, one vote for each penny.

5—DOUBLE AND TRIPLE VOTES: When payment is made on a charge account contracted prior to the beginning of the contest is made, votes will be given at the rate of TWO votes for each penney. If a charge account contracted for prior to the contest is PAID IN FULL votes will be given at the rate of THREE for each penney. Ads will be signed by merchants for payment on account—but the printed ad will count for only 100 votes.

6—Bakery bands, bread wrappers or inserts in baked goods are themselves accepted at 25 votes each and do not require vote slips or sales slips.

AFTER VOTES ARE SECURED

1—Parents and friends saving votes for a particular school can give them to a pupil of the school, who will give them to the teacher. They may be given to the teacher directly or they may be deposited at the Pharmacy, the Jay-Bee Drug Store or The Times. Be sure to wrap votes and designate on the outside of the package the name of the school for which they are intended, and the number of votes in each package.

2—Teachers will assemble and count the votes turned in to them, wrap them, and designate the total number of votes and the school for which they are intended and deposit them at The Pharmacy, The Jay-Bee Drug Store or the Times.

Alterations, Erasures, or Indication of Such Changes Render Sales Slips or Voting Coupons Void, and May Disqualify the School From Further Competition!

RURAL SCHOOL TEACHERS

Post this announcement ad at your school for a reference list of participating merchants and rules! It is not too late to enter your school in this contest. Just send a postcard to The Times, Thief River Falls, giving your name, district number, school name and township.

NYA HI-LITES

By Tom Benson

A glance out the window sends frigid tremors up ones spine, for the sun has yet to erase all signs of Mid-March abnormal arctic weather.

The NYA basket-ball team and a handfull of rooters drove to Goodridge last Saturday evening to tangle with the Gatake basketeers on the Goodridge auditorium court. The pace throughout the game was spirit breaking, the defense was tight, and everybody was hot, the result was a barrage of book shots with the shooter and aerial artist in his own right. At half time the score favored Gatake, 22-17, the game ended with the score tied 42-42. In the three minute overtime period one basket was scored by Gatake, to give them the victory. Berdeen Nornes, NYA's ace basket merchant, garnered 18 points to lead the scoring.

When the game ended and we found it too stormy to venture out on the road, we slipped into a momentary state of dejection, but the orchestra gave forth and as the local people swung out on the floor to its rhythm, the gang was under its spell. Yours truly, limbered up his rusty shag joints and swung it in compete delirium. The rest of the boys say "Ditto". At least 200 people were marooned in the auditorium by the storm and with no sleeping facilities or food provisions, fatigue and hunger prevailed.

So it really wasn't out of ordinary to go to the basement for a drink of water which constituted the extent of what may seem a somewhat limited diet, and there find a number of fellows relaxed on benches and tables snoring their weary troubles to the rafters.

With the coming of daylight, the more venturesome males who could no longer stand the hunger gnawing at their stomachs, tied mufflers around their heads and dashed from house to house, the four blocks separating the auditorium from the nearest restaurant and there pacified themselves with sandwiches and coffee. The NYA boys got home at three o'clock Sunday afternoon and are now convinced that story book experiences can happen to anybody.

Mr. Govednik, resident director, spent a week in St. Paul on business returning via train Monday morning. He was quite surprised to find that the storm had really been as severe as it was.

PUBLIC OPINION

We the pupils of District No. 31, want to thank you very much for the copies of the Times and the photographs. That was very thoughtful of you. Most of our families subscribe for your paper, but those who didn't were very happy to receive it. We all thought the photographs were very good. Some of us are sending the band pictures to our friends and relatives who life far away. Others of us put the pictures in our memory books.

It was fun to see how the newspaper is printed. Thank you for showing us around and explaining how the machines work. When we came back we told our teacher all about it. Everything considered, we had a wonderful [illegible].

CRIPPLED CHILD CLINIC TO BE HELD IN CITY MAY 17TH

One of Series of Eight to be Conducted in State This Spring

Eight clinics for crippled children to be held in various parts of Minnesota have been scheduled for April, May and June, according to the announcement of Walter W. Finke, Director, State Division of Social Welfare. The schedule presented by Dr. Malvin J. Nydahl, head of the Bureau for Crippled Children, includes:

May 17, Thief River Falls, serving Kittson, Marshall, Pennington, Red Lake, and Roseau counties.

These clinics are for crippled children under 21 years of age whose parents are financially unable to obtain private orthopedic care. Services include: medical examination by an orthopedic specialist, vocational consultation, and arrangements for hospitalization and field nursing.

Cooperating with the bureau for crippled children in this clinic program are the Minnesota-Dakota Orthopedic club, the Gillette state hospital for crippled children, the division of vocational rehabilitation of the state department of education, and the Minnesota Public Health association.

A total of 1501 crippled children were examined at the 16 clinics held during 1940. More than 17 per cent of those attending the clinic were cases not known previously to the Central Register of Crippled Children of the state.

Minnesota Department of Agriculture Cites New Federal Seed Law

Farmers and dealers who buy or sell seed must take into consideration both state and federal seed laws this year, according to C. P. Bull, in charge of weed control in the Minnesota state department of agriculture, who urges the utmost care by all persons in handling seed. The state laws already operative were backed up during the past year by a new federal seed act which became fully effective on August 9, 1940.

The act is intended primarily to regulate interstate commerce in agricultural seeds by requiring certain standards and proper labeling, preventing false advertising and misrepresentation, and nullifying the disclaimer and nonwarranty clauses sometimes used by seed men in dodging responsibility for the seed they sell. The act does not replace state seed laws, but it supplements and strengthens them. To the 68 agricultural seeds named in the act, the Secretary of Agriculture has added 22 more to make a total of 90 which are now covered. Included are grass, forage, and field crop seeds which move in interstate commerce.

Labeling requirements under the federal act are of special interest to those who buy or sell seed, according to County Agent Lester A. Lerud. The official label on crop seed packages now must list: The kind, variety or type of seed, lot number, amount of the various weed seeds, noxious weed seeds by name, amount of other agricultural seeds and inert matter, the per cent of germination, the month and the year of the official test, and the name and the address of the shipper or consignee.

Minnesota Wild Life Fared Well in Winter

Wild life in Minnesota fared well during the past winter on the basis of surveys and reports available in the department of conservation.

Except for the Armistice Day blizzard, which exacted some toll of upland game in scattered regions, birds and animals had a good winter of it.

Pheasant losses resulting from the storm proved to be less than at first feared, officials said. While mortality may have ranged up to 15 per cent and higher in some regions, on the whole it was slight.

Frank Blair, state superintendent of game propagation, said in his opinion there are more game birds of all species in Minnesota than for many previous years at this season.

Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Sr. Gets Letter from Cousin Telling of British Life

Experiences in warn-torn England are detailed in the following excerpts from a letter written February 2 by Maud Rabling of Cornwall, England, to her cousin, Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Sr.:

Just at present M. and I are enjoying having our house to ourselves; no evacuees. There are several hundred more children expected from Bristol, which has been badly bombed. We are prepared and quite willing to take another evacuee. The last left just before Christmas. The poor little thing, a boy just eight years old, was very homesick. He had been in Newquay since June. His mother, who works in a factory, came and fetched him home. I suppose it was the wisest thing to have done but I was very sorry to have the child return to London. The mother had not slept in bed for months and did enjoy our comfie bed. She overslept the next morning and I had to call her to catch her train back to London.

You will be interested to hear about our food. We still have plenty to eat, but there are some foods we cannot get, so every one has to be contented to enjoy what they have. At present we can't get oranges or bananas, and very little chocolate, and I have such a sweet tooth! Here in Newquay, perhaps things are a little more difficult, for our winter population is normally 9,000 but now we have 22,000. Plenty of bread and flour, but dried fruits, (currants and sultanas) are not plentiful. Our tea, sugar and meat rations are good.

Last week we had a land mine dropped quite close here. It made a direct hit on its objective and caused great trouble. We watched it from our windows. I wish I could tell you more. The week before St. Ives was bombed. Some people injured. I do not think any were killed. I do not know why the enemy should bomb St. Ives as it is not a military objective.

We are all trying to do our bit. Of course we get tired; and we do not enjoy things when the bombs come too close. But everyone means to work on to victory.

We thank America more than I know how to say for the help she is sending. I assure you that every garment in 'Bundles for Britain' will be of use. I read an account only yesterday of helpers after an air raid over London. It said 'through the American Relief Committee in London' they had acquired a mobile canteen. It was in connection with a Mission and did lots of good.

Mr. Willkie seems to be enjoying his visit to England. I hope he gives you a good report of us all.

I must stop writing. How lovely it will be when we get peace again!

REGISTRATION OF DEFENSE WORKERS URGED BY STASSEN

State Employment Service Cooperates with U. S. Agencies

Governor Harold E. Stassen today took steps to coordinate efforts of the public employment service in Minnesota with a nation-wide registration of defense workers, beginning Saturday, details of which were announced in Washington by Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator.

Starting March 15, and continuing for a month or longer, the governor announced, offices of the division of employment and security will receive registrations of every unemployed worker who is available for work or training in defense jobs, and every person with an urgently needed skill that is not being used in his present job.

The governor's action supplements a letter by William S. Knudsen, director of the Office of Production Management. Mr. Knudsen's letter, sent to all persons with contacts, called for the swift output of defense materials, and urged utilization of local employment offices to meet their labor needs. He also urged that contractors refrain from recruiting workers outside of their localities, without first checking with public employment offices.

"Mr. Knudsen's letter is significant in Minnesota where we are making efforts to obtain more defense contracts," the governor said. "It urges voluntary cooperation with our division of employment and security on the part of contractors and sub-contractors who have or who may receive these contracts. This imposes on the Division the task of obtaining a complete registration of all available workers, especially those who are skilled and semi-skilled in the defense job categories."

"The registration," the Governor continued, "is being undertaken to prepare for the demand for defense workers expected within the next few months, as well as to meet growing shortages of skilled labor in the machine shop and machine tool as well as the aircraft and shipbuilding industries.

"Advice from Washington is that skilled and experienced workers in that following occupations are in immediate demand; machinists, toolmakers, lathe operators, die makers, tool designers, sheet metal workers, aeronautical engineers, ship carpenters, loftsmen, boat builders, ship fitters, caulkers, and marine machinists.' SMILEY

JIM WECKWERTH MEETS DEATH IN STORM

Stark tragedy was the death to one of the very nicest young men hereabouts, Jim Weckwerth, early Sunday morning. He left home on horseback when the snow storm was well on its way to search for his brother who had been visiting at the A. Arne home that evening, but had not come home. Somehow or other, he apparently fell off the horse as he was found on a field and the horse came home alone. He was found frozen to death about 10 a. m. Sunday morning. It is really unbelieveable to think such a fine young man had to be called so soon to the Great Beyond. Jim was twenty one years old. He graduated last spring from the Interstate Business College at Fargo. Most of his childhood was spent in Smiley when his folks, the Owen Weckwerths lived on the old Anderson place, now the Bragg farm. Words, alone, cannot express the deepest and sincerest sympathy to the Weckwerths.

Oscar Valavik is at his parental home at the Ole Valaviks this week. While here visiting, he will also have some dental work done in Thief River Falls. Oscar is employed on two jobs in Fergus Falls. A bountiful lunch was served also by the invited guests who were the Mesdames C. Hoverstad, Fred Myhrer, Roy Rude, Ted Markus, John Ranum, Norman Johnson, Otto Myhrer, Carl E. Olson, William Grundhaus, Wilbert Jablinski, Harry Ranum, O. N. Olson, Gilfred Sannes, Mark Olson, Carl Lindholm, Agnes Waring, Ray Chester, Jim McCrum, Gust Hallberg, George Jones, Florence Waller, Sophie Torkelson and Clara Olson.

Mr. Waller was employed at the Soren Knutson farm in Numedal the past several months. Both Mrs. Waller and Harry have also visited intermittedly with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Mark Olson and also at the Carl Johnson home in Thief River Falls.

Will, Jim and Vivian McCrum were hosts to a whist party at the Will McCrum home Friday evening. Three tables of whist were in play in the course of the evening. The tallies and appointments were in the St. Patrick motif. High prize went to Mrs. Walter Lendobeja with low prize going to her husband, Walter Lendobeja whose "booby" prize was wrapped in dozens of newspapers. After a festive lunch, the guests played at stunts, contests and tricks. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lendobeja, Mr. and Mrs. Florian Szymanski, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lendobeja, Clara Olson, Doris Szkmanski, Delores Lendobeja, Russell Schenk, Orton Olson and Kenneth Szymanski.

The town meeting was held at the Smiley hall last Tuesday. All officers were retained with the exception of the resignation of L. O. Stenseth as treasurer. His son, Lewis, was elected to that post.

Word has been received from the Wesley McCrums in Astoria, Oregon, stating that their eldest daughter Lorraine, was burned severly several weeks ago. Mrs. McCrum was absent from the apartment for a few moments and when she returned the little girl had extinguished the fire and had a coat over her shoulders. She was rushed to a hospital but is in a very serious condition. She was burned from her hips up her back to her shoulders and part of the left arm. She is suffering terribly. A recovery is devoutedly hoped for little Lorraine.

The third and fourth graders are making booklets on Holland. All pupils have been painting or coloring pictures on birch bark. They peeled most of the bark from the logs that were brought for fire wood.

KRATKA

Sorry! The "flu" bug had me in its power last week—the result: no news!

Mr. Elmer Zachar of Litchfield, formerly a resident of Mavie, was a business caller at the Ted Lendobeja home Saturday. He is employed with the Curtiss Publishing company. He and his family were summoned to Mavie by the very serious illness of his father. His father had now satisfactorily passed the crisis, and was now well on the way to recovery. Mr. Zachar and family are returning to Litchfield in the near future.

The pupils of the Kratka school have organized a Little Citizens' League.

The elements broke loose in all their fury Saturday evening. It is with intense relief you see all your loved ones indoors on a night when snow laden Arctic winds lash madly with hurricane velocity. It is with the deepest sorrow you hear of the ever increasing number of dead who perished in the furious storm. A human life seems such a futile little pitted against the horrors of nature gone mad.

Why Not FEED

The following is taken from a recent letter received and now on file in our office:

"With reference to our feeders' winnings at the various shows, we have the unique distinction this year of having every grand Champion live bird at all the Northwest shows. We list them as follows:

Northern States Turkey Show, Alexandria, Minnesota: Grand Champion: Bourbon Red, Exhibited by Otto Thieke, Beardsley, Minnesota.

HUBBARD'S and "Hubbard Made" Feeds also had 80% of the breed champions at the All-American."

We feel very proud of the fact that all grand champions at the five Northwest shows were HUBBARD fed birds. This is not a lot of phooey, folks, plus idle talk. It is facts and certainly proves that HUBBARD'S must have something in their Concentrate that can do the job right for you.

IT COSTS LESS TO FEED THE HUBBARD SUNSHINE WAY!

Annual Report on City Finances Is Submitted This Week

WATER DEPARTMENT NETS $5,869 IN '40

City Makes Debt Reduction of $56,215.94 During Past Year

With a gross income of $142,650.51 in 1940, the Thief River Falls municipal power plant yielded a net profit of $74,984.74 for the year, it is revealed in the annual report submitted this week by Harvey & Castle of Grand Forks, certified public accountants, who recently completed an audit of the city's books.

The local plant produced a total of 4,172,200 kilowatt hours of electricity in 1940, of which 3,263,538 kilowatts were sold at an average net price of 3.99 cents. No charge was made for 303,542 kilowatts used for street lighting, as well as other large quantities used for various municipal purposes. The municipal water department also yielded a substantial net profit of $5,869.27, the report shows.

The city in 1940 retired indebtedness aggregating $56,215.94, including $47,000 in bonds, some of which were not yet due, and $9,215.94 in warrants. Bond maturities in 1941 will amount to $43,000, following which only small amounts will mature during each of the next four years.

The municipal power plant, with resources of $469,906.03, had on January 1 a bonded debt of $185,000, while the waterworks department had assets of $102,324.90 and a bonded debt of $30,000. In addition the city owed $102,000 in general obligations, including mainly sewage plant and paving bonds.

Total receipts in 1940 from all departments, including $130,657 proceeds of a new power plant bond issue, amounted to $353,957.01, while disbursements from all departments and funds aggregated $284,767.37.

Expenditures from the current expense fund reached $51,966.92, the principal items being official salaries, $5,810; police department, $9,115.75; fire department, $7,410.76; and street department, $10,825.21. Poor fund disbursements amounted to $8,883.55; Auditorium fund, $3,240.99; library fund, $5,740.05; park fund, $6,993.33 and permanent improvement fund, $22,290.13.

Expenditures from the permanent improvement fund included sidewalk, curb and gutter projects, $4,087.29; sewers, $8,298.13; real estate, etc., $1,433.81; warrants redeemed, $9,215.94; and interest paid, $552.96.

The report by the public accountants commented that all records in the office of City Clerk P. G. Peterson are neatly and accurately kept, with all funds properly accounted for.

He will show gripping pictures of the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes, depicting also how icebergs are formed.

NORWAY'S PUBLIC HEALTH DIRECTOR SPEAKS THURSDAY

Large Gathering Hears Dr. Karl Evang in Sons of Norway Hall

Dr. Karl Evang, surgeon general of public health for the Norwegian government, addressed a large gathering last Thursday evening in the Sons of Norway hall under the auspices of the local unit of Norwegian Relief, Inc.

Dr. Evang gave a survey of the two months war in Norway, illustrating his talk with slides. Speaking on what aid the people of the U. S. can send the Norse, he said that medical supplies and food are badly needed and pointed out that pre-fabricated houses are being sent now.

With reference to the present situation, he called attention to the fact that late in September the Germans placed a small group of Norwegian Nazis in control of the country. This action aroused the resentment of the people and united them as never before in their nationalism. They were stirred both to passive and active resistance against the invaders.

MAJOR ISSUES YET UNDECIDED IN LEGISLATURE

Adjournment of 1941 Session Only One Month Distant

BALANCING BUDGET PRESENTS PROBLEM

House Passes Measure Repealing Dunn 1-Mill Road Levy

Adjournment of the 1941 legislature is one month away, and virtually every big question the session will have to answer is still unsolved.

That includes such items as highway taxes, the fate of the civil service set-up, revision of the iron ore tax picture, some more departmental reorganizations, the much-argued old age homestead lien problem and the matter of bringing expenses and income somewhere near a balance.

If the session ended right now, the legislators could point to exactly one major state-wide accomplishment — passage of the bank tax bill, which almost everyone concerned agreed was a compromise and of questionable validity.

When the senate went back to work Monday, the problem of financing state and county highways was stirring up most of the talk. It was a double-barreled proposition, to increase the gasoline tax to 4 cents a gallon, and to wipe out the old one-mill property levy for road purposes.

The house has passed both measures, and the senate motor vehicles committee last week pushed aside its city members and recommended the 4 cent gas tax for passage. The important angle on that was that the recommendation was voted before the one-mill repealer had scraped through the house, and before another senate committee had acted on it.

City members are reluctant to accept the 4 cent tax, but they could be mollified somewhat, if the one-mill levy were repealed. Both taxes take more money out of the big-population counties than those counties get from tax distributions. Governor Stassen will veto the gas tax boost, he has announced, unless the repealer accompanies it.

What's worrying the men who want the higher gas tax, however, is that the way the deal is set up, it offers a fine chance for some manipulations to put the governor on the spot, by turning down the repealer and thus forcing him to veto the 4-cent levy—a move that some behind-the-scenes operators figure wouldn't increase Stassen's popularity in the rural counties.

BEMIDJI AGAIN CAPTURES THE REGION 8 TITLE

Defending Champs Defeat T. R. Falls, Hendrum in Overtime

NOSE OUT PROWLERS BY SCORE OF 35 TO 34

Hendrum Yields to Bemidji in 2 Overtime Periods Friday Night

In one of the most exciting tournaments ever held in the eighth region Glen Barnum's defending champions, the Bemidji Lumberjacks, in over-time victories, over Thief River Falls, 35 to 34 in the semi-finals, and over Hendrum, 30 to 28 in the finals, retained their regional basketball championship.

Roseau and Hendrum opened the tournament's play on Thursday night, and the Hendrum Huskies, after trailing the scrappy Roseau team for three periods, rallied to score 12 points in the final period to win, 24 to 22. Big Oscar Siverson, center, and be-spectacled Harley Stennes, guard, led the Hendrum attack with 9 and 11 points, respectively, while Jack Lundbohm, scoring 10 points, was Roseau's most effective player.

The Prowlers and the Lumberjacks met in the second game of the tourney, and the contest developed into the nip-and-tuck affair which had been promised. With both teams being "up" for the game, the over-flow crowd of 2,800 fans witnessed the finest and fastest basketball of the tournament. With Eddie Flasch and Babe Petersen as their "sparks" the Prowlers bounced into an early 8 to 4 lead; but the Lumberjacks, playing careful basketball, and dropping in five free throws in six attempts, knotted the score just as the first period ended, with both teams at 11-all.

After three periods of red-hot basketball Bemidji held a one point lead, 27 to 26, as the final stanza opened. Jack Johnson looped in a rebound to give the Lumberjacks a [illegible] Garness [illegible] the net, and then followed with a free throw to knot the count. Eddie Flasch hit a swerving dribble and a one-handed shot, sent the Prowlers into the lead. George Thortrogger, Bemidji's stocky guard, evened the score with his long shot from the side-lines and half the length of the court, the ball swishing into the net without touching the rim. Lenny Lorentson, who was playing a splendid game for the locals, tossed in a one-handed shot and the Prowlers again led, 33 to 31. Jack Vinje, Bemidji forward, running at top speed, took a pass and made a "whirling dervish" one-handed shot to score and again bring the game to tie. Lenny Lorentson, with 35 seconds of play, had a chance to count on a free throw.

SENATE CONDUCTS HEARING ON LOCAL OPTION MEASURE

Miss Minnie Leavitt Speaks in Opposition to Bill Tuesday

Wet and dry forces appeared before the senate liquor control committee Tuesday on a bill, already passed by the house, which permits communities in dry counties to hold elections on whether to establish municipal liquor stores.

Representatives of the Minnesota League of Municipalities spoke for the measure, which affects communities in 25 dry counties, while the Minnesota Temperance Union and other temperance groups spoke against the measure.

Senator O. E. Finstad, Windom, chairman of the committee, said action will be taken by the committee at its meeting next Tuesday.

Rev. Henry Soltau, Minneapolis vice crusader, appeared as an opponent of the measure. He said he was state field secretary of the Anti-Saloon league and secretary of the Minnesota Law Enforcement association.

Among others who opposed the measure were Miss Minnie Leavitt of Thief River Falls, who said she spoke on behalf of "temperance people" of her community and Pennington county; Mrs. E. L. Baker, Minneapolis; H. M. Jones, Minneapolis, for the "Minneapolis Temperance Movement"; Rev. N. O. Peterson, Minneapolis.

GROUP MEETING AT CROOKSTON PLANS REUNION OF IWVA

International War Veterans to Meet in Winnipeg This Summer

State directors of the International War Veterans alliance met in Crookston last Thursday night to discuss plans for the convention of the organization to be held next summer at Winnipeg, and voted to make arrangements for an official state band to attend the convention opening on June 30.

Joseph Kise, department commander of the American Legion was designated as Minnesota's official representative at the convention and North Dakotans indicated they would ask Supreme Court Justice James Morris to represent their state.

Efforts will be made to have each city send a musical organization to the Canadian city for the convention parade. The Canadians are inviting Wendell Willkie to be the main speaker for the convention session and if he accepts will ask Governor Harold Stassen to introduce him.

Attending the meeting were C. D. Locklin and W. B. Allen of Grand Forks, Joseph Kise of Moorhead, Art Buhn of Mentor, Dr. A. R. Hulbert of Thief River Falls, Leonard Olson and Dr. Nelson of Ada and Lee Walter of Moorhead.

Farm Security Agency Offers Public New Form of Flexible Farm Lease

Landlords want to get a good tenant and keep him on their farm as long as he will stay, was the comment of Charley Ommodt, Farm Security supervisor, in explaining the "Flexible Lease" of FSA. Although most rental agreements have now been made, lease forms are still available for the benefit of those who may have made verbal arrangements and wish to put them in writing.

"This lease does not necessarily provide for a long term lease, but it sets up conditions under which the tenant and landlord will be helped to work out arrangements which will benefit both of them and will cause them to want to continue such arrangements," said the supervisor. The lease usually is made with the "automatic renewal" clause, which provides that it is renewed at the end of every year unless written notice is given within a certain time, preferably within six months and not less than three months.

To encourage such agreements, the FSA and the U. S. Department of Agriculture have worked out flexible lease forms which are available not only to FSA cooperators, but to other tenants as well. These forms are written in clear, understandable language and, as the names suggest, are flexible and can be completed to meet the needs of a large variety of rental agreements. Free copies of either "flexible lease" may be had from the county office of the Farm Security Administration, 116 North LaBree in Thief River Falls.

Fined and Married

Claude Leonard Cox and Miss Matilda Franco, Weed, Calif., were arrested on a charge they whizzed past an officer's siren-auto faster than he liked. Judge Bradley imposed a minimum fine. That pleased the young couple so much they asked the judge to marry them. He did.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

Arena Craft Shop

The shop is now fully equipped with new tools and all set for all those persons interested in craft work. Bernard Langevin and Ben Hayn are in charge of the shop. Both have excellent qualifications along craft lines, and they are ready for the rush of participants. With the new tools, many more articles can be made. Already several youngsters have started on new and interesting craft articles. Anyone wanting to make use of the shop is invited to come down and do so. There is no charge at all for the use of the tools. Much of the wood and other materials are provided by the program; only a small amount must be furnished by participants.

Puppet Show

Last week's show was another huge success. Hansel and Gretel was staged. This week's show will be held at the regular time on Thursday in the arena puppet theatre. The show starts at 4:20 o'clock. This week's production will be Jack and the Bean Stalk. Parents as well as children are welcome to these shows. Older persons have shown just as much interest and enthusiasm as the children in many cases.

Quiet Game Room

For a long time the recreation program had little to offer so far as the very young children are concerned. Only recently a plan to take care of these youngsters was devised, and that plan meant the establishment of the quiet game room. It is located in the arena upstairs along with the puppet, handicraft and other recreational activities. A number of games are available for these children, who were heretofore neglected. Pre-school children have been coming to the arena at one o'clock week day afternoons. For two and a half to three hours, they have the room all to themselves, and what fun they seem to have! Mothers who would like to visit the game room are urged to do so. One inspection tour of the room will assure you that the children are having a good time.

Ping Pong

It won't be long now before ping pong tournaments come up. Two tables are available in the arena for use by all those who enjoy the sport. Now is the time for "practice sessions". Practice makes perfect, so maybe a few games of ping pong now will mean a championship later on.

Handicraft

Interest is still high in all handicraft work. Girls and boys of all age groups have found the work to their liking. Many new and different articles have been made during the winter months. Many more are planned during the spring months. Some artwork and weaving have been introduced. These, too, have proven very satisfactory.

Program Hours

So many come at the wrong time, so few at the right time in connection with the program. Any information concerning the hours of operation of any part of the program can be had from the recreation leaders. Just a few questions may save a lot of steps for the many who have come to the program at the wrong time. Activities are scheduled for various age groups and other organizations make use of the arena. All this can be explained by recreation leaders, and it will save a lot of confusion.

NYA HI-LITES

By Tom Benson

Inspired by empty stomachs and the thought of a tasty supper awaiting them, we wouldn't be surprised if one of our boys in radio class sets a new world record for running eleven blocks. You see the boys take radio over in the Knox School and when they are dismissed at 7:30 they fairly burn up the eleven blocks between them and their supper.

Mr. Moe and Mr. Melbye are keeping the boys on project hitting the ball. Paper hanging is a newly acquired skill of some of the boys and they are quite surprised to find themselves doing work which at one time they'd have termed practically impossible.

Kenneth Holmstrom, who used to handle the mechanical drawing class half of the time, has enlisted in the aerial photography division of the U. S. Army, leaving Mr Johnson all alone to handle the class, but the law says a man can teach only a limited number of hours a week, so last Friday evening the boys in said class relaxed deliciously and enjoyed to the fullest the welcome respite, from arduous hours of pushing a pencil across a drawing board under eye-straining lights.

Lost in the storm sounds like another fatality, but Henry Moen, a Resident Center boy was lost in it and only his deliberate thinking and his will to live brought him in.

Produce Little

More than a fourth of the farms in the United States produce an average of less than $600 worth of products annually—and 25 per cent of this number produce less than $400 worth of commodities.

MAKES 12-CYLINDER MEAT GRINDER

St. Peter—A 12-cylinder meat grinder, designed and built by H. J. Anderson in the Victor Colberg blacksmith shop in St. Peter, is the unique piece of machinery now in operation at the Ottawa Fur Farms. Owner Carl Schmidt needed a powerful grinder to supply feed for the mink he raises so he bought a 12-cylinder engine, took it to the blacksmith shop, and had it hooked to a meat and bone grinder. The machine, which took all winter to construct, is powerful enough to grind the meat and bones of a whole horse in five minutes.

150 Young People Employed on Projects in This Community

C. D. Lund, state NYA administrator, announces that due to a reorganization the Thief River Falls area has been incorporated with the Bemidji area to form Area No. 1 with offices located at Bemidji. These are engaged in repairs to the Thief River Falls fairgrounds buildings with Owen Weckwerth as supervisor, and construction of park facilities at the Thief River Falls tourist park under the supervision of Gustav Opseth. The boys at the Resident Center are engaged in repairs to and construction of farm buildings for the Farm Security Administration.

Any youth who wish to make application for NYA work may reach Mr. Govednik at the Thief River Falls Resident Center. Warner Baxter Stars in "Adam Had Four Sons" at the Falls on Sunday

Ingrid Bergman and Warner Baxter are starred in "Adam Had Four Sons", film presentation at the Falls theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, with a midnight preview Saturday evening at 11:15. In the supporting cast are Susan Hayward, Fay Wray and Helen Westley.

Presenting the Marx Brothers—Groucho, Chico and Harpo—in their first "period" picture, "Go West", a wild and woolly comedy laid in the outdoors of 1870, will be the offering at the Avalon theatre Sunday and Monday. The film depicts the comedians in quest of gold in Colorado.

Less Drudgery in the Farm Home

Mrs. Otto Netteland of Rocksbury township thinks electricity on the farm is fine. A well lighted home and modern conveniences are pleasing to every woman of course and Mrs. Netteland is no exception.

Five Generations in This Family

At the lower right is Mrs. William Paskewitz of Holt, a daughter of Mrs. Bates, while at the top are Mrs. Thomas Knutson and her son, Kenneth Knutson, both of Grygla, the latter being Lorelee's father.

Mrs. Bates numbers 79 descendants, including seven living children, 29 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Altho she has so many years to her credit, Mrs. Bates is unusually well and quite active. As her eyesight has been failing during the past year, she devotes much of her time to listening to the radio.

Money talks, but too often there seems to be an impediment in its speech.

WANTED: USE FOR 600 TOBACCO CANS

Hewitt — Robert McKellep of Hewitt built a new barn on his farm in 1935 and after its completion discovered there was just room on the joists overhead to set empty tobacco cans. So religiously, he has utilized the space since, placing all his empty tobacco cans in neat rows along the posts. Now, with over 600 tobacco cans in his collection, he is faced with the problem of either disposing of the old cans or finding a new place to store the new ones.

HAS SEWING MACHINE USED FIFTY-EIGHT YEARS

Ellendale—Claiming a record hard to beat is Mrs. Martin Spurr of Ellendale who has a sewing machine which has been in continuous use for the past fifty-eight years. The machine, a Domestic by trade name, was purchased from Andrew Tyrholm of New Richland in 1883, the price being "forty bushels of wheat." Mrs. Spurr claims the machine has been used constantly and is still in perfect working order.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Braaeth Saturday

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. S. T. Anderson of Grygla on Saturday, March 29, at 1:00 at the home and 2:00 at the Valle church for Mrs. Dina Fredreka Braaeth, 69, who passed away at her home in Grygla on Wednesday, March 26. Interment will be made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Braaeth was born on December 18, 1871 in Tronhjem, Norway, where she lived until coming to America in 1888 when she settled at Hawley, Minn. She was married there in 1890 to Elias Braaeth, and in 1902 they moved to Grygla, Benville Township, Beltrami County, where they have since lived.

Seven sons, two daughters, one brother, and two sisters preceded her in death. Survivors are her husband, Elias Braaeth; one daughter, Selma Maria; three sons, Edwin, Alvin, and Elmer, all at home; one brother, Nels Laugsand of Detroit Lakes; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Erickson of St. Paul, and Mrs. Olaf Bartness of Moorhead.

FATHER HAS SIX SONS IN THE U. S. ARMY

Aitkin—Probably the proudest father in Minnesota these days is William J. Hoffman, Kelliher farmer. It is said that on his occasional visits to the village, the entire populace is aware of his presence as he seems to talk incessantly about Herman, William, Ben, Paul, Lloyd, and Erwin. They are all his sons and all are in the service of the United States Army.

BANG'S DISEASE RETEST IS UNDER WAY IN COUNTY

Ailment Soon Will be Under Complete Control in Pennington

State and federal veterinarians began a complete retest for Bang's disease of all cattle in Pennington and Red Lake Counties last Saturday. This will be the first retest of the herds of cattle in the two counties since the fall of 1939 when both of the counties were accredited. With this retest of the cattle at this time, the veterinarians state that Bang's disease should practically be under complete control in the county.

Pennington and Red Lake were the first two counties in the state where area tests were conducted for Bang's disease. In 1939 on the first test there were 46 herds in Pennington county that had infected animals, amongst 1221 herds that were tested. Since that time each of those infected herds have been retested at regular intervals, until such a time that there were three consecutive clean retests. A retest at this time should check any infections that may possibly have been made during the past two years.

The area test has been completed in nineteen counties of the northern section of the state since the fall of 1939. All of these counties constitute one large area.

Laboratories again are set up at Thief River Falls, Red Lake Falls, and Oklee. Dr. H. E. Wilson is in charge of the laboratory located at the court house at Thief River Falls.

Gold Nugget

A prospector who refused to give his name or tell where he was working appeared at Marysville, Calif., to have a gold nugget, which he had dug up, weighed by Frank Mooney, local gold buyer. It weighed 15 ounces and was valued at $525, making it second in size and value to the $600 "horned toad" found two years ago. The nugget bore just one scar from the miner's pick as he brought it up.

County Agent Cautions Flax Growers Against Raising Crop for Fibre

Minnesota farmers, who lead the country in the production of superior seed flax, are not likely to neglect a good crop to look for a pot of gold at the end of a rainbow, in the opinion of County Agent Lester A. Lerud. He urged flax growers to investigate carefully before joining any promotion scheme which promises double or triple income from flax raised primarily to supply fiber for spinning.

The varieties of flax grown in Minnesota and neighboring states have been developed primarily for seed production. Furthermore, agronomists say it is impossible to change a seed flax plant into a fiber flax plant by simple seed treatment. Any promotion scheme based on such an assumption is misleading.

County Agent Lester A. Lerud points out that important strides have been made in the last year or two in developing a fiber market for the straw from seed flax, but this practice should not be confused with growing fiber flax as a special crop. The cigarette paper industry is now taking a great deal of flax straw at approximately $1.00 to $1.50 a ton, and fiber from this straw is also being utilized for upholstering and packing. This provides no startling addition to the flax income, but it does help the seed flax grower make the most of his crop and gives him new incentive to harvest clean straw as well as clean seed.

Farmers' Bulletin 1728 of the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that flax-fibre of quality suitable for spinning can be had only from varieties of flax bred for fiber production. These varieties feature a tall plant with a few side branches, and a seed yield much lower than that of seed varieties.

Most Affected

Government experts estimated nearly 65 per cent of the total crop land in the United States, or 282,659,000 acres, was affected by some phase of the agricultural adjustment program in 1938.

Another Group of Holt School Pupils Visit the Times

Plan to Rebuild Flax Tow Mill at R. L. Falls

Work on the new buildings of the flax tow mill of Smith Paper Inc., at Red Lake Falls will be started as soon as weather permits according to company officials. Plans have been drawn for two buildings both to be built on the site of the warehouse. Both buildings will be built of cinder blocks, and will have flat deck roofs supported by steel trusses. The only wood used will be in the roof boards which will rest on the steel trusses and to all intents and purposes the buildings will be fire-proof.

Pullman Car

The first Pullman sleeping car was named "No. 9." It was heated by two wood-burning stoves, lighted by candle lamps, and its berths were raised and lowered by pulleys. The train conductor handled the tickets and the brakeman made up the beds. It was first used on the Alton railroad, September 1, 1859.

Electricity Brings More Eggs

COUNTY PLANNING BOARD DISCUSSES FUTURE WPA WORK

Irving Quist Named Chairman of Group Tuesday Evening

The first meeting of the Pennington County Planning Board was held in the council chambers Tuesday evening. The meeting was arranged on behalf of local public officials and the district WPA office in order that there may be better coordination of WPA projects in the county.

The WPA office was represented by J. B. Kovarik, district director, Alden Halseth, district engineer; and Frank Plat. Other members of the board consist of Clarence Vande and E. O. Iverson of the city council; Irving E. Quist and J. A. Erickson, City and county engineers; and Alfred Bredeson, Paul Roy, O. M. Mandt, and John N. Lynsker, representing the board of county commissioners and welfare board.

At the present time there are only about two months of WPA work remaining in the City of Thief River Falls, and about one hundred and fifty men would be thrown out of work unless a new project is started. The county commissioners present requested a county wide ditch cleaning and brushing project which would employ all of the available WPA workers.

At the meeting, the board was put on a permanent organization basis, with Irving Quist elected chairman; Alfred Bredeson, vice chairman; and John N. Lynsker, secretary-treasurer.

In addition to acting as a planning board, the group will also be a priorities board and will have sole authority in the county as to what WPA projects are approved here and at what time they will operate.

QUADRUPLETS BORN ON GRAND RAPIDS FARM

Grand Rapids—Four kids were born to a Grand Rapids mother recently without benefit of any man doctors or incubators. Also despite the unusual circumstances as yet there has been little talk of establishing a foundation for the kids or of government acts to care for them, nor have they yet had offers for endorsement of breakfast foods or favorite beauty soaps. The kids, and their goat mother who also gave birth to triplets last year, none of which survived, are the property of Lyle Franks of Grand Rapids. Authorities state that three kids are a rarity and four almost unheard of.

The average cost of REA electric lines is $900 per mile.

REGION 8 TOURNEY HERE HAS BIGGEST RECEIPTS TO DATE

More Than 4,000 Fans Attend Two-Day Event Thursday and Friday

The Region 8 tournament in the Thief River Falls high school gymnasium last Thursday and Friday was the most successful on record, not only from the entertainment standpoint, but also in respect to attendance and the financial outcome.

With an attendance of 2,300 Thursday evening, in addition to hundreds turned away, and with 1,800 persons present Friday, receipts of the event attained a new high mark of $1,157.25, Supt. Morris Bye, tournament manager, announced this week. He added that the crowd Friday evening would have been considerably larger had it not been for a snowstorm and for the added fact that Thief River Falls was eliminated on the opening night.

Color was lent to the tournament by the presence of four bands representing Thief River Falls, Bemidji, Hendrum and Roseau high schools. Other added entertainment included exhibitions by the Lincoln high school boys' and girls' tumbling teams and twirling squads, and a twirling exhibition by Adelaide Peterson of Ada, representing the Hendrum school.

Theatre Owner Settles for Injury to Boy's Eye

Judge Paul S. Carroll in district court in Minneapolis last Friday approved a settlement under the terms of which the Berkoperated theatres paid 11-year-old Charles Faust $100 for injuries sustained when the boy was struck in the eye by a flying object while attending a movie show at the Avalon theatre. Action was brought by the boy's mother, Mrs. Eileen Faust of Minneapolis.

THERE WILL BE RAINY DAYS

Last payments will be made by the city this year on the bonds that were issued for the paving, the hydro plant improvement and the McIntosh Seymour engine, reducing the indebtedness to $274,000. That's a lot of debt in any man's language but there are several things about it that are quite encouraging. At the rate we have been paying off, it could be retired in a hurry. All but $30,000 of it draws less than 4% interest. And all but $30,000 of it has been contracted since 1935. In other words all of our old obligations, with the exception of the $30,000 issued many, many years ago for water works, have been paid up, and this $30,000 could be paid now if the bonds could be taken up without paying an unreasonable premium.

The city is in a good financial condition and with the light plant turning in a net profit of $75,000 a year there is little to worry about. Which brings up the question of how much profit the light plant should pay and whether or not rates should be reduced again.

As the volume of output increases it will be possible to reduce rates without reducing the net return. It may prove to be good business to keep the net return where it is for a few years, at least until we find out what our relief problem is going to be when the war ends. The situation is likely to be more difficult then and it will be very comfortable to have a reserve to draw on. Providing for a rainy day is just as good practice for a community as it is for an individual. And we are going to have some rainy days.

In spite of the bad weather that kept many storm-conscious customers away the second night, the regional tournament set a new record for cash receipts, a total of $1,157.25 being laid on the line. The first night's total was $650, which means a might-have-been total for the two nights of $1,300. Biggest previous take was $1,084, grossed at Bemidji last year. The new gym meets with the hearty approval of spectators and assures us of getting our share of district and regional tournaments in the future.

There is a hot controversy on in the legislature over the proposal to limit gasoline trucks to loads of 3,000 gallons. Loaded to this limit, trucks would weigh in the neighborhood of 17 tons as we understand it. Some of the trucks hauling gas from the refineries into the state now carry as many as 5,000 gallons or nearly as much as is contained in a small railroad tank car. This is a problem we can add to the long list of things we are not now greatly concerned about but we probably would be concerned about it if a large portion of the gas shipped into the state were to come in by trucks. For that reason we believe the tendency in that direction should be checked before the problem does become serious. We believe there are already too many large trucks on our highways, as our highways are now constructed. We don't know whether it would hurt any more to get hit by a 25 ton truck than by one that weighed only 17 tons but from the standpoint of maintaining a highway system our guess is that 17 tons would not be an unreasonable limit.

Congratulations to the Bemidji Lumberjacks on their victory in the regional tournament and best wishes for their success in the state meet which gets under way this afternoon. If they are on their game they will be hard to beat. It's never easy to beat a gang of sharpshooters who can sink baskets from their own side of the court. They go into the tournament with the experience of veterans and should give a good accounting for the region they represent. Good luck Bemidji.

Hearing Dr. Carl Evang, the Norwegian official who spoke here last week, restored our faith in our cousins who remained at home when our folks came to this country. The Norwegians didn't stop the Germans. The element of surprise worked against them. They didn't know what it was all about until it was too late. But the Norwegians weren't licked and they are still fighting. They are fighting more effectively now than they could have if they had been successful in resisting the invaders. They lost their country for the time being but they saved their government and their merchant fleet and the merchant fleet may prove to be a deciding factor in the war. Hitler's invasion of Norway may prove to have been an expensive blunder.

At the request of an indignant young lady who was showered with slush twice during the past week as she walked across the First Street bridge, we urge the construction of a splash guard to protect the many pedestrians who use this bridge. A solid board fence along the inside of the walk might save lives too. For youngsters a sidewalk is never wide enough and with the visibility obstructed by the bridge supports this is a particularly hazardous piece of highway. A splash guard would not be expensive to build.

It was a better regional tournament than the fans expected, both nights providing thrill packed exhibitions of good basketball that required extra play to determine a winner. Hendrum pulled the big surprise of the show of course by almost doing what some of us smart guys said was impossible. And the Prowlers turned in a game that pleased even the most critical of local critics. It was a great program.

You may have a little difficulty in tuning in your favorite radio stations Sunday morning but don't apply the axe to your receiving set because of that. The cause of the difficulty will be the changed wave lengths to which the various broadcasting stations have been assigned, all done in the interests of better radio service.

Worth attending is the Father Hubbard program at the high school auditorium Tuesday night. The "Glacier Priest" is recognized as an authority on conditions in the arctic wastes of Alaska and brings a message that is both instructive and interesting. His program provides two hours of good entertainment.

Are we going to wait until we have two bad fires at the same time before we buy another fire fighting unit or would it be smart to provide the equipment before the need for it arises.

AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT
(Worthington Globe)

An experiment which should be of interest to Worthington and other Minnesota communities is now being conducted in Greendale, Wisc.

In that community of 1,500 population, a youth employment service has been established for junior and senior high school students which has resulted in a marked decline in complaints about young people disturbing the peace or destroying property.

Started last September on the theory that youths with something to do and a little spending money are less of a community problem than those who are "broke," this service has attracted the cooperation of 100 boys and girls and the assistance of Greendale students, teachers and city officials.

When the employment service was organized, the 70 boys and girls attending the first meeting set up a board of control composed of two boys, two girls and two adults. A member of the police department serves as a group advisor and the headquarters of the service are set up at the police station.

One of the features of the employment service is the requirement that all who want to take care of children must complete a six-lesson course in fundamentals of child care, a course conducted by the school nurse and assistant principle in the local schools. The 14 girls who completed this course are now regularly employed.

About 30 other Greendale boys and girls are earning spending money doing various odd jobs obtained through the employment service—jobs such as housework, snow shoveling, theatre ushering, window washing and newspaper carrying. The employment service furnishes workers on a schedule rate basis.

Greendale officials are enthusiastic about the service which supplies trained help for child care at a comparatively nominal cost; offers a source of income to high school students to help pay for their education and give them pocket money; and creates a sense of responsibility and independence in youths who are given opportunity to work in their spare time.

Establishment of such a service would undoubtedly serve the same functions in any city in which it was efficiently operated. To us, it would be well worth investigation by Worthington people interested in the welfare of our younger people.

Added Patrol Activity Nips More Lawbreakers, Assists More Motorists

Members of the Minnesota State Highway Patrol during February just past patrolled more than 435,000 miles on state trunk highways in approximately 24,000 hours of duty, as compared to 274,000 miles patrolled during 23,000 hours of duty during the same month of 1940, the monthly report of Chief Elden Rowe to Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann showed this week.

As a result of the increased patrol activity on the highways, 5,439 traffic law violations, most of them dangerous to life and property, were intercepted as compared to 2,018 during February of 1940. At the same time 2,925 motorists in trouble on the road were given aid by patrolmen, as compared to 2,548 in February a year ago.

Of the larger number of motorists halted last month for infractions of traffic safety laws, 834 were arrested as compared to 415 during the same month a year ago; 2,894 were warned against repetition of less serious or hazardous offenses, as against 1,661 warnings for February of 1940; and 1,711 were given "must repair" tags for driving with unsafe equipment as compared to 828 so warned during the previous February.
